the chairman. Miss Bray, formerly with the North Carolina Pulp Comrant, succeeds Mrs. Norma B. Spruill. who resigned to become secretary to County Agent W. V. Hays. Miss Bray was appointed price clerk after a short period as rationing clerk with the local board.

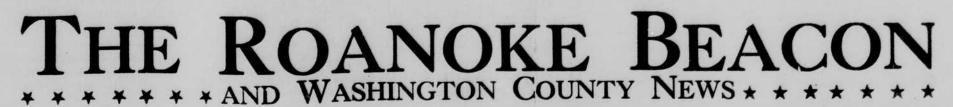

Lt. Douglas H. Ausbon was here last week visiting his grandfather, C. V. W. Ausbon, and other relatives. Lieutenant Ausbon received his wings and commission in the Army Air Forces May 23. after completing training at Marianna, Fla. He is the son of Mrs. C. S. Ausbon, of Durham, formerly of Plymouth.

Chief of Police P. W. Brown said this week that he was giving fair warning that no hogs would be permitted to be kept inside the city limits this year. Time will be given to have all swine removed beyond the edge of town, according to the chief, but after that, look out!

The 15 chewing gum vending machines operated by the local Lions Club collected a total of $327.75 in the past six weeks, according to P. W. Brown, who looks after them. The Lions Club gets 20 per cent of the gross "take" for its blind work A representative of the firm which owns the machines says the average taken in per machine here is the highest in the United States.

It looks as if Washington County fell down on its bond quota again last month. With a goal of $22,305, sales at the local bank amounted to $11,-960.75 and $2,737.50 at the post office up to yesterday, for a total of $14,698.25. This is not a complete report, since the Roper and Creswell post offices are still to be heard from, but it is doubted that they have sold enough to make up the difference.

Carl L. Bailey doesn't like pigeons. He especially doesn't like pigeons around the courthouse. And, emphamdatically, the things he most doesn't like are those pigeons that hang out at the tops of the long columns in front of the courthouse. Carl made a serious strategic faux pas last Saturday, when he set up Gregg Cherry headquarters for the primary at the foot of said columns. As big a target as he is, he hung around-not wisely, but too longto hand out literature designed to influence the electorate in favor of his candidate. Maybe the pigeons were for McDonald, who, they do say, is a dead pigeon hisself right now. At any rate- but this is a family newspaper, so perhaps the details had best be left to the imagination. Or you can ask Carl, but, pul-lease, not in mixed company.
