Mrs. J. W. Glazener.

Mrs. J. W. Glazener was born July 31, 1882; departed this life May 23, 1917. Mrs. Glazener became a member of Zion Baptist church when she was about 18 years old. She was the daughter one of the best known families in this community.

She was married to J. W. Glazener July 31, 1912. Theirs was a affectionate; to know her was to no previous engagement. love her. She was a devoted christian and always at her post of duty in her church, ready with her presence, prayers and means to help ply to out in every good work. Perhaps no one in this community would be more missed than she. When the news spread of her death the whole community was shocked and went into mourning. The Sunday school, Ladies aid, of which she was secretary and treasurer, and the church have all suffered a great loss and the entire community is bereaved. Brother Glazener is one of our first citizens and has the deepest sympathies of the entire community. The father, mother, brothers and sisters are in deepest sorrow and have our heartfelt sympathy. A good woman is gone, one of our brightest and best. May God's blessing rest upon all the bereaved
