Open Season Draws Near For Hunting With Restrictions

Game Warden Tom Terry Advises Sportsmen To Buy Licenses

As the open season approaches for hunters, bringing out the local sportsmen and probably some visitors, Game Warden Tom Terry suggests it is advisable to warn them about hunting and fishing regulations all must observe, and refresh their memories relative to dates when they chase game.

Every person who hunts must buy a State Hunting license whether hunting in the county of which he is a resident or not. Fishing licenses are not necessary to fish within the county of which one is a resident, but must be obtained before fishing outside that county. Six months residence in a county is necessary before one may claim to be a resident of that county. Residents of the state may obtain a State Fishing license, but persons whose homes are outside North Carolina must obtain a non-resident license.

Non-observance of the law relative to fishing and hunting licenses and non-observance of the open season and bag limits subjects the offenders to fines.

The hunting season opens on October 1, when squirrel shooting is permitted, closing on January 15. The bag limit is ten squirrels per day, but there is no limit for the season.

Rabbits may be hunted from November 26 to February 10, inclusive, with no limit for day or season.

Quail and wild turkey open season begins on November 26 and ends on February 10. The bag limit for quail is ten per day and 150 for the season. Only one turkey may be killed on one day and only three during the season.

The deer and bear season opens October 1 and continues to the end of the year. Two bear may be killed on any one day, but that is also the limit for the season. One buck deer may be killed on one day and only three during the season.

It is unlawful to hunt on Sundays and there are strict regulations forbidding the sale of game. Fishing is not legally forbidden on Sundays.

Any non-resident licensee may export under permit from the Game Commissioner, except by parcel post, two male deer and two wild turkeys during a season, not more, and two days' bag limit of other game animals and birds each calendar week, not more.

The open season for hunting ducks and geese begins November 2 and ends on January 10. The daily bag limit is ten, with the possession limit being 20. Two geese is the daily limit and four the possession limit.

The regulations permit shooting ducks and geese between sunrise and sunset and at no other time, differing from previous years when 4 o'clock in the afternoon was the dead line.

Dove shooting is permitted December 1 to 31, inclusive. There is no bag limit.

TWO STARS PICTURED IN ROMANTIC POSE

Hedy Lamarr and William Powell are co-starred for the first time in a stirring romantic drama of blackmail and intrigue, "Crossroads," to be shown at the Plymouth Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Powell and Lamarr In 'Crossroads' Are Teamed First Time

Thrilling Drama; Popular Artists at Local Theatre Monday - Tuesday

Powell and Lamarr are teamed for the first time in M-G-M's "Crossroads," the thrilling drama that will be shown at the Plymouth Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, September 14 and 15.

Thoroughly believable and entirely engrossing, the film unfolds a story of romance and intrigue in Paris just prior to the present war. It stars William Powell and Hedy Lamarr, with Claire Trevor, Basil Rathbone and Margaret Wycherley heading a sterling supporting cast.

Powell plays a French diplomat married to the glamorous Miss Lamarr. Their happiness is threatened when Rathbone and Miss Trevor engineer a blackmail plot against Powell. They charge him with masquerading under a false identity and claim he is really a murderer and thief. The chain of evidence proving Powell to be the ex-criminal is built up in masterly fashion under the skillful direction of Jack Conroy.

The situation is loaded with suspense as Powell endeavors to prove his true identity and expose the blackmail plot. With the ghost of his forgotten past looming ominously, Powell probes for the solution.

The picture is a plausible drama. Its characters, in addition to those portrayed by the stars and Miss Trevor, Rathbone and Miss Mycherly, are played by such outstanding actors as Felix Bressart, Vladimir Sokoloff, Sig Rumann, H. B. Warner, Guy Bates Post, Reginald Owen, Frank Conroy, Philip Merivale, Fritz Leiber, James Rennie and Mitchell Lewis.

The film, produced by Edwin Knopf for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, is brightened with enchantingly beautiful sets as a background for the luxtopnotch laugh hit. They assert that it affords Henry Fonda his funniest role since "The Lady Eve" and that the part of the irrepressible Dwight Dawson is custom-tailored for dapper Don Ameche. Its first time they've been together on the screen since Ameche "invented" the phone!

The picture is noteworthy, too, for having provided lovely Lynn Bari her first starring role in a major production on the 20th Century-Fox lot. Lynn's performance, it is believed will place her among the most important leading ladies in Hollywood. Edward Everett Horton and George Barbier are featured at the head of a very strong supporting cast.

'The Masked Rider' Stars Johnny Mack Brown as Its Hero

Comes Here Saturday With Fuzzy Knight and Nell O'Day

"The Masked Rider," roottin', tootin', shootin' action-drama of the untamed sagelands and starring Johnny Mack Brown will be shown Saturday, September 12, at the Plymouth Theatre.

This picture marks Brown's seventeenth consecutive film for Universal as a two-gun hero of the wild west. Again with him in the featured supporting leads are the irrepressible Fuzzy Knight and Nell O'Day. Grant Withers also joins the cast in an important part.

Fuzzy Knight has been privately and professionally known as "Fuzzy" for 20 years, but actually his real name is John Forrest Knight, L. L. D., having earned his doctorship in law at the University of West Virginia.

Honey Wartime sugar restrictions have greatly increased the demand for honey as a sweetening ingredient, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

That Extra Something!

... You can spot it every time

LIKE "winning a letter", keeping out in front of the others takes an extra something. Coca-Cola has it, —in taste . . . in quality . . . in refreshment.

The finished art that comes from 57 years of practice goes into the making of Coca-Cola. A special blend of flavor-essences merges all the ingredients of Coca-Cola into a unique, original taste of its own.

Everybody recognizes this clean, exciting quality taste in Coca-Cola. There are many ways to quench your thirst, but only Coca-Cola refreshes like Coca-Cola. Contentment comes when you connect with a Coke.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called Coke. Coca-Cola and Coke mean the same thing . . . the real thing . . . "a single thing coming from a single source, and well known to the community".

The best is always the better buy!

With war, there's less Coca-Cola. So Coca-Cola, first choice, sells out first—sometimes may not be in the red cooler. Worth waiting for . . . those times when "The Coke's in".
