

The Practical Man's Car

The quick success of the Chevrolet Utility Coupé has proved how accurately its designers gauged the transportation requirements of the average busy man. This fully equipped, modern car combines day-by-day reliability, remarkably low operating costs and the lowest price asked for a Fisher Body automobile. The mammoth rear compartment is especially attractive to the man who is always moving tools, sample cases, repair parts for farm machinery, and luggage of all sorts.

LESSON FOR MARCH 11

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:39-48.
GOLDEN TEXT—Christ also hath once suffered for our sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God.—1 Peter 3:18.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42; John 18:1-11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel Helps Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Prays for Strength.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How He Stood the Temptation.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Communion to the Father's Will.

I. Jesus at the Mount of Olives (v. 39). He went down the upper room under cover of night to the garden of Gethsemane. Gethsemane means oil press. It is a place where the oil was pressed out of the olives. There is a striking significance in Jesus' coming to this place. Olive oil was precious, being used both for food and lighting. The bruising and crushing of Christ in the garden has yielded the largest blessing in the world. It has provided food for men's souls and light for their lives.

II. His Companions (vv. 39, 40). Peter, James and John, who had been with Him on the Mount of Transfiguration, were permitted to go with Him into the deep shadows of the garden. He took those who were best able to apprehend the meaning of the tragic hour to be His sympathizing companions. This was needed to prepare them as His witnesses. Then, too, as a human being He craved sympathy.

Jesus Praying (vv. 41-44).
I. He Withdrew From the Disciples (v. 41). Even these disciples of the "inner circle" could not go with him. He here himself away from them for He must be alone in this darkest hour. He knelt down and prayed.

2. What He Said (vv. 42-44). "If thou be willing remove this cup from me." The cup did not mean the physical sufferings of His cross, though they were very great. He did not now desire to escape from the cross and thus step aside of His redemptive work, for this was the supreme purpose of His coming into the world (John 3:17). It was rather the revelation to Him by the cross which honored before Him, in His identification with sin in becoming the world's Redeemer. By virtue of the holiness and perfection of His nature, He could do nothing else than shrink from it. He saw in this hour of the sins of His Father's race. Knowing what was before Him He came to Gethsemane for this hour, and in it He consciously brought His human will into accord with the divine will. Though the cup was bitter He bowed in submission to the Father's will. So great was this agony that His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. In this crucial hour of need from heaven strengthened Him.

IV. The Disciples Sleeping (vv. 45, 49). They had boasted of their fidelity, but could not watch with Him for an hour. He had issued a word of warning to them, but they were so benumbed with sorrow that they failed. He gently rebuked them and commanded that they rise and pray lest they enter into temptation.

V. Jesus Betrayed (vv. 47, 48).
1. The Betrayal (v. 47). This was done by Judas, one of the twelve. He had enjoyed the most intimate relations with the Lord, eating with Him, listening to His teaching, witnessing His marvelous miracles and enjoying His confidence.

2. The Sign of Betrayal (v. 47). It was the kiss, the token of the most tender affection and friendship. He now degrades it by making it the token of disloyalty and treason. Jesus' words to this infamous disciple shows the infinite tenderness of His heart. If Judas had been at all human this pathetic appeal would have smitten him to the very heart. How many professing disciples have proven their disloyalty to the Master and even betrayed Him. All who bear the name, Christian, and especially ministers and teachers who deny the virgin birth, deity and glorious ascension of Christ are following in the footsteps of Judas. May each one inquire, "Lord, is it I?"

VI. Jesus Arrested (v. 54).
The multitude around with swords and staves led by Judas included the scribes, priests of the garden and arrested Jesus and brought Him before the high priest.

We, Too, Can Share.
In our own degree, we, too, can share our Savior's sense of mission. We can approach every event with the consciousness of divine appointment. To possess this immediate circumstance of the Lord, whether it be bright or dark, that is the meaning of all my previous journey. It is the interpretation of the divine leading. I have been brought up to this hour; now let me seize it for God!—J. H. Jowett.

Your New Home should be made artistic, sanitary and livable.
