Home-Club Notes

By Mrs. MARY F. DARDEN, Home Agent

Monday—Scuppernon Club; Tuesday—Cherry Club; Wednesday—Wenona Club; Thursday—Office; Friday—Mt. Tabor Club; Saturday—Curb market at 8 a. m.

This month every club member is being asked to take an old dress or suit to her club meeting to plan some way it can be made over. No matter how old it is just so the material is not moth eaten.

Remodeling and using the garments we have on hand will free materials and labor that are needed for war purposes. Be patriotic and do your part.

Women of Cool Spring Club Do Their Part

During the hot summer month of August, Mrs. J. F. Asby thought it a good idea to make some ice cream and sell it to make money for the club.

club. Every member contributed and helped make the cream. At the September meeting the treasurer reported having made $25. The club women are planning to give this to some USO center or buy a bond. A spirit of working together certainly exists among those club members.

The children of these families, which are 4-H Club members, sold the cream.

Beech Grove Club

Club members stopped their work to attend the club meeting at Mrs. M. L. Bowers.

They reported 661 quarts canned, sold $30 worth of chickens, $136.40 of eggs, $58 of dairy products, $5.75 of vegetables; one cow bought, 40 garments made, painted kitchen, living room and dining room, remodelled a living room and painted 5 pieces furniture.

Cross Road Club

Mrs. D. B. Chesson entertained the club last week. Reports were: 745 quarts canned, chickens sold $76.06, eggs $108.03, meat $35, dairy products $6, one chair upholstered, radio, two clocks, crochet rug and a trellis built. Bought $250 in bonds. One cow bought.

Cool Spring Report

Eggs sold $74.80, chickens $76, 1129 quarts canned, vegetables sold $14.65, 15 garments made, dairy products sold $28, painted one floor, made clothes closet, painted four cabinets, a new wardrobe and lamp and one closet remodeled.

Mrs. Tom West was hostess to the club and to one visitor, Mrs. Amelia Stillman.

Piney Grove Club

Mrs. A. M. Chesson entertained the Piney Grove club last week. All of the members were present except two.

Reports were as follows: eggs sold $91.20, chickens $85.68, canned 1465 quarts, 25 garments made, one room and stairway painted, new studio couch, end table smoking stand, four chairs, two rugs, heater, radio table, painted porch suit and three pairs of curtains and shades.

Text: 'The stores and business places of Plymouth are as fine as you will find anywhere from the standpoint of service, high quality merchandise and fair prices. They are a part of our town and participate in every worth-while movement for the betterment of the whole county. Aside from this they are friendly and ready to stand behind their customers when in need. They pay taxes for the support of schools and roads, back up the churches and in every other way help to make this a better country in which to live. The more you spend with them, the more you will have to spend, because the profits they earn remain here in the community, which means that you will get your share when it is distributed again.
