Attend church Sunday.

When you clean up, make it a permanent thing instead of something to last a few days.

After Easter then the big Sunday school rally on May 1. Prepare to attend this big county-wide event in Brevard.

About time for the gardener to curse his neighbor's chickens.—Brevard News. Wonder what has come over the spirit of Noah now, is he running a garden, we wonder.—Asheville Times. No, just a neighborly feeling.

Mighty good time for those who are patronizing out of town merchants to remember that their support of home institutions is needed. Dead stores would mean a dead town, therefore don't build foreign towns but help your own.

Some good work remains to be done at Penrose in favor of the election for school bonds. It would be a serious blow to that community for the indifferent citizens, or those who have not had sufficient light as to the benefits of better educational facilities, to defeat the measure.

Are you a member of the Brevard Betterment association? If not, why not? Just now the ladies are engaged in completing the school play ground, encouraging flower gardens, preparing for a clean-up campaign, thinking about associated charity work, first aid to the injured, etc. Lend the association a helping hand. It is doing fine work.

"I trust your paper will urge the cleaning up of the town. Your people need a better civic conscience on this," writes Prof. L. B. Haynes from Meridian, Miss., who will soon be in Brevard to conduct Camp Brevard, the summer school again. It is enough to say that the Betterment association is busy with the situation, which means it will be pushed to a successful conclusion. Of course the ladies have the hearty co-operation of the News.

People in all sections of the county are interested in the roads, the road funds, road building operations and the prospects for better roads in which connection Mr. G. E. Lathrop, an accountant, has made at the request of the county commissioners an investigation of the records and reports required by law from the road overseers. This is a very instructive report, an eye-opener, and the commissioners have arranged for its publication in the News next week. It's worth reading once or twice.

Waynesville had the same carnival that Brevard did and the Courier says: "The experience of the town this week with a carnival company should be sufficient to prevent the appearance here of any such organization." Reckon they all went out to take a draft from "the Spring of Youth," familiarly known as "Camp 49," which, it has been said by some lady, all young men in Brevard except three visited. The men, young and old, certainly were hungry for a little rib-tickling and we agree with the Courier that the town authorities should keep out such organizations.

Sale of Land for Taxes

I will offer for sale, as the law directs, at the court house door in the town of Brevard, N. C., at 12 o'clock, noon, on the first Monday in May, being the seventh day of May, 1917, all the following described lands on which taxes are now due and unpaid.

J. H. PICKELSIMER,
Tax Collector.
