FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS: (Continued from past issue)

"Yea shall be cleansed so by fire". In paraphrasing Robert Burns in his protest on the excise tax on liquor, "Scotland mes in sour affliktion", "the mountains and me's in sour affliktion".

This calamity is brought on us by envoys extraordinary, ministers plenipotentiary — a connate Birth of Fed ro; Forest, Gelo, State Survey, fattening on Federal State money to their complete repletion and to the Fill's depletion.

Wallowing in the Lap of Luxury in gilded offices amid sweet girl stenographers, under an anti-leaf burning law as fallacious as the nineor law of Lycurgus in the days of old.

Oh, men, I call on you "to be up and ready" for the exigency of the time demands it to save the timber save our country from the festering filth of unburnt woods and with the Bickett $10 an acre tax on our worm festering lands as an incubator for sickness to man and death and destruction to the timber.

One of fair Brevard grand men, who will not do anything before 9 a. m. or after 3:00 p. m., gave me a dual instrument, one side of which tells the absence of heat in Winter and cold in Summer, on the other is a prognosticator of coming events. I hurried to look at it and it says the froth of censure will be hard to wipe from the lips of many who have not the intelligence. (quo vadis) the the truth.

A great aconite fear creeps o'er me and grasps my heart as with an icy hand, that these anti-leaf brigade like the longer eel will slip thru the meshes of reason, and headed by some fair Amazon will rush on and on to subdue all fire, like a Bat out of the Inferno until they fling back those ponderous doors of Hell and quench its Eternal fire.

But like Caesar, I'll be "In arduis fidelis" faithful in danger.

What a wonderful twin like resemblance in imbecility is that anti-leaf and the New woman New Law. "The cleanness of marriage, the protection of home and sanctity of Woman.

.....What do we care for the voluptus rot of the grave.

For there in High Excathedra is circumsused in a cloud of gold: Bath ed in the sweetest atmosphere of Nerole.

Richly robed in Nudety. I, enmasse, with the printers devil, editor and owner, genflex in vehement adoration before her.

PENROSE ITEMS:

The ladies Aid had a large, orderly crowd Saturday night at the ice cream supper.

The proceeds of the supper will be used to purchase windows for the new church.

Work on the new church is still going on. Mr. James Cox is nailing up laths in a hurry. We are hoping to complete the work by August 1st.

Rev. Mr. Lunsford, who has been in the revival services at Pisgah Forest, preached on "Christian Duty" to a large audience at Enon Sunday. He also officiated with Mr. Frady, Mr. Campfield and Mr. Blythe of Pisgah Forest in the ordination of deacons for Enon Church.

Rev. J. M. Casey, our blind preacher, has sold his farm at this place to Mr. Arthur Case. Mr. Frank Case has just moved on this farm and we are expecting a helpful citizen and church worker out of him. Mr. Arthur Case is with the champion Fibre Company of Canton and is the son of Mr. Joe Case who lives near the school and church. Rev. Casey moved to near Hendersonville.

Work on the road quarry near the station is still moving along.

They have graded a road from the Main highway to the quarry and they report a fine quality of rock where they work now just above Mr. Horace Lyday's home.

Frank Woodfin who has been with the Norfolk and Western Railway Co. at Wheeling, West Va., came home, visiting folks last week. His brother-in-law, Master Norman Marsh accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hambricht of Greenville, S. C., are visiting relatives in this community. Mrs. Hambricht is a sister of Mr. Carmel Picklesner of this place.

T. F. Middleton took his Sunday school class on a picnic tour to the beautiful water falls at the Clough farm on the 4th. They had an enjoyable time with the exception of Rhett Talley's getting the end of his finger cut off with a rock.

R. M. Blythe was the purchaser of a Ford last week.

Miss Mattie Pearl Lyday is attending Summer school at Brevard.
