Our gallant armies have participated in a triumph which is not marred or stained by any purpose of selfish aggression. In a righteous cause they have won immortal glory, and have nobly served their nation in serving mankind."

There will be nothing halfhearted, nothing perfuctory, about the celebration of Thanks giving this year. It will be a day of prayer as well as of feasting and rejoicing, a day when thoughts will wing across the sea to the manhood of America so lately in arms for the greatest cause in the annals of time.

AFTER THE WORLD WAR

(Written for the Union Thanksgiving services of Brevard churches November 28, 1918, by J. J. Miner.)

O, bless'd is the peace that now comes to the world, As kaisers and princes surrender their realm; And the banners and flags of tyrants are furled While the meek Prince of Peace is guarding the helm. Thank God that the death-dealing thunders are still. The voice of the people is voicing God's will, And orders from tyrants are ended.

O, bless'd is the peace we have fought for so long; Now Liberty's armies have conquered the Hun-Crowns, helmets and scepters-tyrant-emblems are gone While Democracy's conquering hosts have come. Thank God that the edicts of monarchs are dead. With the blood of our heroes so valiantly shed War's hell has forever been ended.

Bless'd is the peace freedom's defenders have won From crowned heads and hirelings of tyranny's clan. Servile submission to earth's rulers is done, And human laws order that man be a man. Thank God we can vote for all laws that are just With hearts for humanity. In God we trust. War's terrors forever have ended.

REGARDING CALL FOR THANKSGIVING SERVICES

Mr. Editor:

I see in your last issue a notice calling Brevard Baptist church to meet in a Thanksgiving service next Thursday, November 28, and advising all other churches of the Transylvania Association to do likewise, signed "Executive Com."

There is an executive committee of the Transylvania association of which the undersigned is chairman, and as such, he has been present at every meeting of the committee having a quorum and will say emphatically that such a thing as of advising all churches of its might be inferred. an act to usurp prerogatives, by the committee as a whole. but in these abnormal times not
