THE PRAYER CORNER

GIRLS

Thanksgiving For those who are the comfort of the home, the inspiration of their friends, the hope of the coming generations.

Interestion That all girls may realize the rement to look beneath outward forms to the real issues of life, and may have courage to follow and uphold what is true.

That they may win through faith in Christ the beauty and power of His Spirit.

That all girls may realize the responsibility of their personal relationships and may so live for Christ in every friendship that their influence will enable natives and purity aspires.

That they may so discover the strength and inclusiveness of His love as to bring new power into the social life of the world and new inspiration into its work.

A PRAYER

O God, our Father, we pray for the girl who is growing up to take their own in a better world to be the mothers and teachers of a generation yet unborn. Especially the girl who is growing up to be a mother and teacher of a generation yet unborn.

THE ART OF DEBATING AND WOFFORD—AND SOME OTHER THINGS

Debating, the intelligent effective discussion of important public issues, is a great art and requires study, practice, skill in arrangement of material, and clearness and force of expression.

It is evident that the art of debating is receiving considerable attention among the students at Wofford. Four of their team have won unanimous decisions in their favor in each of their contests.

The team consists of H. B. Phares, H. A. Phares, and H. A. Phares. They have a record of four wins and no losses.

MEETING OF MUSIC LOVERS' CLUB

The Music Lovers' Club held its regular meeting at Mrs. Goriand's home on Saturday, May 19, after the business session, Mrs. Fall's Sunday school class joined with them for a social hour.

A surprise to the music lovers was a shower of pink emerald lozenges which were thrown from above. When the work was given to let the cat out of the bag, a still greater surprise was in store for all.

On the card inside was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Gertrude Falls to Mr. Gabrieth Adams, which will take place on June 28.

The class as a whole realizes Miss Falls' importance to them and the entire Sunday school and regret very much to see her leave Brevard, but she carries the best wishes of every one in whatever field she may enter.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake was served, and favored baskets of after dinner mints.

SPLENDID STRAWBERRIES

Ernest H. Norwood presented the Editor with a half gallon of the most splendid strawberries that he has ever seen to behold and they were delicious.

Mr. Norwood says that he has plenty of them and gets thirty cents a quart.

ENJOYABLE CAMPING PARTY

On last Saturday noon in two cars a party of young people motored to Fairfield and camped until Monday morning. All were enthusiastic in their declaration of having a wonderful time.

Those in the party were: Messrs. Jerry Jerome, Walter Hart, Foy Sinton, and Misses Polly Hart, Louise Townsend, Ethel Barnett. The camping party was chaperoned by Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Summey.

KEROSENE TO KILL MOSQUITOES

Stagnant water, old wells, etc., can be kept clear of mosquitoes by spreading kerosene once a month on the surface.
