Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE TROLLEY RIDE

Stephen's father was a very rich man. Oh, he was a most enormously rich man.

Stephen lived the life of a very rich little boy. His father had several automobiles and when Stephen wanted to go anywhere it was simply a question of which automobile would be used and whether the chauffeur named Tucker would take him or whether the chauffeur named Simpson would drive the car.

He went to the seashore for two months of the year and to the country for another two months, and south for two of the winter months and to a Northern city for another two months. The rest of the year he was taken traveling or to the family home in a small place which was just like a village during the week but which became a rich little city for the weekend.

Stephen had often thought it would be nice to be in this place during the week. He had been told of the good time the children had.

He had been told, too, of the school and of the fun they had in the different school teams.

But the family never stayed anywhere long enough for him to get to know the boys and girls in the place. Of course they had houses in these different places but not one of them seemed just exactly like home.

There wasn't much fun in buying anything because there was always so much money that everything seemed too easy to get.

There wasn't much fun when he got anything as he had never had to earn little sums of money or save toward anything.

And he always had a governess with him. He couldn't go to school except in an automobile and he had to have the governess there, too.

She took him to school and came for him, and yet he was not a little boy.

Boys far younger than he was went to school by themselves.

More than that—they looked after sisters and brothers younger than they were.

It was just before they went South, when Stephen was spending a little time in the city home, that he had a plan.

It was a beautiful plan and he worked it all out very, very carefully. Once during recess he had talked to a boy across the fence from the school yard.

They were building in that lot, next to the school yard, and a number of children had come there to play while the workmen were having their lunch.

Stephen had heard from the boy of the things that he did and Stephen

He Had Talked to a Boy Across the Fence.

in turn had told some things of the way he lived.

It was after this talk that Stephen had made his plans.

One day, just as school was letting out, he rushed into the school yard, and it was not until he had disappeared that anyone noticed he had gone.

He had hurried! He had climbed the fence and had lowered himself into the vacant lot below.

Then he had rushed up the street and around the corner. There he had taken a trolley.

As he got on the trolley he pulled a dollar bill from his pocket.

"How much is it?" he asked.

"Five cents," the conductor answered, and gave Stephen a great deal of change.

Then Stephen sat down in the trolley. There were many other passengers, too. There were quite a number of children, older ones alone and younger ones with their mothers or with older brothers and sisters.

The car stopped every time anyone wanted to get off or on at the corners, and every one seemed to have a say in the matter.

It was thrilling. He sat right opposite other people—wonderful people he had never seen before!

He got off at the street nearest his home. He met his mother who was greatly upset.

What had he been doing? And didn't he know he had worried them, when the chauffeur and the governess had found him gone when they reached his school?

Yes, he probably had been quite bad. And he was never allowed money after this—everything was paid out for him so he would not have the change to ride in trolley cars, but he had had that ride and he was happy.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Evening School, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

Lesson for January 18 THE LAST SUPPER

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:7-30. GOLDEN TEXT—"This is My body which is given for you; this do in remembrance of Me."—Luke 22:19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Lord's Supper. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Meaning of the Communion Service. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Communion With Jesus Christ.

I. The Passover Prepared (vv. 7-13.)

1. The Disciples' Inquiry (vv. 7-9). They inquired of Jesus as to where they should prepare for the Passover. They no doubt were anxious to be of service to Him.

2. The Master's Strange Directions (vv. 10-12). They were to go into the city where they would meet a man bearing a pitcher of water. He assured them that they would then be shown a large upper room furnished.

3. The Obedience of the Disciples (v. 13). They did not stop to question the sanity of the command but like true disciples obeyed. Jesus, because He is omniscient, knew just how the matter would turn out.

II. The Passover Eaten (vv. 14-18.)

1. By Whom (v. 14)? Those who sat down to this last Passover feast were the Master and the Twelve Apostles.

2. His Words Unto Them (vv. 15-18).

(1) "I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." How anxious He was to show them the meaning of the passion through which He was to go; also He craved their human sympathy as He passed through this trying ordeal.

(2) "I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God." His death was the antitypical fulfillment of the passover meal. He looked forward to that time when the process of redemption would have been completed and a perfect union between the disciples and the Lord would be consummated.

(3) "Take this cup and divide it among yourselves." The disciples were now partaking of that symbol of His blood. He assured them that He would not again drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God should come. Drinking anew in the kingdom does not mean that in heaven this service will be renewed, but that this was symbolic of the heavenly reality.

III. The Feast of the New Covenant Instituted (vv. 19-20.)

This took place at the close of the paschal supper.

