

QUEBEC NEWS

(By T. C. HENDERSON)

W. B. Henderson, T. Vince Smith, and T. C. Henderson were the delegates from Oak Grove church who attended the Transylvania Baptist Association at Pisgah Forest last week.

Mrs. D. H. Miller, the delegate from Sapphire church to the Transylvania Baptist Association, stopped at Quebec on her return home and spent the week end with relatives in this community.

Mrs. T. C. McCall has been seriously ill for some days, but is reported to be better at this writing.

Willie Whitmire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Whitmire, visited Dr. McLean's office at Brevard last Monday and had a tooth extracted and some other dental work done. James Bingham Henderson was also a caller at Dr. McLean's office on the same day, where he had his mouth relieved of four unnecessary and pestiferous teeth.

Miss Azilee Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Miller of this community, and Welch Reid of the Sapphire community, were married at the home of Edgar Reid of Oakland last Sunday afternoon, T. B. Reid, Justice of Peace, officiating.

We long to see the time when common sense will rule in the affairs of state, when the country will be blessed with officials who possess sufficient strength of character and stability to do their whole duty, and when the men who do the work may be as well rewarded for their services as the men who do only the planning. Public expenses should be cut down, the number of public officials reduced, taxes lowered, the affairs of government simplified, with "officials and public employees working as hard, as long hours and as faithfully as do the taxpayers who support them."

OLD FASHIONED FOX HUNT:

Williams Creek section was the scene of a good old fashioned fox hunt last Saturday. A. W. Barnett, Captain Tom Patton and J. K. Miller chased a fox over hills, down hollows and through brambles for two hours before it was captured.

Captain Patton is a Confederate Veteran but he mounted a horse and exhibited the mettle of a boy.

Chief Barnett is noted for his fox hunting hobby and has a splendid pack of dogs.

DOTS AND DASHES FROM CEDAR MOUNTAIN

The long drought has finally broken here and we are again the land where water falls.

Mr. Thomas Deal was a Sunday visitor here to see Miss Hattie Hudson. They, with friends, enjoyed a pleasant and rather profitable chestnut hunt.

Master Cleo Garren has been the happy recipient of a good rabbit hunting hound of which he is very proud, the donor being Mr. Hunt of Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Paul Jones, formerly of this place, now of Ware Shoals, N. C., was a visitor at the home of E. A. Heath Sunday.

Mr. Miles Hooker and Mrs. Maggie Talley of Dacusville, S. C., are visitors at the home of Messrs. Rowley and Asa Hooker.

Mr. Alexander Burns of Ware Shoals, S. C., visited his family for the week end.

Mr. Street Burns of Ware Shoals was a visitor Sunday to the home of Mr. Hamp Jones.

Mr. Seldon Jones of Ware Shoals, S. C., was a visitor at the home of Mr. Ralph W. Lee.

Mr. Lou Batson visited his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lizzie Hooker, Sunday.

We had quite a nice community fair on the 4th of this month. The farm product judge, Mr. Sams said that we had an excellent exhibition of corn. The entries were so nearly equal that the selecting of a winner was quite difficult. There were quite a nice display of articles by the ladies and one of the best collections of cakes to be found in any rural community.

Everybody enjoyed an excellent feed.

Mrs. Dr. Robert Wilds, who spent the summer here at her summer home, died suddenly last Thursday at her home in Aiken, S. C., from an attack of Spinal Meningitis.

Mr. Joseph Jones and family are moving to Selma to take charge of the post office and railway office at that place. Their many friends reluctantly see them go and wish them much success in their new vocations.

The young social set enjoyed an old fashioned candy pulling at the home of Mr. Solomon Jones, Sr. The event was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Our school is enjoying a good attendance of exceptionally good and bright children for which their teachers are quite thankful.

On last Friday 6th at 8 o'clock A. M., Mr. Street Burns, the aged father of Jerry, Alexander and Mont, Burns passed from this life to his rest in the great beyond.

Mr. Burns was almost 90 years of age and was a very devout follower of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. He has heard the call enter thou into the joys of thy Lord.

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE - What It Has Accomplished:

A great newspaper man who died a short time ago whose record of achievement was great along many lines said that the way to get things done was to keep at it continually. What has been done as to prevention of disease in the past is great and can be dealt with very briefly in such an article as the present effort. Advertising is recognized as a potent means of attracting attention to what ever wares an individual has to offer to the public. The public is always interested in its own welfare and health is by all men admitted to a foremost place. So far as we have any record prevention of disease began with Jenner's discovery of the eficiency of inoculation to prevent the ravages of smallpox, this method has been improved and modified so as to prevent the possibility of transmitting any individual taint that might be in the person from whom the virus was obtained. Pastuer developed a virus that prevents hydrophobia but does not cure a case that has developed. Lockjaw is also preventable through at the present time not curable once it has developed. Typhoid fever can also be prevented by vaccination; yellow fever and malaria are controlled by eradicating the mosquitoes which are carriers. In regard to malaria the American Red Cross reports an interesting experience in a small town in Arkansas when the local physicians had 2,500 calls in one year in a town of about 2000 persons for cases of malaria. During the year following a campaign against malaria and the introduction of preventive measures the same physicians received only 74 calls for malaria treatments. Such results cannot be gainsayed, many similar instances could be cited if time and space permitted. Preventive measures such as advocated together with continued attention to sanitary surroundings would come near to making health catching as disease is now. In this, as in other things "Eternal vigilance" is the price of liberty. An old writer sang of arms and men. I would if I could, sing of those who, not counting their lives dear to themselves, if by dying they might save others. It was the writer's fortune to know one such man who fell a victim to yellow fever in order to demonstrate the fact that it was mosquito borne. The only apology for this article is the hope that some of the people of Transylvania County may see it to their interest to avail themselves of their opportunities.

Sincerely, W. J. WALLIS.
