

WOULD GO FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE

Tennessee Farmer Wants to go From House to House and Tell Everybody About Tanlac.

"If I were not so busy with my farmwork I would go from house to house and tell the people about Tanlac," said A. J. Livingston, a well-known farmer, living near Ashland City, Tenn.

"I had stomach and kidney trouble and suffered torment with my back and side. The doctors could do nothing for me so I wrote to a friend of mine in Nashville about Tanlac and he advised me to try it, saying he had heard so many favorable reports about it and sent me a bottle.

"After taking the first bottle I felt so much better that I ordered another bottle myself and the result is I am a well man. I told a friend of mine about it and ordered a bottle for him and he had good results. I can eat anything I want and it don't hurt me and can sleep like a log. To tell you the truth, I just simply feel like a new man and have more strength and energy than I have had in years. It is simply the grandest medicine in the world. I would like to see all of my friends and get those who are suffering to try it and I hope you will reach them through this testimonial, which I have gladly given."

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, which accomplished such remarkable results in this man's case, is a wonderful tonic, appetizer and invigorant. It builds up the system, creates a healthy appetite, promotes digestion and assimilation of the food and makes you feel strong, sturdy and well as nature intended.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

It seems strange to-day in the meeting of the pension board of Transylvania County not to see the familiar face, hear the genial voice and feel the warmth of the personal touch of one associated for several with us in deliberations conferred by public trust—his promptness in attendance, his fearless and open way of expression in deliberations, his unbiased decisions, his adherence to law and justice, his leanings toward the unworthy, his sympathy toward the unfortunate and his loyalty to comrades now old and decreed—these traits as only a part of his better self cemented him in respect and confidence to this board and it's clientage; therefore be it

Resolved by the pension board that in the death of our associate in office, Hon. Thomas Lenoir Gash this board is bereaved and mourn not only the loss of his personality but sorely feel the vanishing touch of his comradeship in war, in the civil and social walks of life and of his official counsel.

TELLS STORY OF 14 YEARS BRUTALITY

Girl Escapes From Bondage and Charges Foster Mother With Inhuman Cruelty.

Ridgway, Pa.—A tragic story of 14 years of brutality, alleged to have been imposed upon her by her foster mother, was related to the police by Julia Hector, twenty years old, who finally escaped from her home and sought refuge in the police station. The girl charged her guardian, Mrs. Catherine Georzel, with threats to kill. The woman was arrested.

Severe beatings, Miss Hector said, were a regular part of her daily life.

Showered With Scalding Water.

She told of repeated times when she had been strapped to a chair and showered with scalding water.

The girl reached the police station in an almost exhausted condition and only partly clothed. The police had her examined by a surgeon, who reported that her body was literally covered with scars, some of which, the girl said, were marks where she had been scalded with scalding water. Her ears were torn and eyes nearly closed. Her nose, which, she said, had been broken several times years ago with a club, had never been set and lies flat to her face.

Miss Hector asserted that for years she virtually had been held a prisoner, never being permitted to see any one. She had attended school for only a few months in the 14 years, she said. The girl went to live with Mrs. Georzel at the death of her father.

WIFE IS STOLEN BY "DEVIL"

Italian Dressed as His Satanic Majesty Took Woman From Another Man.

Bellvue, O.—Entering the bedroom of the woman with whom he was infatuated, John Bianco is alleged to have posed as the devil and so frightened the woman and her husband with his diabolical forebodings that the former left her husband and fled with Bianco.

Bianco, dressed in a red devil's suit with tails, horns and hoofs, appeared before Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Roloff as they lay in bed. It is charged. He told the woman to leave her husband and marry another, and ordered Roloff not to live with his wife. The "devil" informed the pair that death would follow a refusal to obey his command.

Bianco later returned in earthly clothes, police say, and the woman agreed to flee with him to New York city. They were arrested as they were about to get on a train. Bianco is held under the Mann white slave law.

