WATCH NIGHT PARTY

On New Year's eve Mrs. Plummer's Sunday School class of the Methodist church entertained at the spacious home of Mrs. Plummer in honor of the young ladies and young men who had returned from school for the holidays. Various amusing games and interesting contests were engaged in, followed by delightful refreshments. The young people thoroughly enjoyed themselves until twelve-thirty, remaining to witness the departure of the old year and to welcome the New Year.

MRS. LYON ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Lyon entertained on Monday afternoon with a bridge party. There were two tables playing, and at the close of the game a delightful collation was served. The deal was won by Mrs. D. G. Ward and the consolation was awarded Mrs. Walter Plummer. The presence were Mr. Ralph Fisher, Mrs. Walter Dickworth, Mrs. Marlon Younger, Mrs. J. Shipman, Mrs. D. G. Ward, Mrs. J. A. Gresh, Mrs. W. H. Gresh and Mrs. M. Cantrell.

FOURTEENTH CLUB

The Fourteenth Club was entertained on Tuesday night by Mrs. E. H. Welch.

After the regular meeting of the club had been disposed of the members, entertainment was given in the hall of the occasion.

The table for the day was set for the party of these families. The table was set in the hall, and the room was decorated with the festive touches of the season. The party was very enjoyable and the evening was spent in the most pleasant manner.

Refreshments were served by the club members and the party was adjourned at midnight.

SHOWER FOR MRS. HAROLD NORWOOD

Mrs. J. H. Welch gave a delightful shower for Mrs. Harold Norwood on Tuesday afternoon at her home. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Norwood's departure for the Norfolk, Virginia, where she will reside for some time.

was the recipient of a generous "Crystal Shower." The dining table was decorated with a canopy of white ribbon under which stood a miniature bride presiding over a wedding cake, and flanked by blooming plants of white hyacinths and Chinese lillies alternating with lighted candles in silver candlesticks. The little bride stood guard over the artistically arranged packages which were strewn about the table and contained all the beautiful and useful articles in cut or engraved glass which go to the setting of a well-appointed table, besides several pretty vases and some novelties.

The "shower" was a most successful surprise to Brevard's latest bride; and the elegant testimony to the welcome extended to both Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norwood by the many friends of the former. After the opening of the packages and the cutting of the cake by the guest of honor, delicious refreshments were served.
