THE COUNTY PAPER

No. 47

TUBERCULOSIS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

On November 28th, the day after Thanksgiving, the Annual Tuberculosis Seal Sale will begin. The committee hopes to raise a goodly sum. They believe in prevention and therefore are working with the children. The Modern Health Crusade has been started in some schools. It is planned to have it in every school. Funds will also be used to provide food and proper clothing for children in need.

A fund is also kept on hand to aid in treating cases.

Out of every dollar received from the sale of seals seventy-five cents will be kept here for the work outlined above, fifteen cents goes to the State Tuberculosis Association, and ten cents to the National Association.

All the Women's Clubs and other organizations in town will aid in the sale of seals.

The teachers of the county are being asked to help. Miss Ada Walker will co-operate through the Girls and Women's Clubs.

There has been confusion in the minds of some with regard to the work of the Red Cross and the Tuberculosis Association.

The following agreement was reached between the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association:

1. That the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association would endeavor insofar as was practicable to prevent unnecessary overlapping.

2. That the Chapters and affiliated associations would again be advised that there was no official connection between the Christmas seal sale campaign of the National Tuberculosis Association and the Roll Call of the American Red Cross.

3. That for the year 1924 the American Red Cross Roll Call would be held from Armistice Day, November 11, until Thanksgiving Day, November 27, and that the Tuberculosis Seal sale would not begin until November 28.

4. That the Red Cross in its publicity and instructions to local Chapters would call attention specifically to the fact that the Roll Call would end Thanksgiving Day.

5. That the National Tuberculosis Association would again call to the attention of its affiliated associations the importance of not launching the seal sale prior to Thanksgiving Day and that it would endeavor to prevent its affiliated associations from actually selling seals prior to Thanksgiving Day.

6. That the American Red Cross would again call to the attention of its Chapters the importance of not carrying on their campaign after Thanksgiving Day and that it would endeavor to prevent the carrying out of a Roll Call during December.

7. That the National Tuberculosis Association would urge its affiliated associations to advise volunteer workers of the difference between the Red Cross Roll Call and the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal campaign and that the Seal should always be referred to as the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal.

8. That the National Tuberculosis Association would advise newspapers and photographers that the National Tuberculosis Association is engaged in selling a Tuberculosis Christmas Seal and that this seal is not a Red Cross seal.

9. That both the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association would naturally carry on an extensive educational campaign from time to time throughout the year and the National Tuberculosis Association would use every effort to prevent the sale of Seals prior to Thanksgiving; that the National Tuberculosis Association would send out material for publicity prior to Thanksgiving, although the National Association could not always control the date of the release of this material; that the affiliated associations might in some instances mail Seals prior to Thanksgiving, but that no general campaign for the sale of Seals should be undertaken until after Thanksgiving.

The sign of the Tuberculosis seal is the double cross.

Some impudent people feel that they take no risk in buying an automobile on borrowed money.

BREVARD NEWS WANTS CORRESPONDENTS

It is the desire of the management of the Brevard News to make this a real County paper. We are neither omniscient nor omnipresent so we cannot publish news from all sections unless it is sent to us.

Publicity will help your community. The News has subscribers in twenty-six states, the District of Columbia and some foreign countries.

Isn't there something in your community you are so proud of you would be glad to "tell the world" about it?

We want not only personals but farm news, club news, hunting and fishing trips, news of everything doing to make your community a good place to live.

We will pay liberally for your time and trouble.

Write us for terms, or better still, come and see us.

HELP THE GIRL SCOUTS

A rule of the Girl Scout organization prohibits them soliciting funds on the street in any manner; whatever, therefore, there will be no ticket sellers on the street to remind you of the entertainment which the girls will give at the High School Auditorium on Friday night, November 28.

The proceeds of this entertainment will be used to enable the girls to carry on their work and study in the "great outdoors."

It is not necessary to repeat the meaning of Scout work for either girls or boys. It is a recognized factor in the upbuilding of the nation.

Following are the names of the names of the energetic members of this organization: Annie Yongue, Nancy Macie, Elizabeth Shipman, Opal Montgomery, Adelaide Silversen, Louise Hughes, Mary Johnson, Edna King, Catherine Osborne, Christine Nelson.

MRS. D. L. SMATHERS DIES AT CLYDE, N. C.

