VOLUME LXIV—NUMBER 48

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones, of Buzzards Bay, Mass., are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter, Mrs. W. Furgurson, and family.

The Rev. P. B. Nickens is an accomplished speaker and frequently fills engagements of various kinds other than his pastoral duties as minister at Ludford Memorial Baptist Church here. Last Thursday Mr. Nickens delivered an address to the Plymouth Lions Club via tape recording. Mr. Nickens was unable to be present but he arranged to have his voice on hand anyway. The talk was well-received, it is re-

John Picot, of Littleton, great great grandson of Julian Picot, a political exile from France who practiced medicine in Plymouth years and years ago, was planning to attend the meeting of the Washington County Historical Association here Monday night, John Darden reports, but an injury sustained in a recent automobile accident prevented it.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Darby have returned from Newark, N. J., after attending funeral services for Mr. Darby's father, Green-leaf Shotwell Darby, 89. Darby died Sunday morning, November 15, at his home in Newark.

Over at the Massey Hill-Perquimans eastern championship game in Wilson last Friday night, no spectators were allowed along the sidelines. However, there were a few newsmen following the line sticks to cover the game, so "Snooks" Burnham found himself a scrap of paper and a pencil and got right in the middle of them, industriously writing some thing down after each play. Following the game someone asked to see his notes. They proved to be illegible scribbling for the most part, and the portion that was intelligible was unprintable. Anyway, no one had a better view of the game than "Snooks," unless it was the officials.

Pounding Given Here Last Week

The Rev. E. M. Spruill, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Plymouth, and St. Luke's Church of Roper, was agreeably surprised when the congregation of St. Luke's Church last Wednesday rector with a pounding as he returned home from a visit at 8:30 p. m. The group was led by Miss Gussie Carstarphen, of Roper, the oldest member of the parish.

The pounding included many the living room in the presence of the donors. Mr. Spruill expressed his deep appreciation to the Roper congregation for their thoughtfulness

Darby's Father Is Buried Last Week

Funeral services for Greenleaf Shotwell Darby, 89, of Newark, N. J., were conducted from Colonial Funeral Home, East Orange, N. J., Wednesday afternoon of last week by Dr. Weiler, rector of the Episcopal Church, Newark. Interment was in the family plot at Evergreen Cemetery, Elizabeth, N. J. Mr. Darby was a native of Elizabeth.

Mr. Darby died at his home in Newark early Sunday morning, November 15. He had not been ill but enjoyed unusually good

Mr. Darby was an artist and photographer until his retirement some 20 years ago. Since that time he had built and raced sailboats and was described by his son, L. J. Darby, here, as a racing

Other survivors, besides his son here, are three other sons, Albert M., Millbrook, N. J., Francis G., West Orange, N. J., and Martin F. Darby, of Newark; and a daughter, Mrs. Louis Habich, of Irvington, N. J.

Roper Ruritan Officers To Be Installed January

The new slate of officers elected recently to serve the Roper Ruritan Club for the coming year will be installed at the January meeting of the club, it is an-

Officers to be installed are Ralph Hughes, president; Bryan Harris, vice president; J. L. Rea, treasurer; Ted Martus, secretary; and Jesse Rawls, segeant-at-arms.

THE ROANOKE BEACON

AND WASHINGTON COUNTY NEWS

Plymouth, Washington County, North Carolina, Thursday, November 26, 1953

A home newspaper dedicated to the service of Washington County and its 13,000 people.

ESTABLISHED 1889

STUDENT COUNCIL MAKING REAL CONTRIBUTION AT CRESWELL SCHOOL

The Creswell Student Council and sponsor, Miss Matilda Alexander— this organization is making a real contribution to the morale and welfare of the entire student body. Reading from left to right: Miss Matilda Alexander, Jerry Smith, Larry Woodley, Geraldine Davenport, Dural Collins, Faye Phelps, Floyd Phelps, Mildred Davenport, Reggie Davenport, Barbara Davenport, Norman Furlough, Vance Clifton, Douglas Day, Larry Davenport and Lonnell Davenport.

Business Closing To Mark Thanksgiving Observance Locally

Holiday Lights Being Installed

Chief of Police P. W. Brown has had his town crew at work several days this week stringing the holiday lights in the business section. He said yesterday that the work should be completed this week, and it is possible that the lights will be turned on for the first time Saturday night.

As in the past, the lights are being installed on two blocks of Water Street between Jefferson and Adams, and the one block of Washington Street between Main and Water. The strings of lights, arched across the streets are spaced about 50 feet apart. They will remain up until New Year's.

Creswell Host To Roanoke District Ruritans Meeting

ance Award

17 clubs in the district were rep-17 clubs in the district were represented with an attendance of about 100 members and guests.