200-Pound Safe Stolen From Room as He Sleeps

Kansas City.—An iron safe weighing 200 pounds was taken from the home of T. G. Schweiger, president of the Schweiger Construction company, 2620 Robert Gillham road, while M. B. Schweiger, his son, was asleep in the room from which the safe was taken. Mr. Schweiger said that when he and his wife left their home early in the evening the front door was not locked because their son was asleep on the second floor. When he returned home, Mr. Schweiger said he found the rear door of the house open and the safe gone. His son had not been disturbed by the robbers, he said, but was still sleeping peacefully. Mr. Schweiger said the safe contained $50 and some valuable papers.

Bear's Body Rolls to Hunter.

Stone, Pa.—A bear shot on the top of the mountain range at Tadaghton Gorge rolled down the mountain side nearly 700 feet and landed at the feet of the hunter, who had fired at it from the bottom of Pine Creek Valley. The side of the mountain is so steep that few men have been able to scale it, and the bear rolled down so fast that the hair was burned from its skin in many places.

FINDS HUSBAND STREET BEGGAR

Virginia Girl's Dream of Romance Is Rudely Shattered in San Francisco.

DOG REVEALS SECRET

"Rags" Recognized Mistress and Reveals Husband as Street Corner Mendicant—Tales of Fifth Avenue Home a Myth.

San Francisco.—When Lillian Geraldine Leitch of Richmond, Va., visiting San Francisco for the first time, met James Robert Van D'Loye, she promptly fell in love with the aristocratic name and the distinguished bearing of the young man who modestly admitted he was the son of a New York millionaire. The affection was returned when Van D'Loye learned that her parents were also wealthy, although of course, not in the Van D'Loye class.

Van D'Loye after telling the girl that he was banished by his father because of his wanderlust, and reduced to a mere pittance of $100 a week spending money, proposed and was accepted. They were married soon after and went to housekeeping in a cozily furnished apartment. For a time everything went smoothly and the young husband showered his bride with flowers and bouquets.

Secured a Position.

Then the husband announced that he had secured a position, although he always seemed to have plenty of money. He would not divulge the nature of his work but left the house in their limousine every morning, accompanied by his faithful dog "Rags." Van D'Loye continued to maintain his wife in every luxury and she had no desire to return to her Virginia home.

One day, a month after her wedding, she decided to visit the curb market of San Francisco. While picking her way through a busy street, a dog jumped against her and she recognized "Rags." She looked for her husband but did not see him. Then her eyes followed the chain attached to the animal's collar until they came to the hand that held it.

Gave One Pull on His Whiskers.

The hand belonged to a ragged individual on whose breast was a sign reading "I am deaf, dumb and blind." Scared Gives Way.

She also noticed that the beggar's cup contained quite a sum of money. His placard was partly covered by a long, flowing, white beard. "Rags" continued to prance about her and she was wondering how he came in the possession of the beggar when an idea struck her and she gave one pull on the white whiskers. They gave way and there stood her husband.

"Forsors! My husband!" she exclaimed, while the little dog, who used to lead his "blind" master from the office where he changed his gentleman's apparel to the mendicant's garb, to the street corner where he begged the rich offerings of the sympathetic San Franciscans, barked in great glee. While she upbraided her husband, a crowd gathered and gazed the false philanthropist. Then she hastened home, packed her belongings, and her divorce suit, now in the San Francisco courts, followed.

LIES WEEK IN CHURCH BELFRY

Demented Man Found by New York Sexton When Bell Refuses to Ring.

New York.—The sexton in the Eighteenth Street Methodist Episcopal church pulled the bell rope before services, but no sound went forth from the belfry.

He climbed to the steeple and found Timothy Jones, 24, lying over the rope in a semi-delirious condition.

After being revived at a police station, Jones said he climbed to the belfry a week ago to escape the cold, and had lain there a week, trying to forget his hunger.

He was removed to a hospital, where physicians said his condition was serious.

A man, claiming to be a relative, said that Jones' mind had been affected by overstudy at an institution in Philadelphia.
