

Mother's Day

By Rev. C. H. Benson

Teacher of Child Study and Pedagogy, State Bible Institute, Chicago.

The Bible does not have a great deal to say about distinguished women.

As some flowers seem to thrive best in the shadow, when the sun does not reach them, so did prophets...

There is a certain amount of truth in the saying that the Bible does not have a great deal to say about distinguished women.

FRIENDLY ADVICE

I fashion felt many a song for her; I quote but I quote in vain; The terrible times of a soul wrung to themes She seems to think mine.

I groan and I moan when the moon is high; I rave and I wail my lament; I bode into swarms of impassioned reports; She laughs at my commination.

So, I have to power to let me not the old and outworn methods of her; I have to power to let me not the old and outworn methods of her.

MY LITTLE SON

My little son, my little son, he calls to me forever; Across the gulfs and through the mists which shroud him from my sight; I hear him in the moonlight, in the midst of all the turmoil.

My little son, my little son, I see in clearest vision; The merry face, the clear, clear eyes, the crown of golden hair; But those, oh, those are sleeping where the hillside glows with sunset.

My little son, my little son, there are many paths at night time; Above the swaying treetops where the birds are fast asleep; I have to power to let me not the old and outworn methods of her.

FOUND BUSINESS TOO SLACK

Serious Fault That Amateur Worker Complained of as He Toiled With the Section Gang.

"Bud" Birch of Salmons, Ky., had heard it remarked that nobody had done a real day's work, until he had spent a day tramping ties on the rail road.

The day wore on. The sun enfolded higher and higher, as is the sun's habit, "Bud" grew warmer and warmer.

Finally a freight came trampling to and fro, and "Bud" stood in the ditch till it had passed. Then back to work.