Mrs. Mattie Killian Smathers passed away at her home November 24, after a year's illness of heart trouble. She was the daughter of the late Capt. J. W. Killian of this county.

Mrs. Smathers will be remembered here, by kindred and old friends. Each year she paid a visit to her old home. She was born and reared at the Mills place near Pisgah Forest, and was the aunt of C. R. Osborne and J. K. Mills.

"Aunt Mattie" as she was known, was a beautiful Christian character, and loved by all who knew her. Her husband and four children survive her at Clyde, three brothers, D. M. Killian, at Waynesville, John and James Killian, at Denver, Col., and one sister, Mrs. J. W. Mills at Montrose, Col.

ROSMAN NEWS

Mrs. W. H. Edens was a caller at Mrs. R. J. Reed's Sunday.

Dr. English was removed to the hospital in Asheville Saturday morning, his condition is reported serious.

Mrs. A. D. Kitchen, Miss Wilkinson, and Mrs. C. J. Eldridge motored to Brevard to see "The Message of the Cross." They reported the play excellent; and from there to Mrs. Eliza Shipman's, where sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Friends here sympathize with Mr. W. M. Gillespie and family over their great loss, for when you lose mother it seems like all is lost, but still the family can have one consolation and that is strive to meet her on the other shore.

Miss Bird Jamison and Miss Godfrey, of Brevard, motored to Asheville Tuesday night, reporting a delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Galloway have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kraft, of Pennsylvania.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT ST. PHILLIPS

The congregations of all the churches will unite in Thanksgiving service at St. Phillips church. All ministers, except Rev. E. R. Welch, who is in the hospital, will take part in the service. The sermon will be preached by Rev. John R. Hay.

There will be special music. Mrs. C. P. White will sing a solo.

The offertory will be the Intercessory Hymn, given by a joint choir from all the churches.

The church will be decorated with the fruits of the harvest.

BIG THINGS

When our Big Band is complete we will begin to plan for other big things.

A Big Meet—Band Concert, Community Singing, Games, a general good time.

A Big Fourth of July celebration.

A BIG FAIR

HOW ABOUT IT?

We have received a card showing a picture of the Municipal Golf Club, Jacksonville, Fla., and asking if Brevard will have links next season. We pass the inquiry on to the Chamber of Commerce.

MARRIAGE OF MISS MARY SLEDGE TO MR. ROY KANIPE

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Methodist church Saturday at high noon when Miss Mary Sledge became the bride of Mr. Roy Kanipe, of Marion.

All the arrangements were marked by simplicity, but every detail was beautiful and impressive.

The church was decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and gleaming candelabra. The color scheme being green and yellow.

The attendants were Mrs. Walter Duckworth, matron of honor and Mr. Howard Hoover, of Marion, who was best man. Dorothy Decker Kanipe, flower girl. Ushers were: J. M. Coldwell, Dean Tainter, Arthur Bradford, of Marion, and Francis Sledge, of Greenville. S. C., brother of the bride.

Miss Marguerite Robertson presided at the organ.

Miss Dorothy McKee sang "Because" just before the entrance of the bridal party. A chorus composed of Mrs. J. M. Allison, Mrs. J. S. Silversteen, Mrs. D. G. Ward, Mrs. Harry Patton, Mrs. H. R. Walker, Mrs. C. P. White, Misses Nell Aiken, Jones, and Amelia Galloway, Messrs. Shipman, Hay, Dodsworth, and John White preceded the bridal party down the aisle and entered the choir loft singing Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus.

The ushers came next and were followed by the matron of honor, gowned in brown charmeuse, fur-trimmed hat, and accessories to match, carrying an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Then came the fairy-like little flower girl, Dorothy Decker Kanipe, niece of the groom.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man.

The marriage service was read by Rev. J. W. Welch, the bride's pastor. Henderson's wedding march was used for the recessional.

The bride was beautifully gowned in an ensemble suit of brown suede cloth and brocaded faille with hat and accessories to match and carried an armful of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Kanipe left at once to spend their honeymoon in the South. Upon their return they will reside at Marion.

Mrs. Kanipe is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peterson Sledge and is one of the loveliest and most popular members of the younger set in Brevard.

