For the benefit of all and sundry who may have cases in the local Recorder's court, Court Clerk W. M. Darden stated this week that absolutely no credit arrangement can be made with his office for future payment of fines or court costs by installment or otherwise.

With the total collections re ported from the county in the current March of Dimes campaign standing at $2,434 as of yesterday, County Director Bill Ruffin urged all those who have collections not yet reported to turn them in at once to Benton Liverman in Plymouth in order that the quota of $2,500 may be reached as soon as possible.

The James E. Jethro Post No. 164 of the American Legion will eet at the Legion Hall tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Rev. P. B. Nickens, chaplain of the post, who is on the speakers' bureau of the mass chest x-ray survey, will speak concerning that work and its importance to the community.

Out-of-town students attending the Northeastern District meeting of Beta Clubs here Wednesday at the Plymouth High School were much in evidence on the downtown streets in the afternoon.

A meeting of the Plymouth Merchants Association held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock was pretty well attended. The group discussed ways of promoting increased business in Plymouth.

A very attractive display of Scouting equipment, flags, literature, rope knots and such calls attention to Scout Week, being urrently observed, from the cener display window at Leder Brothers here.

Word was received here late yesterday of the death of Joseph Frank, father of Jack Frank who formerly managed the Margolis Store which was closed here the first of the year.

Mr. Frank died yesterday after-noon at 2 o'clock in Philadelphia, his home. He was around 80 years of age and was a buyer of general merchandise. He was at one time in business in Williamston.
