

Roanoke-Chowan Group Will Meet Here on Saturday

Organization of Writers and Artists To Be Entertained By Mr. and Mrs. W. Frith Winslow

Art lovers in this section will have an opportunity Saturday afternoon of this week to view an exhibition here which will include pieces by 13 artists...

The occasion will be the annual meeting of the Roanoke-Chowan Group, a loosely-woven organization of persons from this general area who are interested in art, writing and other cultural forms.

A highlight of the annual meeting will be an address by Robert Lee Humber of Greenville, internationally-known attorney, art patron and advocate for world peace.

ertain the group at a luncheon at their home on West Main Street at noon Saturday.

From 12 o'clock noon until 2 p. m. the exhibit will be open to the public at the Winslow Gallery, second floor, corner of West Water and Jefferson Streets.

Mr. Winslow said Wednesday he had received definite notice that Mr. and Mrs. Speight would bring two paintings each. Mr. Speight, a native of Bertie County, is among the most distinguished contemporary artists and has won a number of national and international prizes.

Mr. Winslow will show six of his newest paintings, all done this summer in Canada and New England, as well as some recent portraits.

Other exhibitors will include Russell Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Arnold of Skippersville, who is art instructor at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson; Mrs. Robert Outland of Rich Square; Mrs. Ernest Tyler of Roxobel; Mrs. Georgia Hearne of Greenville; Mrs. Enola Smith, Miss Linda Downum and Mrs. Richard Dixon, all of Edenton; Mrs. George Evans of Conway; Mrs. Henry Rumley and James L. Bond, both of Washington, Miss Downum is a student at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia.

Lowest in Years

On the basis of final reports from growers, inspection, sales and millings data, peanut production in 1955 was estimated at 204,250,000 pounds. This was the lowest production since the 1933 crop.

ACCIDENT FACTS 1955

Raleigh. — There were 1380 drivers involved in fatal automobile accidents in North Carolina last year. A study by the State Department of Motor Vehicles shows that drivers in the 25-34 age bracket were involved most frequently. In that bracket, 372 drivers were at the wheel at the time of the fatal accident.

No Entries for Queen's Contest

No entries have been reported yet for the Miss Washington County contest being sponsored jointly by the VFW and American Legion posts here, a check late Tuesday revealed.

W. J. Weaver is chairman of the queen's committee. He stated that out-of-town judges will select a girl to represent the county at the beauty contest and parade at Elizabeth City later this month.

Anyone interested should contact Commander Walter Swain of the VFW or Commander P. W. Brown of the American Legion post, Weaver stated.

Miss Washington County will be crowned at a dance at the Veterans Buildings here Saturday night of next week.

Cash Sale Promotion of Firm Opens on Saturday

Norman Furniture Company is launching a three-week promotion of furniture items in the form of a "cash sale" which opens Saturday of this week.

C. Clyde Hardison, manager of the firm, said this week that a prize drawing will be held in front of the store at 5:30 p. m. on the concluding day of the sale—Saturday, September 29. Also, special gifts are being offered to the first 200 persons to visit the sale.

Registering for the prize drawing is free, Mr. Hardison pointed out.

Jewel Hardison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Hardison of Plymouth, and photographer for the Raleigh News & Observer, won the first prize of $100 in the annual Miss North Carolina photo contest.

Results of the contest were announced Monday by Charles Cooper of Durham, chairman of the North Carolina Jaycees committee which sponsored the contest and provided the prizes. Entries were pictures of Joan Melton of Albemarle, made after she was selected Miss North Carolina at Morehead City. She was the only judge of the photos, submitted by members of the North Carolina Press Photographers Association.

Two Durham Herald-Sun Papers photographers won the other three of four prizes offered.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Liverman and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beam left early Thursday morning of this week for western North Carolina. They will be away for a week, during which time the menfolks will take part in the Southern Seniors golf tournament at Waynesville. Mr. Liverman said they plan to visit Linville also during the trip and will probably return home Friday of next week.

A good fellowship party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bowen and family was enjoyed by 65 persons at First Christian Church Monday night. The party was in appreciation of the help given by Mr. Bowen, a member of the building committee of the church. He will soon move his family to Hopewell, Va., where he has accepted employment. E. H. Liverman and the church minister, the Rev. C. N. Barnette, made brief remarks. The party was given by board members and their wives, with the men preparing a ham supper with all that goes with it.

Avoid Heavy Dosages State College specialists suggest avoiding heavy dosages of insecticides and fungicides on edible crops. Follow directions carefully, and never apply more than is recommended.
