

OUR 'NEIGHBORS'

There are neighbors who borrow everything they need.

Potatoes, sugar, flour, rice, cheese, garden seed.

Spices, molasses, oil, yeast, milk and bread.

Perserves, jelly, fruit, buttons, needle and thread.

They borrow your horse plow, harrow and rake.

Company suddenly come, they borrow your cake.

They borrow your rugs, china, glass, and silverware;

Then ask if you have any coffee to spare.

They borrow your hat and veil to visit a friend.

Next some lemons and eggs they'll ask you to lend.

They borrow butter, salt, tea and meat of every sort.

Yet seldom return them, though you run yourself short.

Arlington Greenmount Ave., Baltimore, Md.

BREVARD INSTITUTE NOTES

Messrs Perre and Raymond Bellotte motored from Greenville, S. C., on Sunday, and spent a few hours visiting friends at the Institute.

Jarvis Bennett, a brother of Miss Lela Bennet, was in town for a few days recently, from Norfolk, Va.

Messrs Wm. Clark and Troy Moody of Candler were also visiting friends at the Institute for the week-end.

Prof. Trowbridge left on Wednesday to attend a special meeting of the directors of the Missionary Centenary at Columbus, Ohio, to perfect the plans of the July celebration.

Miss Enphra McCraw spent the week-end at Gaffney, S. C. with her family.

Her brothers, Avant and Claude, who have recently been discharged from U. S. service, were also at home. They were former pupils of B. I.

REV. C. E. PUETT ATTENDS GREAT CONVENTION

Rev. C. E. Puett and Mrs. Puett arrived at their home here from Atlanta this week. They have spent the past ten days in the southern metropolis attending the sessions of the 44th annual convention of the Southern Baptist Church.

Mrs. Puett states that this was one of the most inspiring meetings he ever attended and that never before had he seen a gathering of workers more zealous for their cause.

Twenty-five hundred delegates were registered before the opening day. These with the hundreds of visitors present raised the total of attendance well up toward 4000.

The opening sermon was preached by Dr. M. E. Dodd of Shreveport, La. and the convention address was delivered by Dr. J. B. Gambrell of Fort Worth, Tex., president of the convention.

Reports of all committees showed a marked increase in extent of religious work done during the past year. In the twelve months just closed Baptists of the southern states have contributed more than $17,000, 000 to the work of their church. Of this sum the home mission board took in $859,906.00, a gain of 45 per cent over the amount devoted to this cause last year, and the foreign mission board collected $1,223,190.00, an increase of $370,276.00 over the offerings for this branch of the work in the twelve months just past.

Mr. Puett will occupy his pulpit here on Sunday morning and also in the evening. Members of his congregation are looking forward with interest to hearing him give a full report of the Atlanta convention.

MISS BOOTH, IN RAGS, AIDED LONDON POOR

Salvation Army Commander, Disguised, Roamed Through Slums to Study Intimate Problems of East End Unfortunates.

Miss Evangeline Booth, daughter of the late General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, has given her life to the service of the poor and the unfortunate. Few persons, if any, know she went about in the East End of London disguised in rags that she might help the unfortunate. When her father stood erect amid a storm of abuse and even physical violence, she stood beside him.

Evangeline Booth, Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States.

She knows how the poor suffer because she has suffered with them. She knows there still remains in the wreck of a dissolute man a spark of manhood that will kindle a redeeming flame, because she has fanned many flickering sparks until her patient has regained his feet. She now heads the Salvation Army in the United States at the great moment of its career. The old time slurs and doubts have been banished. During the week of May 19-26 the Salvation Army will appeal to the people of the United States for thirteen million dollars to carry out its after-war program. Contribute to the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign. Remember, to the Salvation Army "A Man May Be Down, but He's Never Out."

WILSON ENDORSES SALVATION ARMY.

President Wilson, burdened as he is, found time to cable his endorsement of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign, which will be conducted during the week of May 19-26. The cablegram:

Commander Miss E. Booth, Personal, Salvation Army, 120 West Fourteenth street, New York:

I am very much interested to know that the Salvation Army is about to enter into a campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that the Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend it as to congratulate it. Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

HAS GOOD WORD FOR SNAKE

New Yorker Points Out How Unpopular Reptile Aids the Farmer in Growing Crops.

The pretensions of the snake, as a domestic animal of great value, were advanced by Allen B. Williams, president of the Reptile Society of America, at New York.

The society, of which Mr. Williams is the head, middle and end, has undertaken a campaign of education on behalf of the snake, claiming that as a destroyer of rodents and other small pests on the farm he is the friend and benefactor of man. For the poison-bearing snakes Mr. Williams holds no brief and concedes the necessity for their obliteration from the earth; but of the nonpoisonous ones he had this to say at the banquet while you could have heard a pin drop:

"To the lay mind, the idea of the black or the garter or any one of a thousand varieties of harmless snakes being of any service to mankind may appear preposterous and unworthy of discussion. But the facts are otherwise. The snake has a very important bearing on the question of food production, a matter which, even since the signing of the armistice, grows more important daily. The snake is the great small-pest destroyer of the American farm. Every person who kills a nonpoisonous snake might just as well destroy one hundred times the snake's weight in wheat."

