

THIS BRIGHT BABY GIRL

Brought Joy to Home. Mrs. Price's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scotts, Pa.—"I never felt like working, and when I would try to do any work standing on my feet, I would just drag around all day long. At times I would have terrible pains and would be in bed three or four days. I was in this condition about a year when I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers. I had heard different women say it was good for women's troubles, and my aunt thought it would help me as it had helped her. So I took the Vegetable Compound and it brought things right, and I was in good shape before I became a mother again. I believe it helps at birth, too, as with both my other babies I suffered a great deal more than with this one. I thank you a thousand times for the good your medicine has done me. It has surely made our home a happy one."—Mrs. ROBERT PRICE, Scotts, Pa. via Lockhaven, Pa.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use.

Wasted Words
Johnson missed his train the other evening, so he went to have his hair cut. When he entered the barber's he was in a quarrelsome frame of mind. "Cut it without conversation," he growled, as he took his place in the chair. "Don't want any restorer, invigorator, eraficator, lotion, pottion or anything else. I've read all about the Near East troubles, and don't interest myself in boxing, racing or football. As regards the weather—"
Here a customer nudged Johnson's elbow.
"You'll have to write it down on his slate, mister," he said, "if you want to tell him anything. He's deaf and dumb."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Advice Taken

A young married woman of Princeton had received letters from a young insurance man, in Louisville, her chum, advising her on two important matters, the removal of her young son's tonsils and certain advantages accruing from bobbed hair.

The Louisville friend had about come to the conclusion that her advice had been wasted when she received this laconic message: "They're out; it's off—and I'm glad."—Indianapolis News.

What, Indeed!

Jim Shelton, prominent Houston insurance man, is sponsor for this one: Jim overheard an insurance agent trying to convince a prospective customer of the merits in life insurance. He kept right at him.

At one stage of the battle, the agent used this argument: "Why," he said, "insurance is the greatest thing in the world. No man should be without it. I even carry a $50,000 policy, payable to my wife."

"It's too much," said the harassed prospect. "What excuse can you give her for living?"—Houston Post.