Monday morning of next week. about 100 members and guests.

See RURITANS, Page 7

Offices, Stores and Shops Closing for Day with Few Exceptions; Schools To

A general cessation of business or the day will mark observance of Thanksgiving holiday in Plymouth according to a check made here yesterday.

Be Closed Until Monday

The one-day closing will inbank, all offices-county and federal-in the courthouse,

Restaurants will open for the day, and drug stores will probably observe the usual Sunday hours for the holiday. Most service stations blackboard and under the picture are expected to remain open for regular hours, but a few may

Local industrial plants will ob-Principal Address by Hertville Club Gets Attend- day off at N. C. Pulp Company but the plant will operate. Hour-

Roanoke District convention of colored, will observe the holiday.

Carroll R. Holmes, of Hertford, until Christmas when the big holiday of the school year will come

BUYING TAGS MAY NOT BE SO BAD AT THAT

Posing prettily with a new 1954 State license plate in front of the Carolina Motor Club office on Washington Street here are Miss Betty Ann Burnham, Plymouth's reigning beauty of the Albemarle, and Mrs. L. M. Edwards, office clerk. The agency has been located during past seasons at The Etheridge Company but was moved up town this year to the Ward InsuranceCompany office. Licenses for autos, private and farm trucks, commercial and private trailers and motorcycles go on sale at the office December 1.—Polaroid 1-Minute staff photo.

Farm Bureau Unit Here Scolded by

Maddrey Scores Laxity of County Group; Creswell Man Named To Head Bureau Here

C. Gordon Maddrey, president f the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation, scored the Washington County unit of the Farm Bureau for its laxity in an address that highlighted the annual meeting of the unit here last Friday night.

Maddrey said that during his offices of the county.

Exceptions to the closing for Thursday will be eating places, drug stores and service stations.

Orite from to visit was that of the college, Nashville, Tehn., will determine the first grade because there was the preaching. The young student a sincerity and frankness to be found there that is hard to find anywhere else.

College, Nashville, Tehn., will do the preaching. The young student a sincerity and frankness to be found there that is hard to find anywhere else.

He said he could recall such a visit when some little first grader | Welch. had made a crude drawing on the the teacher had written the word "horse." That was so a stranger lose for a short while around would know what animal the noon hour or in the early after- drawing was supposed to repre-

He applied the illustration to serve the holiday, at least in part.
Atlas Plywood Corporation and reau and noted that it had failed Frue Temper Corporation plants to send any resolutions to the here plan to close at the end of State Farm Bureau convention the day Wednesday and remain recently. "Your Farm Bureau closed until the regular opening unit here didn't help to shape hour next Monday, according to Farm Bureau policy," Maddrey ford Legislator; James- M. Bruce and C. E. Peckham. of you should complain if the The office force will have the policy adopted by the convention fails to meet with your approval.'

Using as his subject, "Who ly workers who desire to get off Shall Speak for the Farmer?" the The Creswell Ruritan Club was host Thursday of last week to the Roancha District Who desire to get on Shan Speak for the Farmer?" the state president pointed out that foreman, it was said.

All county schools white and lone and the political and lone and the political state of the manufacturers, the labor unlike to speak for the farmer. See FARM BUREAU, Page 12

For Bus Project

The Roper Ruritan Club will ponsor a barbecue supper to be erved Friday, December 4, at the school lunchroom, beginning at 6 p. m., it is announced.

A charge of $1.25 per plate will be made with the proceeds to go the fund for an activity bus for toper High School. A basketball double-header will follow the supper, with the Ruritan club members opposing the high school boys in one game and the wives of Ruritan members versus the high school girls in the

The Roper Parent-Teacher Association is taking an active part, also, in the movement to secure a bus to transport Roper school teams and already has about $2,-000 on hand, it is said. Very little more is needed to assure the bus and it is hoped that a good response will be had for the coming projects.

Young Girl Suffers Third Degree Burns at School

Martha Satterthwaite, 10-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Satterthwaite, of Plymouth, suffered third-degree burns on both forearms and hands when she lost her balance and fell into a trash fire on the Plymouth High School grounds last Thursday afternoon.

The young girl was treated at the Plymouth Clinic and is reported as well as could be exected at her home.

Nearby children pulled the girl from the fire to prevent more serious injury.

Several Town and County Churches Announce Special Services for Thursday Of This Week

Special services have been announced for Thursday of this week in observance of Thanksgiving Day at several churches of this county.

Ludford Memorial Baptist and Grace Episcopal Church, Plymouth, and St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Roper, have annunoced special services to mark the day.