Mr. Williams proposes that the value of the snake be taught hereafter in the farm schools and agricultural colleges and says he intends to become the editor of a publication devoted to snake conservation and culture. He advocated the introduction of a small snake or two into every household in the land, saying that the snake, contrary to popular belief, made an ideal household pet, and in the course of every year represented many times over a saving of his weight in mousetraps.

BETTER THAN ELECTRIC FAN

Punkah System Said to Have Advantages Not Possessed by Its More Modern Competitor.

Electric current for fans is not generally available in Aden, Arabia, and the old-fashioned punkah system is the only relief from the almost unbearable heat and closeness of the atmosphere which prevails at certain seasons of the year. A punkah is a large ceiling fan operated by a coolie, who pulls a rope attached to it. This rope generally passes over a small pulley through a hole in the wall, so that the coolie may work unseen by those in the room to be ventilated.

Often a series of fans is operated by one coolie, this system prevailing in hotels, clubs and other places where there is a large space to be cooled. The actual cooling effect is usually considered more satisfactory than that of an electrically operated fan in the respect that the air currents are more gentle and much more evenly distributed.

A punkah walla, as the coolie who operates it is called, receives in Aden an average wage of $3.50 a month for working from eight to nine hours a day. However, during the hot season, when it is desirable to have the punkah in operation night and day, a force of three punkah wallas, working eight hours each, is necessary.

Pioneer in Her Profession.

The first woman physician in the United States was Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, who received the degree of M. D. at Geneva, N. Y., 70 years ago. Miss Blackwell was a native of Bristol, England, but came to the United States in her youth. When she was 21 she determined to become a physician, but her application for admission was refused by nearly all of the leading medical colleges of the United States and Canada. A little medical college in Geneva, however, accepted her, and she became one of the most brilliant students of the institution. She suffered, however, from social ostracism in the town, as the Geneva hostesses regarded her either as insane or wicked. Miss Blackwell, after finishing her course, attended medical colleges in Europe and practiced in several continental hospitals. She then returned to New York, where she opened an infirmary for women and children and organized a woman's medical college.

Cards in War Service.

Having helped many a soldier through weary hours in trench and hospital, playing cards are now being pressed into active war service, says the London Chronicle. You may have noticed the new and neat little cloth badges on the sleeve of our men from the front, but possibly have failed to understand the designs. They are nothing but the familiar club, spade, heart and diamond of the playing card. Under the new scheme regiments are divided into packs, each company having its own symbol in a certain color to serve as an identification mark, all other badges being removed before going over the top.

Three Kinds of Stones.

This happened near Bedford and in the county which sends away such beautiful limestone. The teacher was giving a geography lesson. She began with shale, told of the way in which it was obtained, of its uses and showed a piece to the children. "Name several different kinds of stone, Fred," she said.

Frederick rose with alacrity. "What stones, ma'am? Limestone and tombstones," he answered. — Indianapolis News.

"OUT OF LOVE" CLUB UNIQUE ORGANIZATION

Members Are Girls Rescued by Salvation Army.

The "Out of Love" Club is one of the important club organizations maintained by the Salvation Army in this country. In every large city where there is a Salvation Army corps girls who have been helped back into the normal pace of a workaday world are proud of the membership in this club. Disappointed, loveless girls who do not forget kindnesses shown them in their hour of greatest need give out of love to help other girls receive the same friendliness. In a simple, quiet way, this unique idea has been maintained for over 20 years.

In every large city in the country there are girls who have needed the ministrations of the Salvation Army. After they have been helped and sent on their way again they become life members of this club if they so desire. Only girls are admitted who have given a good account of themselves for at least one month in the positions found for them by the Salvation Army after their release from a hospital or home. These girls pledge themselves to keep alive the spirit of friendliness and home which the Salvation Army has spread among them. The girls are expected to dress in a plain, simple way, and avoid in any sense of the word gaudy or tawdry clothing.

Gossiping or tale bearing is tabooed. If members of the club transgress this rule they are liable to suspension for a month or longer. The "Out of Love Club" is one of the many activities that will benefit by the success of the Salvation Army House Service Fund Campaign for $13,000,000 May 19-26.

ANOTHER BREVARD CASE

It Proves That There's A Way Out for Many Suffering Brevard Folks.

Just another report of a case in Brevard. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Brevard with Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. T. Dean, shoemaker, says: "Some time ago I had an attack of kidney trouble. My back ached and I felt all run down. If I would bend over I could hardly straighten. I think standing so much is what caused this complaint. I would get dizzy and black specks would come before my eyes and mornings I felt tired and weak. My kidneys acted too freely and the secretions were highly colored and full of sediment and painful in passage. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began taking them and they soon had my back strong again. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."
