

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIAL DIRECTORY

North Carolina is to have a Social Register similar to those now in use in almost all northern states and cities.

North Carolina in the past has perhaps had no need for a social directory, but of late years her best people have inter-married so freely with Western and Northern people that it is almost impossible for one to remember the new family connections.

The Social Register of North Carolina will be devoted exclusively to the representative people in the state. Committees of ladies are being formed in each city to help gather the data for this work.

The Register will keep a record of correct names, maiden names, clubs and husbands' clubs, organizations, children's names and complete war record and also correct addresses, thereby making it North Carolina's standard guide to her best people.

Upon completion of North Carolina, Virginia, Kentucky, Georgia, and South Carolina will be taken up in order named until the entire South has a Social Register state by state.

Blanks will be mailed shortly to those in this city who have been chosen by the committees.

This work is being sponsored in this state by the following ladies of Charlotte: Mrs. Charles W. Tillett, Mrs. Charles C. Hook, Mrs. James Eugene Bully, Miss Margaret Geddings Rankin.

The Asheville committee is: Mrs. Richmond Pearson, Mrs. Frank M. Weaver, Mrs. Louis M. Bourne, Mrs. Charles M. Platt, Mrs. Chas. A. Webb and Mrs. Fred Kent.

Winston-Salem committee: Mrs. William N. Reynolds, Mrs. Joseph L. Graham, Mrs. Bowman Gray, Mrs. Bess Gray Plumbly.

Salisbury committee: Mrs. Edwin C. Gregory, Mrs. Walter Steele Blackmer, Mrs. A. H. Boyden.

Mr. Theodore B. Roger of New York and Mr. Robert D. Bunn of North Carolina are managing this work, and have made their home office in Asheville.

THE TROUBLES OF SAM

Sam bought a cap. Fitted nice and snug. Went for a haircut. "Nice and snug, please." "Cold storage for YOU, cap!"

The hair grew back. Sam dug out the cap. A flash of a smile. Had to wear it, didn't he get it off? "The Peanut on the Pumpkin." Yours for the ash heap, cap!

Sam bought another cap—bigger this time. "Get in, Sam, for a spin." "Give her the gas. If you wish." "Another Good Cap Gone Wrong." No more caps for me!

Sam bought a "SURE-FIT". As when you can wear it in. So how you can wear it out. Look at the stylish lines. TITLES: "The Peanut on the Pumpkin." Yours for the ash heap, cap!

"SURE-FIT" CAP
The World's Most Comfortable

The simple adjusting strap works on the same principle as a belt. A slight pull, and your "SURE-FIT" is tighter or looser, as you prefer.

All the new Fifth Avenue styles, in the latest patterns from American and overseas mills. Prove the name as you'd pay for any stylish cap—and you get "SURE-FIT'S" unvalued comfort.

ADJUSTABLE by a small, invisible strap, to your varying head size.
