

CASCADIA NEWS

We had some rain again Saturday and it is still cloudy with every sign of snow.

Messrs. Perry and John Hinkle made a business trip to South Carolina last week.

Miss Daisy Grimshaw visited Mrs. John Hinkle last Tuesday evening. Miss Annie Nicholson was a visitor in this section recently.

Mr. Bud Nicholson called to see his "old friend" J. H. Hinkle Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. C. Lyday spent the evening with Mrs. W. E. Head Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Head is suffering from a sore leg. But we hope he will soon recover.

John Hinkle made a business trip to Glenville Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Head spent the evening with her life long friend, Mrs. John Hinkle Wednesday.

Mrs. John Hinkle called to see Mrs. Dessie Teague last Monday.

Say in your recent issue we saw the editor's note in the piece written by "morning glory" and wish to say this in reply: That we could not see anything wrong with the piece and could not see there was any insinuations on any one as there was no body's name mentioned, so don't think that "Morning Glory" meant any insult to any one.

Mrs. Cora Cash spent the evening with Mrs. J. N. and Mrs. B. M. Teague Wednesday.

Mr. Perry Hinkle called to see Mr. J. H. Hinkle Sunday morning.

Mr. John Hinkle spent the evening with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hinkle Sunday.

Mrs. W. E. Head and Miss Pearl Kinsey went to Sapphire last Monday.

The road overseer has been in this section doing some much needed work on the roads. Blasting out rocks and repairing bridges.

Misses Bessie and Essie Hinkle and Miss Annie Nicholson called to see Mrs. John Hinkle Saturday evening despite it being so terrible rainy.

Lets all try to write long and interesting pieces to our paper every week and try to make it more newsy. Would that not be a nice idea?

Mrs. Elizabeth Burrell spent the day with Mrs. Alice Hinkle Saturday.

Mrs. Burrell is getting rather old but is exceedingly stout for a lady of her age. We see she still follows the old time way and still spins and weaves cloth. Which is something rather unusual for a lady of her age.

Well I hope the editor won't find fault to this as he did to "Morning Glory".

Will try to come again when it is not so cold.

Good luck and hearty greetings to all the readers and the kind editor. Brown Eyes.

YOU CAN LEARN A LOT FROM ADVERTISING:

The main thing an advertiser wants to do is to tell you plainly just how and why his goods are worthy of your consideration. You can learn a great deal from that alone, because many things you see advertised are the things you buy and use in your regular daily life. By reading the advertisements, you can learn the names and read descriptions of the things that are best and most satisfactory.

But advertising teaches even more than that. All advertisers try to make their advertisements themselves valuable to you.

A good many people have learned a whole lot about good music, good books, good food, good clothes, ways to keep healthy, ways to live comfortably, ways to keep the house and grounds looking well — they've learned all these things and many other things just by reading advertisements. Read the advertisements right along, and you will learn a great deal that will be helpful and valuable to you as you go through life.

THE FORD RUNABOUT

THE FORD RUNABOUT needs no advertising. About all we have to do is to tell you we can supply the demand with something like promptness and the selling is over. We have never been able to get enough from the factory to meet the demand and do not suppose we ever will get enough. There are more than four million - five hundred thousand Ford cars in operation today, and of this number about three hundred thousand are in foreign countries, the rest right here in America, but we have one hundred and five to one hundred and ten millions of people and it looks from the way demand comes in that we will have to sell that many Runabouts before we can satisfy that demand.

It is one great, little utility. It fits into every man's wants, from the physician to the worker in the factory, from the country blacksmith to the millionaire railroad owner, from the contractor and his employees to the millionaire sporting man's entourage, almost as necessary these days as the handkerchief.
