LAKE TOXAWAY

Mr. Robert McNeely and Lee Nicholson have returned to their homes after several months work in France for Uncle Sam.

Mrs. B. C. Owen has been on the sick list for several days.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Spalding McIntosh will regret to know they are moving away.

The Toxaway people have organized a new Sunday School at the school house and it is progressing rapidly.

Mrs. J. A. Breedlove has been quite ill for several days but is recovering. Hurrah for the Brevard News, lets everyone subscribe!

BREVARD INSTITUTE NOTES

In the triangular debate between Saluda and Brevard, held on Friday night, simultaneously at Saluda and the Institute, the visiting team from Saluda won over the Institute, while the Institute boys won at Saluda.

The query was one chosen by the State University; Resolved, that the U. S. should adopt a policy of requiring one year of military training of all able-bodied men under 21.

The Adelphian Society gave a charming musical program on Saturday night, the most striking feature of which, was a musical play, entitled The Contest of Nations, rendered by 13 young ladies, in appropriate costumes.

Prof. Trowbridge returned Monday night from a week's trip to Knoxville, Columbus, Ohio, and London, Ky., on business connected with the Centenary to be held in Columbus in July.

CHIEF COMMENDS SOLDIER

Among the first of Transylvania's sons to take up arms against the force of autocracy and to go to France to fight the Huns was Doll Swanigim. This young man has now returned to us with a record as a soldier which reflects credit on his county and I feel confident that his future record as a citizen will continue to be a matter of pride to his friends and neighbors who most cordially welcome him home.
