DAVIDSON-BRILEY

Miss Mildred Louise Briley and W. A. Davidson, jr., lieutenant (jg) U. S. Navy Air Corps, were married at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon September 8 at the home of the bride. The rings ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward T. Gilbert, priest of the St. Agnes Catholic Church in Washington.

Mrs. Sam. Whitehurst, pianist, of Bethel and Miss Barbara Dodson, of Goldsboro, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Briley, who wore a white tulle dress and a Juliet cap. Her arm bouquet was of mixed flowers.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Charlie Wood, lieutenant (jg) U. S. Navy Air Corps, of Edenton.

The bride's dress was of white satin, fashioned with a yoke edged with seed pearls. The veil, falling from a coronet of orange blossoms, extended the length of the train. She carried a prayer book with an orchid showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Briley, of Bethel, is a graduate of ECTC, in Greenville, and has taught in the Goldsboro schools two years.

Lt. Davidson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davidson, sr., of Plymouth, attended High School at Belmont Abbey, studied at State College two years and graduated from ECTC, Greenville, in 1941. He enlisted in June of that year and was commissioned in the U. S. Navy Air Corps in August 1942. After serving six months on active duty in the South Pacific he returned to the States last month for a furlough. Lt. Davidson will return to duty on September 22.

Following the ceremony the bridal couple, attendants and friends were entertained at a cake cutting by the parents of the bride. The dining room table, covered with an embroidered cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and fever few flanked by white candles in silver holders. Bridal ices were served from one end of the table and the three tier wedding cake from the other end. Nuts and white mints were also served.

The living room was decorated with tall standards holding burning white tapers and tall baskets filled with white gladioli and fern. For the ceremony the bridal couple stood before an improvised altar.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left on a wedding trip to unannounced points.

For traveling the bride wore a soldier blue suit with black accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davidson, sr., entertained their family at a dinner at their home Tuesday evening, September 7, prior to the Davidson-Briley wedding the next day.

Those present were W. A. Davidson, jr., Phyllis Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Sellers and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Georgia Wedding, of Arkansas. They all attended the wedding on Wednesday.