Mr. Kanipe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Kanipe, of Marion, and is a promising young man. He is connected with the State Highway Commission.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Avery Gibbs, Miss Mae McCurry, Messrs. Bob McCurry, J. M. Coldwell, Dean Tainter, Arthur Bradford and Howard Hooper, of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Kanipe and Miss Dorothy Decker Kanipe, of Asheville.

A large array of beautiful gifts attested the popularity of this young couple.

A BACHELOR'S HONEYMOON

On last Thursday night a crowded house greeted the musical comedy staged by the National Producing Co., of Charlotte, under the auspices of the High School.

The entertainment was well planned, was amusing and thoroughly enjoyable but in our opinion was not quite up to the standard of High School productions.

Miss Jones as Onelia Higgins was inimitable—every tone and gesture and tone of Mrs. J. S. Silversteen.

Mrs. Ward's impersonation of Christian was very fine.

The duet of Miss Dorothy McKee and Mrs. Kay King as they stood under the cross was magnificent.

The choruses were well trained, the girls were beautiful and graceful.

Charles Band was a fine little fisherman.

Miss Marguerite Robertson at the piano, added much to the success of the evening.

The play was repeated Friday night to a fair sized audience.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA INC. COMMUNITY WORK

THE PRAYER CORNER

THE BIRD OF TIME

Time is like a great bird, flying ever onward to his nest among the Mountains of Eternity. The little minutes make the soft white down on his breast, the countless busy minutes that rest not while they are closely folded under the wings of Time to be borne away into the trackless past. The days and weeks and years gather about him; they form his plumage, and each and every one is eager for flight.

What are you giving into Time's keeping to bear away forever? What you give will never return. Let it be something sweet, and beautiful, that shall be put away for safe keeping, under the wings of the Eternal Years.

"The Bird of Time has but a little way to flutter and, the Bird is on the wing." How slowly and how silently doth time float on his starry journey! Still he goes and goes, and goes, and doth not pass away. He rises with the golden morning, calmly, and with the moon at night. Methinks I see him stretching wide abroad his mighty wings, floating forever over the crowds of men, like a high vulture with its prey beneath. Lo! I am here, and time seems passing on; tomorrow I shall be a breathless thing—yet he will be here; and the blue hours will laugh as gaily on the busy world as though I were alive to welcome them."

"PROCTOR."

Dear heart, thou art not forsaken. Solitude and Peace are round about thee, and God is over all. Like a pure white dove with folded wing, His sweet messenger—"Peace"—is waiting near thee. Thou hearest a Voice speaking tenderly to thy soul. It is the whisper of the Eternal, bidding thee cast all thy cares upon Him. Through the long Winter days may His Peace abide with thee and thine.

A PRAYER

"The God of Time and Eternity." O Thou God of Time and of Eternity. Thou hast been our Dwelling Place in all generations, before the mountains were brought forth, or even Thou hadst formed the earth and world, even from everlasting to everlasting Thou art the only true Resting Place for the human spirit. In Thee alone can we find rest and peace. Teach us to number our days that we may come to be wise, for our hearts learn wisdom when Thou, God, teaches us and we must always be at school, we learning and Thou teaching.

Satisfy us, and that soon in and with Thy mercy, that our souls may find how good it is to serve Thee; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days whether few or many. Yes! make us glad, after the sorrows of the past, the defeats we have encountered. Let these be the measure of our new gladness.

Let the Day of Life improve as it lengthens. Let the sunset be beautiful and calm. Let the gloom of the past be only the background out of which light shall shine on to the end.

Let Thy work and Thy glory appear unto Thy servants and their children. Let our work be not only ours but Thy work, and may our children partake of Thy work, and see Thy glory.

And let the Beauty of the Lord our God, be upon us. And what is Thy Beauty? Is it not Holiness. Let that beauty be upon us, and upon our children and the praise shall be given to Thee, Father, Son and Spirit, now and ever, Amen.

—C. D. C.

ATTENTION, BOYS

Mrs. C. S. Shuford has some fine ground for growing celery.

Mrs. Shuford is interested in developing and educating boys as well as in soul development.

Mrs. Shuford will donate the use of this land next year to any boy who will raise celery on it and use the proceeds towards an education.

the location of water powers, or who are interested in municipal water supplies, should feel free to call upon Western North Carolina, Inc.

Very truly yours,
