

SIGNS

- He is going to get married if he:
 - Starts smoking a pipe.
 - Gets to work earlier and stays later.
 - Buries nose in "Apartments Furnished" column.
 - Looks at price tags on women's hats.
 - Ceases to enjoy a burlesque show. (Tells her that.)
 - Gives girl's mother matinee tickets.
 - Tells girl she must get to bed earlier for her health.
 - Figures on the back of an envelope.—Judge.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

The only sure things of life are the things that have already happened.

The world will sometimes take a man on bluff, but it is better to have a return ticket.

It may be all right to follow the crowd, but it's a mighty poor way to get to the front.

Of course foresight is a good thing, but it won't keep a man from being stabbed in the back.

Any married man will tell you that a woman doesn't have to get on the scales to have her own way.

Accepting gratuitous advice proves that the fellow who gets something for nothing must pay dearly for it.

You never can tell. The woman who is talked about is apt to be almost as unhappy as the woman who isn't.

It is doubtful if there is any similarity between a fair weather friend and the one who makes hay while the sun shines.

"Honesty is the best policy," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, but you've got to keep your premiums paid up," added the Simple Mug.

Muzins—"Did Wigwag go in for athletics when he was in college?" Buzins—"I believe he held the record for jumping at conclusions."

The Cynical Bachelor observes that just as much as marriage is a tie, it seems quite natural that a matrimonial alliance should have a string to it.

Blahbs—"Are you doing anything these days?" Shlubs—"I'm working every day, eight hours at a stretch." Blahbs—"Where?" Shlubs—"In the rubber factory."

ODD FACTS

Trial by jury is said to have existed in 2500 B. C.

A weight 40 times its own is just an average lift for a crab.

Ravens pair for life and use the same nest year after year.

A single tusk of an East African bull elephant has been known to weigh 275 pounds, but the average tusk of the old wild bull elephant of today is said to be not more than 40 pounds.

INSECT TALES

The microscope will show the mosquito has 22 teeth.

The caterpillar's range of vision is only two-thirds of an inch.

A beetle has been known to dispense with food of any kind for three years.

There are more beetles than all other creatures in the world, put together.

The gnat fastens its eggs in the shape of a lifeboat. You cannot sink them without breaking them to pieces.

Scientific computation has established that 10,000 threads of the web of a full-grown spider are not larger than a single hair of a man's beard.

A Mediterranean mollusk is locally called the silk worm of the sea, as it spins a fiber from which clothing and hosiery can be made.—New York Sun.

CHUNKS OF WISDOM

- A crowd is not company.
- A boaster and a liar are cousins.
- A brave retreat is a brave exploit.
- A cracked bell can never sound well.
- A contented mind is a continual feast.
