ZION'S CHAPEL Church of Christ

Richard Gardiner, Minister
The temptation to be unfaithful in the attendance at the place of worship is greater in the summer than at any other time; hence our emphasis on this part of our obedience, and with some success, the average being higher than during the previous six months, and also during the 1955 summer quarter. "Be faithful—" was not qualified by any such phrase as "except in the summer"! It is a joy to serve a living Christ with "all the heart!" Bible School opening assembly at 9:45 (something different every Sunday); worship at 10:45; youth groups at 7:00 and worship at 8 p. m.

Join in the fellowship of the summer faithful!

A Sikh boy flood victim has his fractured leg set by a medical student. Medical students from the Luthiana Christian Medical college in India waded through neck-deep water to deliver food, clothing, medical aid and hope to some of the forty-five million people affected by the great India floods of 1955. Famine and disease follow in the wake of floods. Contributions through the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) will be needed to help supply food for these people for many months.

Presbyterian Church

Robert L. Combs, Minister
A National Leader Speaks on Sunday School: "Shall I make my child go to Sunday School and Church? Yes. And with no further discussion about the matter. Startled? Why? How do you answer Junior when he comes to breakfast on Monday and announces to you that he is not going to school any more? You know! Junior goes! How do you answer when Junior comes in very much bemuddled and says: 'I'm not going to take a bath?' Junior bathes, doesn't he?"

"Why all this timidity then, in the realm of spiritual guidance and growth? Going to let him decide what church he'll go to when he is old enough? Quit your kidding! You didn't wait until you were old enough. You didn't wait for him to be old enough to decide to go to school or not."

"What shall we say when Junior announces he doesn't want to go to Sunday School and Church? That's an easy one to answer. Just be consistent. Tell him, Junior, in our house we all go to Church and Sunday School and that includes you! Your firmness and example will furnish a bridge over which youthful rebellion may travel into rich and satisfying experience in personal religious living."

"The parents of America can strike a telling blow against the forces which contribute to our juvenile delinquency, if our mothers and fathers will take their children to Sunday School and Church regularly."—Stated J. Edgar Hoover.

Fairest of Them All

"Mirror, mirror on the wall — who's the fairest of them all?" No one can deny that Maid of Cotton Patricia Ann Cowden, of Raleigh, N. C., must be ranked among Dixie's fairest flowers. Her great wisdom is also in evidence as she shows her preference for United States Savings Bonds — one of the fairest and best methods of saving for the big things in life. Pat has a genuine knowledge of Savings Bonds, having served as bond clerk in the North Carolina bank where she worked before her selection as cotton queen. Pat is only one of over 40 million Americans who feel more secure because they own U. S. Savings Bonds.

Arctic Sea Flight On Regular Route

Robert E. Peary took 11 years and three expeditions to cross the 396 miles from Greeley's farthest north to the North Pole. Today, near the same Greenland Eskimo village from which Peary drew sled dogs and drivers, stands the giant Thule air base. Planes fly to the poles almost daily.

The airplane itself, perhaps the greatest tool ever given to explorers, has entered new horizons. Richard E. Byrd made history when he flew to both Poles. Today a commercial airline flies a regular route across the Arctic Sea: Los Angeles to Copenhagen, via Thule, in 22 hours.

With modern aerial cameras, radar, long-range radio navigation (loran), and planes of tremendous range, regions that might never be completely explored on land can be systematically photographed and mapped by air, and even prospected for underground minerals or fuels by electronics.

Everett.
Mrs. N. T. Everett has returned home from Norfolk where she spent the past week.

TODAY'S meditation
The Upper Room
THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

SUNDAY, AUGUST 5
Read Philippians 1:3-11. The Lord will command his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life. (Psalm 42:8.)
A small boy was moving his toys from one side of his room to another. Trying to gather them all at once, he succeeded only in dropping them. After several attempts, he cried out in disgust. His mother quietly suggested that he move one toy at a time. Soon a happy, smiling youngster had his playthings where he wanted them.
Sometimes life seems to thrust so heavy a load upon us that we feel we cannot struggle any longer—not another minute, hour, day, or such times we are ready to give up in despair at what seems to be facing us. At such times we forget that God does not give our days to us all at one time. He gives them to us moment by moment. He does not expect us to bear tomorrow's burdens today. He promises strength, grace, courage, wisdom as needed at the moment.
PRAYER
Our Father, we are ever in Thy loving care. Thou knowest what we have need of before we ask. Help us never to be fearful or anxious, but to take our requests to Thee, for we would be Thy trusting children. In our Saviour's name. Amen.
Thought for the Day
I will thank God who will supply all my needs this day.
