STATESVILLE FIRE BURNS 15 HOUSES

BLAZE THAT THREATENS CITY BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL BY FIREMEN.

LOSS ESTIMATED AT $40,000

Burned Section Was Confined Chiefly to One Block Between Center and Meeting Streets.

Statesville, Fifteen small houses were destroyed here by fire, which, fanned by high winds, threatened for a time to spread to valuable manufacturing establishments and the Southern railway station.

The structures consumed, however, were small ones on the west side of South Center street, and the total loss was estimated at not more than $30,000 to $40,000, of which about one-third was covered by insurance. No one was injured in the flames which gave the fire department a desperate battle.

The fire was believed to have been started in a negro pressing club and the buildings burned included eight negro houses, four white residences and three small business structures.

The burned section was confined chiefly to one block between Center and Meeting streets. Seven negro residences and the residences of three white families, as well as several negro business establishments were destroyed. The Powell tobacco factory and Wallace Brothers' warehouse, formerly a tobacco warehouse, and the Henry House, a hotel, were in the path of the flames and suffered great damage.

Firemen for a while fought a losing battle against the stiff south wind which fanned the flames and blew the burning embers to nearby buildings, but at 2:45 a. m. more than an hour after the fire started, it was announced that the fire was under control. Houses opposite or near the burned buildings were scorched and in some cases actually caught fire. It was at one time thought that the flames could not be confined to less than three blocks.

New Cotton Mill for Wadesboro. Wadesboro. This city is rejoicing over the subscription of $420,000 for the building of a new cotton mill here, a canvass having been made of the citizens of Wadesboro and the surrounding country, resulting in the proposed capital stock being over subscribed by $25,000 by more than two hundred representative business and professional men and farmers. This is a distinct forward step and marks the beginning of a real industrial era for Wadesboro and Anson county.

Thus a large cotton mill, including mill villages built exclusively by local capital, will become a reality after a canvass of only four days. An enthusiastic meeting was held in the court house in which the new spirit of progress which has lavaged Wadesboro was emphasized by former Congressman L. D. Robinson, president Bank of Wadesboro.

"Never before in the history of Wadesboro," he said, "has there been such unanimous enthusiasm for an enterprise." And he prophesied the success of the enterprise in graphic and expressive language, saying it was only the beginning of better and bigger things.

The canvassing committee has been empowered to receive additional stock subscriptions until a half a million dollars have been subscribed.

A committee composed of L. D. Robinson, T. L. Caville, R. M. Covington, H. P. Taylor and W. P. Parsons will secure a charter for the new cotton mill. And ten dollars in gold will be offered as a prize for a name for the new mill. It is most likely that the cotton grown in Anson county will be used by the new mill, which will not only spin it into yarn, but weave, bleach, dye and print the fabric.

Dr. Peacock Named in Warrant. Raleigh. A warrant has been issued here charging Dr. J. W. Peacock, located at St. Petersburg, Fla., with having escaped from the state prison, which is made an offense under the laws of this state, according to Attorney General J. S. Manning.

This action followed notification to Warden S. J. Bushee, of the state prison, that the sheriff of Lakeland, Fla., would not proceed to arrest Dr. Peacock until he had received the proper papers. The request that the arrest be made was sent to the Florida authorities immediately after information was received here of the location of Dr. Peacock.

High Point. — Compilation of High Point's banking statistics at the opening of 1923 shows the total of $11,545,361.70 in resources for the four banks of the city. This compares with $10,958,991.53 one year ago, a gain of $586,370.17 during the past year.

Deposits — the item that always is foremost as the indicator of prosperity — were $8,809,177.01 at the opening of the present year, compared with $7,454,807.82 at the beginning of 1922, an increase of $1,354,369.19.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN SESSION

Dr. Lawrence, Miss Magee and D. W. Sims Speakers at the Opening Session.

