

PERSONALS

W. E. Breese, Jr. of the U. of N. C. is at home for the holidays.

Walter Hourst, of Newport News, Va. is at home for the holidays.

Overton Erwin, has returned after an absence of a few weeks.

Mrs. J. C. Tinsley, left Tuesday for Charleston, S. C.

Miss Mary Jane King has come home for the holidays.

Frank King of the U. of N. C. is at home for the holidays.

Mrs. M. R. Millard, and daughter are visiting friends in Hendersonville, and Naples, this week.

M. H. Fowler, Brevard, route 2 called and renewed his subscription to the News, last Saturday.

Ed L. Hunt, of Cincinnati, has returned and will spend the holidays with his father, Dr. C. W. Hunt.

Miss Pearl Eracken of Fruitland Institute is spending the holidays with Mrs. A. H. King.

Miss Irene Erwin, of Washington, D. C. has come home for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Elise Walker has gone to Tryon to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. G. H. Holmes.

Messrs. Doc and Robt. Wright are in Henderson County for a two day quail hunt.

Miss Mariam Silverman is home for her Christmas vacation from St. Mary's School, Raleigh.

Mrs. C. B. Deaver left Monday to spend the holidays with friends and relatives in Asheville, N. C.

T. J. Fisher, of Windsor, Ontario, formerly of Rosman, has come home for the holidays.

Mrs. E. E. Loftis and son, Ernest are spending a few days in Asheville shopping.

George Cooper of Toccoa Ga. has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Eugene Loftis.

Gertrude and Katty Smith, and Ruth Leverett of Hendersonville, spent the week-end with Gladys Glenn.

Best grade of sugar is quoted as 9 cents per pound in New Orleans. If your subscription to the News is due we will appreciate a remittance.

A years subscription to the Brevard News is a gift worth while, and one your friends and relatives will appreciate.

Miss Marie Kilpatrick, who has been visiting in Savannah, Ga during the past six or eight weeks has returned home.

Miss Ethel Kilpatrick and Miss Bertie Ballard, of the Greenville Women's College has come home for the holidays.

Oliver Cray, of the A. and E. Coal at Raleigh is at home for the holidays.

Clarence and Robt. Deaver, of Davison College are at home for the holidays.

There was a two horse load of the finest mammoth bronze turkeys for sale on our streets Monday from the Everett farm that we have ever seen anywhere.

Mrs. E. N. Norwood leave Monday for a stay of three months in Fla. Rev. and Mrs. Seagle will occupy Mrs. Norwood's house while she is away this winter.

Ralph Fisher left Tuesday for Fictens, S. C. to attend the approaching wedding of his aunt, Miss Veron Neal to Mr. Charles Gaffney, of Gaffney, S. C. Miss Neal's family live at Rosman.

Stop for one moment and figure the cost between two gallons of cane molasses at $1.40 and $1.50 per gallon and the Brevard News fifty two times in one year for only $1.50. Business certainly has gone some where.

How about a brass band for Brevard, boys? Get busy.