The Hard Way of Going To School Brings Honor

Lucerne Valley, Cal. — Charlayne Scot was recently graduated from Victor Valley High School with a perfect four-year attendance mark in spite of the fact that she had to travel 57,000 miles to school during that period. The round trip from her home to school, 70 miles per day on the bus, added up to 14,250 miles a year, or 57,000 miles for the four years.

Nineteen young agriculture students, who have just graduated from college with the help of Esso 4-H Club Scholarships, meet infielder Gerry Coleman of the New York Yankees. The young men were recent guests of Esso Standard Oil Company on a tour of New York City to celebrate the completion of their educations. A highlight of the week's visit was a chance to meet Coleman and other Yankee stars prior to a ball game at Yankee Stadium.

Put Cat Out When Leaving on Trip, Officers Advise

Raleigh. — State police in Missouri are telling their citizens not to forget to put the cat out before shoving off on a vacation.

Same deal in North Carolina where state troopers are seldom surprised at the many things that folks forget to do before leaving for a motor trip.

One of the most important things troopers say to remember is to make a list of the places you are going and the dates, along with a description of your car and its license number.

Quoting Missouri officials "There is hardly a day during the vacation season when our officers are not called on to look for vacationing motorists . . . and it is rare when the license number or description of the car they are driving is known."

The same thing prevails in Variety Vacationland, according to Col. James R. Smith, state highway commander.

For vacation travelers, Col. Smith recommends three other important things to do before leaving on a vacation motor trip:

Check your car to be sure it is in safe operating condition. Brakes, lights, windshield wipers are important points to check.
 Allow adequate travel time to your destination so speed can be held to a safe rate. Include frequent rest stops.
 When traveling away from North Carolina, drivers should become acquainted with traffic laws and regulations in states through which they intend to travel.

Tobacco Expectations

According to reports on farmers' intentions as of March 1, flue-cured tobacco growers in North Carolina expect to plant a 1956 crop of 582,000 acres.

Poisoner of 7 To Die For One of Murders

Montgomery, Ala. — Mrs. Rhoda Belle Martin, 49, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair for having killed her fourth husband with arsenic. She was tried only for the death of Claude Martin—her fourth husband—but she admitted killing three small daughters, her mother and another husband, and poisoning her fifth husband, who is now in a veterans hospital paralyzed by arsenic. Only one white woman has died in the chair in Alabama—a nurse convicted of feeding arsenic to her 2-year-old niece.

 THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

SUNDAY, JULY 29

Read Hebrews 11:1-6. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? (Job 38:4)

Looking at a rose in full bloom, a little boy, aged four, said, "There is God." He pointed to the sky and said again, "There is God." His grandmother, observing these things, touched him above the heart, and said gently, "And God is here also."

Through the centuries men have worshiped the God of nature. Man has stood in awe before the lash of the storm, and in pleasure before the calm majesty of a long, brought sunset.

God is still God, whether He is seen riding out the charging storm or unfolding a violet amid a bed of winter leaves. He is the same God who calls, each after its own kind, new plants, new animals, new individuals into being, and also spins out the birth of a star over millions of years.

We can only say with the psalmist, "O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is thy name in all the earth!"

PRAYER
 O Lord, open our eyes that we may see glimpses of Thy truth. Help us to see the truth, and in Thy creation all about us pictures of Thy love and power, gentleness and majesty, O God, our God! Amen.

Thought for the Day
 The God of creation is also our heavenly Father.