Services at Ludford Memorial Church will begin at 10 a. m. An offering will be taken at that time for orphanage work. The pastor, the Rev. P. B. Nickens, will bring a brief message apropos the occasion and the choir will render a special Thanksgiving anthem.

Morning prayer and sermon will be featured at services set for 9 a. m. at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Roper, the rector, the Rev. Edward M. Spruill, of Plym-State Bureau Head Rev. Edward M. Sprucuth, has announced.

A special service with morning prayer and sermon is scheduled for Grace Episcopal Church at Plymouth, to begin at 11 a. m. At both services the churches will be decorated with fruits of the earth. Afterwards, these will be distributed to the needy of the community. The special offering to be taken at the services will go to the Thompson Orphanage, Charlotte.

A special week-end revival series will begin on Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene here. The pastor, the Rev. J. H. Hodges, has announced that a 19-year-old studays as a school principal his fav-orite room to visit was that of College, Nashville, Tenn., will do > make the trip here with young regular Fifth Sunday The union service among the four downtown churches here will be held Sunday night at the Plymouth Methodist Church, begin ning at 7:30 o'clock. It is customery for the members of Perseverance Lodge to attend this service in a body. Among the colored churches, Among the colored churches, quotas will be used for the 1954, Spring Green Disciple Church of 1955 and 1956 crops of peanuts. Christ has announced that the Gospel Singers, of Portsmouth, Va., will conduct a special song sition will be voted on in counservice Thanksgiving night, be- ties where the crops are grown. ginning at 8 o'clock.

Services Tuesday For Beaufort Man

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Trinity Free Will Baptist Church, Wenona, for F. Holland ial wac in Windley Cemetery near Plymouth.

Mr. Allen died Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home in the Wenona community, following an illness of two weeks. He was associated with the N.

C. State Forestry Service, was a member of Trinity Church, an elder in the church and had served for several years as superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr. Allen was a native of Beau fort County and spent his entire life in this section. He was born June 18, 1900, to John B. and Icla Smith Allen, of Pungo, who survive. He was married November 11, 1925, at Pantego to Miss Olga Davis, of Pungo, who also survives.

survivors include daughter, Louise Allen, of Plymouth; a son, Billy Allen, of Kinston; one grandchild; and a sister, Mrs. Daffie Manning, of Pun-

The remains were left at Horner's Funeral Home until an hour prior to the service and then carried to the church.

Lions Will Conduct Light Bulb Sale in December Here

At a board of directors meeting of the Plymouth Lions Club last Thursday night at the banquet hall of Plymouth Methodist Church it was decided to conduct a Christmas light bulb sale here Tuesday and Wednesday, December 10 and 11. Gordon Chesson was named to blood for civilian and military head the drive and it was said use, part of which will go into ion and the Bosie Bateman Post, officials in the application of new the local blood bank. that the town would be divided into districts with club members assigned to canvass these.

Proceeds will go to the club's ington County Hospital and blood mar Community Development fund. donors will be received from 11 ced. Community Development fund.

Special Services at Name Leaders in County Local Churches for Thanksgiving Day For Christmas Fund Drive

NEW UNIFORMS FOR SCHOOL BAND - MAJORETTES

Plymouth High School band members and majorettes are "tickled to death" with their new uniforms, modeled above by Mary Eleanor Sanderson, Ramona Spruill and Ronnie Matheny at the entrance to the band room at the school. Purchase of the uniforms at a cost of more than $3,300 was made possible by the recent drive for the activity fund of the school. First "full dress" parade of the band in its new uniforms will probably take place through th streets here before the Christmas holidays.—Polaroid 1-Minute staff photo.

Peanut Quotas Vote Set for December 15

Growers To Vote on Whether Marketing Quotas for Peanuts and Cotton To Be Used

Washington County peanut farmers will vote in a referendum on Tuesday, December 15, to determine whether marketing A similar vote is slated the same day as to cotton and each propo-

All growers are eligible to vote n the referendum who shared in 1953 crop peanuts produced on a farm with a threshed acreage of more than an acre and all growers who shared in the production of cotton for 1953 are eligible for participation in the cotton referendum that day.

At least two-thirds of all farmers voting must approve the Chandler, pastor, and the Rev. effective If marketing quotas are Ralph Osborn, of Pinetown. Burnot approved by the growers, and the Rev. quotas will not be used for the growers, and the Rev. effective in the growers, and the Rev. of Pinetown Burnot approved by the growers approved by quotas will not be used for the 1954 crop and another similar vote will be held next year on quotas for the following three

> The Secretary of Agriculture is directed by law to proclaim marketing quotas and each year between July 1 and December 1 the secretary must proclaim the amount of the quota for the ensuing crop. This quota is then converted into a national acreage allotment which is apportioned to states and to farms according ed meeting of the recently-form to provisions of law. All farm operators have been or will be notified of their acreage allotments prior to the date of the referendum.

