Miss Marganette White and Richard H. Lucas, Jr., Married Last Saturday

The wedding of Miss Gale Marganette White, of Roper, and Richard H. Lucas, jr., of Plymouth, was solemnized Saturday, June 27 at 7 p. m. in the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church. The Rev. R. H. Lucas, sr., father of the bride-groom, performed the wedding ceremony.

White gladioli, magnolias and lighted cathedral candles in floor standards, against a background of ivy and pine decorated the chancel of the church.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Shep Brinkley, of Plymouth, including Schubert's "Serenade" and "Ave Maria" by Bach Gounod, "Liebestraum" was played softly as the vows were spoken and the traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and the recessional.

The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a long fitted bodice with square neckline and long leg-o-mutton sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of brides roses.

Miss Imogene McGibony, of Atlanta, Ga. was maid of honor. She wore a yellow dress of marquisette with a draped bodice, sweetheart neckline and long bishop sleeves.

Miss Betty McCracken, of Canton, Miss Polly Swain of Charleston, S. C., Miss Sileen Smith of Asheville and Mrs. I. J. Sandlin, jr., of Beaufortville, brides maids, wore identical dresses, two in blue and two in pink. All of them carried arm bouquets of mixed flowers and wore in their hair bows of matching material with streamers hanging to their waists.

Mrs. White, mother of the bride wore a dress of shadow rose and a shoulder corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Lucas, mother of the bride-groom, was dressed in black and her corsage was also of white roses.

The bride changed to a costume of tan silk gabardine with black accessories for traveling.

Dick Norman, of Plymouth acted as best man and ushers were; Ronnie Spruill, Williford Whitley and Edward Willoughby, of Plymouth and Thomas Swain, of Williamston.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White, of Roper. She attended ECTC in Greenville, two years, and the University of North Carolina two years.

The bride-groom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Lucas, sr., of Plymouth. He attended Oak Ridge Military School and was in the U. S. Army from September 1940 to September 1941. At the present he is associated with his father in business.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. R. E. Dunning, of Plymouth, greeted guests and Mrs. W. M. Darden, of Plymouth, introduced them to members of the receiving line, which consisted of the parents of the couple and the bridal party.

Mrs. Edward Merck, of Charlotte, aunt of the bride-groom, directed guests to the punch bowl over which Mrs. Patterson Clark, of Sumter, W. F. Lucas.
