OFF ON VACATIONS—NO EXTRA SESSION—SPECIAL ELECTIONS

RALEIGH, N. C., June 29, 1923.—The annual session of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, which opened in Raleigh, N. C., on Monday, June 25, 1923, is now in progress. The session is being held at the State Capitol building, and is being conducted in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and laws of the State. The session is expected to continue until the first of August, 1923.

The session is being held at a time when the State is in the midst of a period of unusual prosperity. The State has experienced a period of rapid growth and development, and is now enjoying a period of peace and stability. The session is expected to be a successful one, and will result in the passage of many important laws and resolutions.