1. The Bread, a Symbol of Christ's Body (v. 19). Christ giving of Himself to them. In order to get benefit from physical bread it is necessary to receive it. In order to get benefit from Christ one must receive Him.

2. The Cup, a Symbol of Christ's Blood (v. 20). This was symbolic of the atonement which was made by the shedding of His blood on the cross. He said: "This cup is the new testament in My blood which was shed for you," indicating that each one must personally accept the atonement made by the shedding of His blood.

IV. The Wicked Behaviour at the Feast (vv. 21-27.)

1. The Treachery of Judas (vv. 21-23).

(1) The time of its manifestation (v. 21). It was while they were eating the last passover that Jesus made the announcement of the betrayal. Perhaps the reason why this feast was disturbed by such an announcement was that Judas might be given an opportunity at this last moment to repent.

(2) The betrayal was by the determinate counsel of God (v. 22—cf. Acts 2:23). Nothing takes place by chance. Even the evil, sinful acts of men come within the permissive providence of God, but this does not lessen the guilt, for Jesus says: "Woe unto the man by whom He is betrayed."

(3) Sorrowful question (v. 23). The disciples did not seem to suspect one another, but made the question a personal one.

2. Selfish Ambition of the Disciples (vv. 24-27). In this tragic hour the disciples were so concerned with the thought of honorable position that they were striving among themselves as to who should be greatest.

V. The Apostles' Place in the Kingdom (vv. 28-30.)

He assures them that those who continue with Him in His trials shall be appointed unto a place in the kingdom which will entitle them to eat and drink at His table and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Attitudes

The "Be-attitudes" and the "Do-attitudes" are in the fifth chapter of Matthew.—Echoes.

Many Souls Lost

Many souls have been lost by saying "tomorrow" instead of "today."—Echoes.

Seeing Beacon Lights

As a Christian grows old, he should be able to see the beacon lights while yet far at sea.—American Evangelist.

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

Feel Stiff and Achy After Every Cold? Do You Have Constant Backache? Feel Old and Lame and Suffer Sharp, Rheumatic Pains? Then Look to Your Kidneys!

DOES every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you worn-out and utterly miserable? Do you feel old and lame, stiff and rheumatic? Does your back ache with a dull, unceasing throb, until it seems you just can't stand it any longer?

It's little wonder, then, that every cold leaves you with torturing backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and annoying bladder irregularities.

Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills are mighty hard on the kidneys. They fill the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys must filter off. The kidneys weaken under this rush of new work; become congested and inflamed.

Don't delay! Get a box of Doan's Pills. Give your weakened kidneys the help they need. Assist them, also, by drinking plenty of water freely, eating lightly and getting plenty of fresh air and rest. Doan's Pills have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Good Folks:

MRS. J. L. GLASBY, N. Main St., Belton, S. C., says: "I had kidney trouble and my back ached and it was all I could do to go about my housework. When I stood at the ironing board I was troubled with sharp pains between my shoulders and I had terrible headaches. I was nervous, too, and my kidneys acted often. After using Doan's Pills, every pain and ache disappeared and my kidneys acted regularly."

J. F. BROWN, machinist, Bennettsville, S. C., says: "My kidneys were out of fix and the secretions burned in passage and were dark and contained sediment. My back hurt severely and was sore. It often felt as though some one had struck me across my kidneys, especially if I stooped. I read about Doan's Pills and began to use them. It wasn't long before I was a well man again."

Made House Sacred

In Arabia, as in many other countries, salt is the symbol of hospitality, and among the Arabs hospitality is almost a sacred thing. They tell of a thief who broke into a house one night and, in looting the place, came upon a small gold box. He opened it and inside it found another box, also of gold. That in turn held a third box, which was partly filled with a fine white powder. The thief tasted the powder and found that it was salt. Immediately he restored to their places all the valuables that he had gathered to carry off. He could not rob a house in which he had "eaten salt."—Youth's Companion.

Childhood's Privilege

Childhood has no forebodings, but then, it is soothed by no memories of outlived sorrow.—George Eliot.

Never Be Without a Bottle

of Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh. Has powerful antiseptic qualities; unexcelled for Cuts, Burns, Wounds and Sores. 35c.—Adv.

Exportation of Perfumes

Perfumery and other toilet preparations made in this country and shipped abroad had a value of more than $1,500,000 in the last year.

Great Power Possibility

Colorado has a river on which 19 power dams, yielding 28,000 horsepower or 30 per cent of each year, could be constructed.