Charlotte. The effect of environment upon the mind of the child and the value of training them in religious work during their habit forming years, was the keynote of the speech of Miss Daisy McGee, children's division superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, at the opening session of the Mecklenburg County Sunday School Association at the First Baptist church.

The opening of the convention was pronounced by a prominent Sunday school man of the city as one of the most auspicious that has been held in the state in some time. Sixty-six Sunday schools were represented at the meetings including 22 ministers, 24 superintendents, and 232 teachers and officers.

The main auditorium of the First Baptist church was filled to capacity during the opening sessions, a large number of Sunday school workers and pupils of the city and county being in attendance. Miss McGee, D. W. Sims and Dr. Marion Lawrence, of Chicago, consulting secretary of the International Sunday School Association, were the principal speakers.

"Holdings Present Pupils," was the subject of the address by Dr. Sims. Dr. Lawrence spoke on "Five Sunday School Essentials."

Work Started on Big Project.

Ashville. Work on the dam for Beaver lake has started and early in July the 72-acre lake in Beaver Dam valley, as a part of the development of the Lakeview corporation will become a reality, representing an investment of approximately $60,000, it was learned yesterday, following receipt by S. Sternberg of orders from the state corporation commission allowing the Asheville and East Tennessee railroad to be dismantled. The dam will be 40 feet high and 130 feet long and at least 90 days will be required to complete this part of the project, with four months as the time estimated for the lake to fill.

Heretofore the dam for the lake has been held up by the Waverly line, which traverses a right of way at the bottom of the lake site, and after several attempts on the part of officials and residents to successfully operate the electric railroad, it was placed into bankruptcy and purchased by Mr. Sternberg at a receiver's sale for $20,000, and he immediately sold the right of way through Beaver Dam valley to the Lakeview corporation.

A certain number of days was necessary before the corporation commission could issue an order allowing the time to be taken, and as the required time passed without objection on the part of those interested, the following order has been issued by R. O. Self:

"This cause coming on to be heard upon the petition of S. Sternberg, and it appearing that the Asheville and East Tennessee Railroad company has for a number of years been operating at a great financial loss, and that its honor, Henry P. Lane, judge presiding, nineteenth judicial district, has confirmed the sale of the property of said railroad company, by a receiver, to the said S. Sternberg, and it further appearing that it would be unreasonable and unjust for the commission to require the operation of said railroad by the petitioners as a public utility."

"It is therefore ordered, upon motion of attorneys for the petitioner, that said petitioner be and is hereby authorized to discontinue the operation of said railroad."

SURELY WOULD HAVE TO GO WOULDNT PAY FOR MATCHES

Master of Dismissal of Stenographer Simplified by "Insult" Conveyed in Unqualified Statement.

Mrs. Carter inquired in all the shops for a 50-cent match box with her usual result.

"John," she remarked, "I think you are the best fellow that I ever met. You have now, I am sure, she is trying to flirt with you ever since she has been here."

Mrs. Carter when she said this thought the stenographer was a fellow of hearing that she wasn't. She stopped to the door of the printing office and vented her indignation.

"Madame, I'll have you know that I wouldn't flirt with your old husband for a million dollars!"

Mrs. Carter was aghast.

"Now, John," she exclaimed, "you simply must discharge that girl! She has insulted you!" Kansas City Star.

Scotsman Not Likely to Expound a "Bawbee" When He Could Walk to His Hotel.

A man who is short after his breakfast, from the University of Edinburgh, came to this country to teach. Thirty years after he visited the country of his birth. On his return to his boarding post he was talking some of his confessions with an account of his trip.

"Some evening, I had the pleasure of seeing a man standing in a street in Edinburgh. I stopped at a tobacconist's and bought some cigars. Finding myself out of matches, I asked the clerk for some.

"'Hupson a box,' said he.

"'What? Why in America when a man has a cigar he is given a small package of matches?'

"The sorry, sir, but the lady says a box here."

"And, do you know," asked the professor, "I had to walk back eight blocks to my hotel to get some matches?"
