Rev. C. E. PUETTE PRESENTED WITH HANDSOME WATCH

On Sunday morning at the Baptist Church Rev. C. E. Puette was made the recipient of a handsome watch presented to him by his friends and well-wishers of the Baptist congregation.

We don't know Brother Puette, just what this present means; whether it is that you are preaching too long sermons and your people want to call "time" on you in a gentle way; or whether they want to see their pastor pull out a handsome watch when he comes to visit them; or whether when invited to partake of the savory roast chicken he gets there "on time" and doesn't keep the cook in a stew and the good lady of the house hoping that dinner won't be "spilt" and the children all sniffing the savory odor and hoping that the preacher will hurry up. Any and all of these reasons may have had weight in prompting this generous gift. And then it is always nice to have something on which one can raise a little money in case of necessity. But the News hopes and trusts that this last may never happen.

If it's Groceries, Mitchell has it.
