GALLIAS SYMPATHIZES WITH
THE SOUTHERN REPUBLICAN.

The whole push of us has it in for President Warren Gamelias. He has gone west and done appointed a guy by the name of Judge Waddill to be Judge of the United States Court of Appeals to succeed the late lamented Judge Fritchard, thereby giving the Hon. B. B. or J. J. Britt a black eye and turning the Hon. Britt green with envy.

Poor Britt, fate is against him. He surely was born on an unlucky day, or the stars were not right at the time, or the universe was falling to function, or it might have been on Friday the 13th, on which that event occurred. The election was stolen by a cocoanut headed fellow by the name of Zeb Weaver, and by that steal the republicans could not organize Congress. It was worse than a shame, it was a calamity.

Beat by the thieving democrats, endorsed by the whole white republican machine. Become famous for being beaten by Weaver, and the republicans having as a slogan: "Remember Britt and the Buncombe County Election Fraud. And after all these calamities have befallen him the President won't appoint him as judge.

President Garret Gamelias, has for gotten the days of 1892, 1894, and 1896, when Col. James H. Young, congressman Geo. White, although he was black or yellow or a mulatto, came to the rescue of the republican party, and brought the State from the slough of democracy and established equal rights to all creeds, classes, colors and previous conditions of servitude.

The republican senate refused to confirm the nomination of democrat executive committee Warren as district attorney, because he refused to allow some few negroes to vote. Borah, Hell Roaring Hiram Johnson, and a few northern and western colored folks lovers, are now trying to hold up the nomination of the Hon Frank Linney, as District Attorney because he did the same thing that Chairman Warren did, and writing letters to Chairman Warren asking him to cooperate with him to keep the negro from voting. Thereby keeping him down and out of politics. Poor Negro he is without a place to lay his weary head. He is like some wag has said. "He has no pride of ancestry, or hope of posterity". In bygone days he was fed on the fat of the republican lands, he stood high in the council chambers. Good fat offices was tendered to him and he accepted them. Now they claim the only way to carry the solid South republican is to eliminate him from politics. Big fat juicy letters are being written each day to the head quarters of the G. O. P. begging and imploring them to give the negro a red eye as they can't give him a black one.
It is down right cruel to do him as some of the Southern republicans are trying to do him, after he has held them up so many times and asks nothing only a few crumbs from the republican table.

I remember years ago a certain republican was the whole cheese in Transylvania County, would furnish a pig and a keg of good corn liquor, that had a taste too good for a poor man to have, that would tickle the palate, and make you feel like you had one foot on the North Pole and the other one in the Reo Grand and all under you was yours. I would most hit a poor negro if I thought he felt that good now. They would have a barbecue the night before, and he would march his colored brethren two by two to the poles and vote them the straight republican ticket. A land slide like we had during the late flood couldn't have stopped them.
Those were the days, we have none like them in this good year of 1921.

Turn back the ruthless hands of time twenty odd years or so and make us have and enjoy our selves as our daddies did. COS PAXTON.
