Abbott and Costello New Comedy Here Today, Tomorrow

"Ride 'Em Cowboy" Also Has Big Cast of Other Noted Stars

Hailed as the most elaborate as well as the funniest of the Abbott and Costello starring comedies, Universal's "Ride 'Em Cowboy" is showing Thursday and Friday at the Plymouth Theatre. Headliners in the large supporting cast are Dick Foran, Anne Gwynne, Johnny Mack Brown, Samuel S. Hinds, The Merry Macs and Ella Fitzgerald. Featured musical and dancing aggregations include The Hi-Hatters, The Buckaroo Band and the Ranger Chorus of 40.

Backgrounded against an Arizona dude ranch, "Ride 'Em Cowboy" is said to contain everything necessary in the way of parade grounds for the antics of the two stellar zanies, including Indians, rodeo aces, bucking broncos, wild steers and feminine pulchritude. Among the players are a bevy of bathing beauties and the seven most beautiful cowgirls in the world.

Two of the most picturesque dude ranches in Southern California—the B-Bar A near Newhall and Rancho Chihuahua in Solemint Canyon—were among the four location sites used by Director Arthur Lubin in the production of the offering. A third spot was Ravenna, a whistle stop 60 miles from Hollywood, where Universal built a tepee village.

Romantic interest in "Ride 'Em Cowboy" is carried by beautiful Miss Gwynne, Foran and Brown. Miss Gwynne portrays a rodeo star and daughter of the dude ranch owner. Foran is the author of best-seller Western novels who has never been west of Broadway, while Brown is the ranch foreman.

Queen of Swing
Ella Fitzgerald, America's queen of swing vocalizing, makes her screen debut as the ranch cook. She sings her own one-time hit tune, "A Tisket, A Tasket."

True Boardman and John Grant wrote the screen play from the adaptation by Harold Shumate. Edmund L. Hartmann authored the original story and the picture was filmed under the associate producership of Alex Gottlieb.

series of contrasts with his sharp, Quixotic personality.

Miss Parrish is known particularly for her brilliant work in many of Deanna Durbin's starring films, while Miss Gillis is both a film and radio headliner of note.

Competent Support
Mature performers linked with the juveniles include Kelly, Virginia Brissac and John Gallaudet, who have key roles in the dramatic racketeering expose which is backgrounded in the New York slums.

William Nigh directed "Tough As They Come" and Ken Goldsmith was associate producer.

Lewis Amster and Brenda Weisberg co-authored the screen play from an original story by Amster and Albert Bein. Woody Bredell was the cameraman.

Dead End Kids Star In Film Booked for Owl Show Saturday

"Tough As They Come" Is Thrilling and Mirthful Melodrama

A strikingly able and successful array of juvenile talent will come to the Plymouth theatre screen at the owl show Saturday night in Universal's "Tough As They Come." The film is announced as a thrilling and mirthful melodrama dealing with rackets and racket-busting.

Headlining the cast are those talented youngsters known variously as the Dead End Kids and the Little Tough Guys. Paul Kelly, Helen Parrish and Ann Gillis augment the personnel prominently involved in the plot.

Halop Heads Cast
Heading the male group is Billy Halop, handsome and most versatile of the original Dead Enders who, in "Tough As They Come," essays his first romantic leading role. Affording descriptive contrasts to Halop are the others of the group—Huntz Hall, Bernard Punsly and Gabriel Dell.

Hall is the most pugnacious of the Dead Enders, the quarrelsome sparring in the melee of bickering and laugh-studded wrangling prominent in their performances. Punsly is the perfect stooge. Dell completes the quartet.

Thursdays and Saturdays from November 26 to February 10.

Rabbit, November 26 to February 10, no limit.

Squirrel (other than fox squirrel and Southern red squirrel), October 1 to January 15, 10 per day.

Turkey, November 26 to February 10, one a day and three a season.

Ruffed grouse, November 26 to January 1, two a day and 10 a season.

In those counties not having a local fox law, foxes may be taken with guns only during the open season on other game animals. There is no closed season on wildcat, weasel and skunk.

Humphrey Bogart is Tough-Guy In New Film Here Sunday

"The Big Shot" Has Unusual Story and Star Combination

"The Big Shot," Warner Bros' new film which shows at the Plymouth Theatre Sunday has a story and star combination that makes for sure-fire screen entertainment. It has an action-packed story which stars Humphrey Bogart as a one-time big shot gangster who is caught between two fires. He can't go straight because no honest person wants to bother with a guy who has been up the river three times. And he can't get into any more trouble because the next time it's life!

Hounded by his past, taunted by fellow gangsters as a has-been, Bogart is driven to distraction. Finally (after all, a guy has to do something to make some dough) he consents to act as the "brains" for an armored car stickup. And anyhow, the boys convinced him that nothing could go wrong because one of the underworld's cleverest mouthpieces (a role played by Stanley Ridges) was backing them. But plenty could go wrong, especially if the lawyer's wife happened to be your former sweetheart before you did your third stretch.

Newcomer Has Top Role

Irene Manning, an alluring newcomer to the screen, plays the top feminine role and advance opinion says that she is headed for a successful screen career. As Ridges' wife, she explains to Bogart, that she had to marry because she was financially desperate, but now that he is back everything will be all right, if he would only promise not to return to his career of crime.

On the night of the stickup, Irene prevents Bogart from going through with the job by keeping him in his room at the point of a gun. Despite this, a befuddled witness identifies him as the person who used her as a shield in making his getaway from the pursuing police after the holdup.

Has Exciting Climax
Someone tips off Ridges as to what's been going on between his wife and Bogart and as a result he lets Humphrey take a lifetime rap for a crime he never committed. But Bogart plans a revenge that makes an exciting climax.

"The Big Shot" has a fine supporting cast made up of Richard Travis, Susan Peters, Chick Chandler, Howard da Silva and many more. The original screen play was written by Bertram Millhauser, Abem Finkel and Daniel Fuchs. The production was directed by Lewis Seiler.

That Extra Something!

...You can spot it every time

SKILLED workers have "know-how". So have the makers of Coca-Cola. That's why Coca-Cola has that extra something. Almost anybody can make a soft drink, but nobody else can make Coca-Cola.

There's a finished art in its making which gives Coca-Cola a special quality... its unique taste comes from a blend of pure, wholesome essences,—refreshment that can't be copied.

No other drink gives this special plus... this unique taste and after-sense of refreshment. People have come to realize that nothing takes the place of Coca-Cola. To want refreshment is to think of ice-cold Coca-Cola. Contentment comes when you connect with a Coke.

* * *

Wartime limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember: Coca-Cola, being first choice, is the first to go. Ask for it each time. No matter how short the supply, the quality of Coca-Cola will not be changed in any respect.

Long, hard-working hours tire you out,—slow up production. You need a brief respite. So, when the schedule calls for time-out for a "breather", a moment for ice-cold, energy-giving Coca-Cola leads to better work.

The best is always the better buy!
