Mrs. E. S. Blount Hostess Thursday
Mrs. Ted Blount delightfully entertained the Thursday Afternoon Literary Club at its Christmas party Thursday at her home, "The Arches." A two-course turkey luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. Imported lace mats were used on the table. Favors and decorations accentuated red, white and blue, in keeping with the patriotic idea carried out in the club programs during the year. Burning red, white and blue candles in silver holders furnished the illumination in the dining room. Following the luncheon, a short business session was held, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Ted Blount. Mrs. J. Robert Campbell led the devotional. There was silent prayer for the recovery of Mrs. H. A. Blount, a member who is ill. Entertainment included two contests, with prizes going to Mrs. W. H. Peele and Mrs. J. F. Keyes, and the exchange of Christmas gifts, which were distributed by Billy Peele. Mrs. T. R. Jenkins and Miss Bessie Rash were visitors.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS

It would be fine if we personally could meet and greet each one of you this Christmas of 1943. The fact that we cannot does not keep us from saying to you here that we wish you the happiest Christmas and the most prosperous New Year ever.

We also express our appreciation for the fine patronage you have accorded us during the year just ending, and we hope to have the pleasure of serving you for many years to come.

PEACE WILL COME AGAIN!

The greatest gift that can come to any person, any people, this Christmas is the heartfelt belief that Peace will come again.

Not the peace of complacency, compromise or appeasement, but the justly earned Peace of those who truly believe and are willing to fight for their faith in the good, the generous, the kindly way of life.

The evil shall be swept from the earth, drowned in that very misery they have brought down upon their fellowmen, and the good shall arise from their suffering. Peace will come again . . . beyond languages, beyond creeds, beyond boundaries.
