

A LEGEND OF THE EASTER LILY

*THE aisles in velvet darkness lay,
The pews in shadow slept,
The rows of gilded organ pipes
Majestic silence kept.
Through painted panes a moonbeam stole
Along the altar rail,
And showed upon the steps a group
Of kneeling angels pale.*

*Each swung a censer as she prayed,
And alabaster cup,
Star-shaped and lined with purest gold,
With fragrance brimming up.
And as she swayed it to and fro,
Behold! The chilly gloom
Grew soft with airs of Paradise,
And heavy with perfume.*

*A sound disturbed the seraph band,
They vanished in the night;
But one forgot and left behind
Her censer pearly white,
So when the worshippers arrived,
The church was dim and stilly,
But lo! upon the altar steps
They found an Easter lily.
—Mina Irving in Lippincott's Magazine.*

TIME FOR RESOLUTIONS

Easter is the season to start anew and stop worrying over little things that can't be helped.

THERE'S just one thing for resolutions to thrive, and that is in the Easter season, when everything is starting anew. There's something in the very atmosphere that strengthens puny, timid resolutions.

For instance, suppose that you resolve to stop worrying over little things that can't be helped, and then wake up on the morning of the day you had planned to make a lettuce bed and find out your spring flowers, to find a vigorous snowstorm in full session. Be still for a minute and listen to that robbard in your neighbor's cherry trees, piping shrilly: "Here! here! With you—with you—with you!"

To be sure he is with us, the blessed dash of crimson joy, and he will save the day for that resolution. Suppose you've resolved to stop grumbling, and then the brick masons and the carpenters next door throw things on your tiny rose garden, and trample your grass into the mud. That resolution would snap like glass in January, but just as it is being strained to the limit now, a robin calls to you from the telegraph wire overhead: "Cheer up—cheer up—cheer up!" And you just can't help cheering up.

Oh, you get all sorts of encouragement in the resolution business at this season! If you resolve to grow in mind and heart and soul, there's the example of the green grass that rises in spite of ruts, trampling feet, and the birds that sing in spite of the beating spring rains, and the flowers that bloom because of rains and buffeting winds. And think of the help you will get from the Easter music! It is so sweet and tender and glad and triumphant! How could you help being better and stronger and truer after hearing it? It's the sweetest, finest season of the whole year—the Easter season, with its message of hope and growing and doing and being. Now Year's resolutions are broken, or even nicked here and there, why not get a fresh set when you get your new Easter clothes, and when you array your body, put some of the newness of life into your mind and heart and soul? And, even if we haven't new Easter clothes—and a precious lot of us won't have—why can't we deck our minds and hearts and souls a bit more lavishly, so that the steady, happy light shining through our eyes from within will prove to the world that Easter is not entirely a time for outward adornment. Why not try making just a few new resolutions at the blessed Easter time?

Fulfill Note of Spring.

Only the coming of Easter could give to spring its note of fulfillment. Only the sacred sentiment of the great religious festival could add to the flowering season the supreme touch of emotional beauty.

What 9 Cents Did

Small ad turns pigs into cash; pays better than feeding with high-priced corn.

The following 9-cent advertisement and the results tell the selling power of the News:

FOR SALE—Berkshire pigs. Apply to R. H. Zachary. 3-23-11c

Brevard, N. C., March 28, 1917.

Brevard News:

Your advertisement last week produced the desired effect without inserting it again. My pigs are all sold.

Advertising in the Brevard News pays better than feeding pigs that you don't want to keep, transfers the feed bill to the other fellow.

Respectfully,
R. H. ZACHARY.

IRISH EASTER LEGEND

That the Sun Dances on the Sea on the Day Commemorative of the Resurrection is Simple Truth.

AN IRISH legend runs to the effect that on Easter day the sun dances on the sea; and the legend is true. The writer knows it is. He has seen this phenomenon when as a child he climbed from the little farmhouse which was his home, a matter of a couple of miles to the top of a rugged mountain overlooking the Irish sea. This phenomenon can be seen any Easter day when the skies are bright. All necessary is to be on some commanding height as the sun pokes his head out of the sea to the east.

The British isles give expression to the thought that April showers bring May flowers, and it is not every Easter day that the sun rises in a clear sky. That is the difference between the British isles and California. Easter day may come any one of the 20 days following the 25th of March. No matter how early it comes in southern California the sun generally comes up in a clear sky. Environment has caused all evolution, and is causing it still. These clear skies account for the way Californians celebrate Easter day. They have at Riverside on Rubidoux mountain a great cross, where annually at sunrise on Easter day thousands are accustomed to gather to see the sun rise on the mountain tops and dance in the heavens. The hearts of the thousands who assemble on that mountain top under the blazing cross dance with the sun. The Hebrew prophet said: "I hear the sound of feet of the rain." Why not then see the feet of the sun dance upon the sea or mountain top? On Easter of last year it is said that 20,000 people assembled on Rubidoux mountain, where their hearts danced with joy at the thought of the resurrection.

Those who invented the Rubidoux mountain Easter festival set an example that is being followed by many others. April showers are rare things in southern California, and one may plan for weeks ahead for a sunrise festival on Easter day. It may be expected that this custom will grow and prove another attraction to the land of sunshine and flowers.