The farm marketing quota is the quantity of the crops produced on the farm acreage alotment. Peanuts and cotton pro- Plymouth; R. F. Lowry, also of in advance of the January 31 See PEANUT VOTE, Page 12

Go On Sale Here

City Clerk W. A. Roebuck announced that the city automobile license tags - 750 of them-have arrived from Baltimore, Md., where they are made, and will go on sale De-cember 1. This is the same number that were ordered last vear, Mr. Roebuck said, the new license tags, required of all vehicle owners living within the city limits of Plymouth, is February 1, 1954, after which any vehicle owner not displaying the new tag will be subject to prosecution. Price of the tags is $1, Roebuck said, advising all drivers to get theirs at once.

Head Historical Association Here

Constitution and By-Laws Also Adopted at Meeting In County Courthouse on State Tags Go On Monday Night

At a comparatively well-attended Washington County Historical Association, held at the courthouse here Monday night of this week, permanent officers were elected and a constitution and by ton Street, here, James H. Ward, laws were adopted.

Named to head the association was the Rev. E. M. Spruill, of See HISTORICAL, Page 7

Bloodmobile Returns Next on December 14

announced as the date for the next visit of the Red Cross that time, the hours in vogue here empty weight and maximum load bloodmobile unit to this county. The bloodmobile from Tide-water Regional Blood Center, Norfolk, Va., will be in Plymouth all that day in an effort to obtain

The unit will be located at the Veterans Building near the Wash-

Monday, December 14, has been | a. m. to 5 p. m. if the new schewere from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. A of his vehicle. definite announcement on this is Mr. Ward re expected next week. The visit is again being spon-

Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The quota will remain at 150 pints, it was said. No recruitman chairman has been announ-

James T. Boyce Is Chairman; 52 Persons in Various Parts of County on Executive Committee

James T. Boyce was named Thursday night to head the annual Empty Stocking Fund campaign in the county this Christmas season.

At the same time, the campaign planning committee, meeting at the courthouse, named 52 county persons to the Executive committee for the drive. Included on the executive committee were 33 perons at large from Plymouth, ight from the various labor unions here, five from Creswell, three from Roper, two from Mac-keys and one from Columbia.

A committee meeting has been set for Monday night of next week at the courthouse here, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Boyce is urging that all members be present for this important meeting. It was agreed at the meeting Thursday night that the Agriculture Building be designed as the collection point for all usable goods collected in the drive. Anything usable in the way of clothes, food or toys will be accepted, it was stated. It was emphasized, however, that only usable toys will be accepted since there is no facility available for mending

It is also urged that donors of clothing get the articles in as soon as possible in order to allow time for the clothes to be properly cleaned before distribution to the needy families of the county.

December 15 was established as the deadline for donations of food, clothing and toys. Efforts will also be made to get all contributions of money in by that

The names of people in the county who need assistance should be sent to Mrs. Ursula Spruill, superintendent of the Washington County Welfare De-

It is hoped that all persons who plan to lend assistance to the needy will contribute through the Empty Stocking Fund, a project which has proven successful in the past. The fund has been an annual project here for many years and has brought a great measure of relief and holiday heer to countless families. The Plymouth Rotary Club annually sponsors the fund with the able support of various other civic, social and religious organizations. The county welfare depacity and furnishes a list of the irdigent families needing assist-

Below are listed by communities the members of the Executive committee:

Creswell: Tom Hampton, Creswell Ruritan Club; Mrs. M. Davenport, Creswell PTA; Mrs. Harry Pritchard, Creswell Merchants Association; Mrs. Tom Hampton, Creswell Woman's Club; George Wilson, Creswell

Roper: Mrs. Cordula Hassell, Roper PTA; Ralph Hughes, Roper Ruritan Club; Henry Everett,

Roper Fire Department. Columbia: Father Williams; Labor: Leroy Ange, labor unions; See FUND DRIVE, Page 7

Sale December 1

The 1954 State license plates will go on sale Tuesday of next week at 9 a. m. at the Carolina Motor Club office, 116 Washingoffice manager, announced today.

Motorists are urged by Mr. Ward to buy their licenses well dealine and avoid the perennial last-minute rush which always finds hundreds of persons in long throughout the state.

This year the license plates are black on orange, reversing the 1953 color scheme.

Certain changes were made by the 1953 legislature with regard to licensing of trucks, Mr. Ward Mr. Ward recently attended a Carolina Motor Club license school held at Greenville. During Jethro Post of the American Legagers were instructed by State licensing regulations.

During the license season the hours at the office here will be from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., the manager stated.