Friends of Julian A. Glazener of Calvert, who is at the North Carolina State college at West Raleigh, will be interested to know that as a result of a preliminary debate he has been selected as one of the three speakers to debate with Elon College at Elon April 27 on military training at college. Mr. Glazener will debate in favor of this policy.

Mrs. T. H. Hampton was pleasantly reminded last week of the arrival at her 60th annual mile post when she and a few friends and relatives were remembered by gatherings at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Dodsworth, and son, A. E. Hampton, where refreshments and pleasant discourse were enjoyed.

At the last organ recital of the present series in St. Philips church, on Wednesday, Feb. 28, at 4 p. m., Mrs. Simons will play several selections from the sacred festival—drama, Parsifal, the Prelude, Procession of the Knights of the Holy Grail, the Chorus of Angelic Voices, the Good Friday Spell and the closing scenes of the drama.

On Friday evening about twenty-five of the younger set were the guests of Miss Louise Ervin. The intellectual strain of a contest was soon forgotten, judging from the vigor with which all entered into the various indoor and outdoor games that followed. The young people were at length induced to forego their exertions long enough to partake of hot chocolate and a favorite salad. Before the time came for saying good night the guests were called in to enjoy a generous supply of home made candy.

C. B. Deaver Entertains.

Chas. B. Deaver entertained the Men's Bible class of the Brevard Baptist church at his home on Monday night, when 12 members of the class of which he is teacher and three visitors were present. The evening was so highly enjoyed and the program proved so interesting that it was decided to make the social gatherings, of which this was the first, a permanent affair. The next meeting will be held with W. H. Duckworth. After the meeting had been opened with prayer by Rev. A. W. McDaniel, O. L. Jones read a paper on "Our Relation to the Sunday Schools in the County," which was discussed by Mr. McDaniel and W. H. Duckworth. Rev. C. C. Duckworth read a paper on "Our Community in Social Uplift," and discussions followed by P. S. King and O. L. Jones. It was decided to make permanent records of the proceedings and papers read at the meetings. A committee was named to select a class pin. The following were named as a membership committee: C. K. Osborne, O. L. Jones, W. E. Hall, W. S. Price, jr., and W. H. Duckworth. A. E. Hampton, W. E. Hall, J. A. Johnson, P. S. King, W. S. Price, jr., and C. K. Osborne have been requested to read papers at the next meeting. The Men's Bible class has been quite active of late. Last week it sent Mr. Deaver to the big laymen's convention in Atlanta. The class has also decided to erect a fountain in front of the church. The class is growing and has as its goal 100 members by the end of the year.

LEAVE ROSMAN

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Owenby, who have been conducting the Rosman hotel, have gone to LaFayette, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shipman, who own the hotel, will conduct it temporarily.

The city of Norwalk, Conn., is said to have been so named because, when purchased from the Indians, the northern boundary of the land was to extend northward from the sea one day's walk, according to the Indian marking of the distance.

NOTICE—LAND SALE BY COMMISSIONER

By virtue of the power, direction and authority given the undersigned commissioner, appointed by the clerk of the Superior court of Transylvania county, in a special proceeding pending in said court before the clerk, entitled "Sarah J. Wilhelm, administratrix of J. M. Wilhelm, deceased, vs. W. F. Wilhelm, et al.," I will sell to the highest bidder, on the terms mentioned below, at the court house door in the town of Brevard, county of Transylvania, N. C., on Tuesday, March 27th, 1917, at 11 o'clock a. m., this being the day named in the order for sale made by the court, all the following described lands, situate in Eastatoe township, Transylvania county, N. C., lying on the southwest side of French Broad river and on the west side of East Fork of French Broad river, bounded as follows:

First Tract—Beginning on a sourwood and dogwood, the S. D. Whitmire corner, standing on a ridge south of the J. M. Wilhelm residence, and runs south 69 degrees east 142 poles to a black gum and oak in the Gillespie line; then north 23 1/2 degrees east 26 poles to a spanish oak; then north 2 degrees west 112 poles to a black oak; then north 15 1/2 degrees west 54 poles to a stake; then north 12 degrees west 33 poles to a stone; then north 44 degrees west 33 poles to a stake; then north 37 degrees west 18 1/2 poles to a stake; then north 80 degrees west 30 poles to a stake on the bank of East Fork creek; then down and with the meanders of said creek to a stake at the mouth of a branch, a corner made between S. D. Whitmire and E. A. Glazener; then up and with said branch a south course to the head of said ridge and with the top of the ridge and with the Whitmire line a south course to the beginning, containing 175 acres, more or less.

Second Tract—Adjoining the first tract above described. Beginning on a hickory on the north side of Joshua mountain, in the head of a hollow, and runs north 90 poles to a black gum; then east 90 poles to a poplar; then south 90 poles to a stake; then south 90 poles to the beginning, containing 50 a. res, more or less.

The sale will be made subject to the following terms: $1200.00 to be paid on day of sale, balance to be divided in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, deferred payments to draw six per cent interest. Purchaser to have option to pay all cash at any time within the two years. Title to be retained by the commissioner until all the purchase money has been paid, or until satisfactory security, approved by the court, has been given.

This February 26th, 1917.
W. H. ALLISON,
Commissioner

MILLINERY

Formal SPRING OPENING

By Mrs. W. H. Faulkner

March 28 and 29

Correct and exclusive styles will be introduced, giving to my customers all the newest things, fresh from the foremost markets.

We will feature the popular Gage and Stonehill hats and our new line of Crepe de Chine waists.

We have a wide assortment of gloves and hose.

Cash Plan Inaugurated

There has been an advance in prices and rather than charge a proportionate increase we are going to give our customers the benefit of low prices by asking that they cooperate with us in making our cash basis plan a success. We will sell only for cash, which will result in proportionately lower prices for what you buy.

Millinery Opening

MRS. M. W. CALLOWAY

will hold her formal Spring Opening on

MARCH 28 and 29

Assisted by Miss Lillian Smallwood of Atlanta.

Fashion's reigning modes in millinery will be on display, also a beautiful assortment of white goods, silks—taffeta, pongee, crepe de chine, wash silks, etc.

Why it pays to Buy Hardware Here

Because we have what you want at rock-bottom prices.

The wise man staring the high cost of garden products in the face is certainly going to have a garden spot of some kind. We have everything needed to cultivate the garden, such as rakes, hoes, plows, etc., etc.

Get one of these big-wheeled garden plows and save the cost of a team. Easy to push and costs only $3.50.

Anything in the hardware line.

We Took Care of Mr. Jenkins. We Would Like to Do the Same for You.

Brevard, N. C., March 8, 1917.
Messrs. Galloway & Minnis,
Managers Brevard Insurance Agency,
Brevard, N. C.

Gentlemen:

We wish to acknowledge receipt of draft for Fourteen Hundred Dollars ($1400.00) drawn on the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company, Limited, same being in full settlement and discharge for all claims for loss and damage by fire which occurred on or about December 27, 1916, to property insured under policy No. 10924275. In view of the fact that our property was totally destroyed—practically all of our records were burned—and that it has taken quite some time to get duplicate bills, etc., to substantiate our claim, we think the company has been very prompt in adjusting our loss.

Yours truly,
A. N. JENKINS.