GUARDSMEN TO BE HELD IN SERVICE

ORDER CAME AFTER THIRD INFANTRY HAD BEEN MUSTERED OUT.

OTHERS HELD FOR SERVICE

Second Infantry and Companies A and B. Engineers Will Be Held For Probable Police Duty.

Raleigh.—Within an hour after all the organizations of the Third North Carolina Infantry, National Guard, except the supply company, had been mustered out of Federal service at Camp Bickett, orders were received from the War Department to suspend demobilization. It was too late to affect this regiment, but in consequence of the order the Second Infantry, ordered into camp at Camp Royster, Goldsboro, and brigade headquarters ordered to Raleigh, will be held there under arms, as will Companies A and B, engineers, now at Charlotte and Wilmington. Troops A and B, cavalry, Asheville and Lincolnton; Field Hospital No. 1, Asheville and Ambulance Company No. 1, Canton, have already been mustered out.

Brigade headquarters, including General Laurence Young and staff, were previously ordered to Raleigh for muster out. It is believed that, under this order, headquarters will proceed to Raleigh to await muster out or further service.

In view of the orders given National Guard organizations in other states, it is expected that the North Carolina troops held in the service will be used, if necessary, for duties in the state. The supply company, with much property work to complete, will continue in camp here for several days. In the meanwhile, no orders have been received calling the demobilized regiment back into the service, and while many of the officers, apparently are expecting this, no comment was made at the office of the Adjutant General.

The men of the Third showed pleasure in their release, now being enabled to visit their homes, many of them for the first time in nine months. Roaring welcomes are in store for practically all of the companies at their home stations. But while this is so, it is declared that little difficulty will be encountered in getting the men mobilized again, if the call comes.

The few days spent at Camp Bickett were delightful compared to the sand storms, the excessive cold of the lights in Texas. Lieutenant Colonel Claud McGehee expressing the thanks of Colonel Mann and the regiment for the courtesies shown by Raleigh staff.

"In coming to Raleigh we felt that we were coming home and in our arrival here we found that we were at home."

"Particularly do we wish to thank the management of the State Fair grounds for the use of their buildings and grounds, and for the assistance given us and the manner in which they worked for our comfort."

"We also wish to thank the management of the Rex Hospital for the excellent attention and medical aid given our sick."

"We regret very much that we have not shown our appreciation by field exercises and parades but we have been so busy with detailed work that it has been impossible for us to do so."

Asheville Adopts Belgian Babies. Asheville.—That Asheville is thoroughly aroused on the subject of caring for Belgian babies is indicated by the fact that the committee, which started out to "adopt" 500 of the youngsters, is now planning to care for 1,000 babies. Already there is $572 in the fund, with enough in sight to make it $769, and the committee has taken on renewed activity in an effort to increase the amount to $1,009. The Bingham school boys have raised their donation to an even $100 and a number of other schools are expected to follow suit. Asheville may eventually increase the number to more than 1,000.

Fears Potatoes Will Be Wasted. Salisbury.—"Tell the people not to plant potatoes" is the request made to the newspapers by Mr. M. L. Jackson, a prominent citizen of Salisbury and large farmer. So many people are gardening this year who have never gardened before that—Mr. Jackson fears many perfectly good potatoes are going to be wasted. "Plant only the eyes of the potato and eat the rest of it," says Mr. Jackson. This is, of course, no new doctrine, potato raisers knowing all along that this is the way to do it.

Governor Speaks at Conference. Wilmington. The afternoon session of the initial day of the state-wide livestock conference and exposition was featured by an address by Governor Bickett, who warned farmers to prepare against the coming of the boll weevil. The session was presided over by Congressman John H. Small. Others to speak during the day were W. A. Graham, T. B. Parker, Dr. T. P. Yager, Editor L. A. Nivens, Dr. W. K. Lewis, H. A. Southerland, Dr. Bradford Knapp, and Dr. B. W. Wilson.

PHYSICIANS NAME NEW RATES FOR CALLS

The Transylvania Medical Society met in the office of its secretary, Dr. Thos. J. Summey, on last Thursday night and had quite an enjoyable and profitable meeting with all physicians in the county except one in attendance.

The meeting was called to order and presided over by the president, Dr. W. J. Wallis, and while no set program had been arranged a number of talks were made, bearing for the greater part upon the use of preventative medicines.

Dr. A. E. Lyday was appointed delegate to the North Carolina Medical society to be held in Asheville, though all others hope to attend at least one day's session.

Emphasis was laid upon the new rates established at the December meeting with reference to charges for office and town calls. At that time it was decided that in order to lend to the dignity of the medical profession and contribute to its efficiency each town physician should open an up-to-date office and have fixed rates for office and town calls. The physicians held to the view that Brevard was a progressive town; it expected its physicians to be equal to the occasion and that since the physicians in all other towns in the State maintained offices Brevard should do so and that the charges for service should be something in keeping with those made by physicians elsewhere, which made it necessary to charge $1.00 for office calls and $1.50 for town calls by day and $2.00 by night.

The doctors enjoyed a smoker given by Dr. Wallis.
