

SOCIETY NEWS

MRS. SMATHERS ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST

The following social item was clipped from The Asheville Citizen: Mrs. Paul Smathers entertained on Friday afternoon with a bridge party of four tables given at her home in West Asheville in honor of Mrs. Herbert Stowers of Brevard, who has been her house guest for several days. Mrs. James Thompson won the prize for high score and Mrs. J. H. Payne made low score. Among the guests were Mesdames Stowers, Thompson, Payne, Charles Fortune, T. S. Smathers, W. O. Barnard, Fred Walser, George Beier, Jr., Harry Berry, W. O. Stansberry, W. B. Church, J. Johnston, John Bunn, William LaMee, Carol Henry and Charles Rhinhardt.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENJOYS SOCIAL GATHERING

The Epworth League of the Methodist church met in the basement room of the church Thursday evening for a social time. The evening was most enjoyably spent in various games and contests. The three hostesses of the evening were Miss Marion Young Mrs. Rush Whitmire, and Mrs. Lawrence Holt, who served tempting refreshments during the course of the evening. About thirty young people were present, and nine new members were added to the League. The new members are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Rush Whitmire, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loftis, Mr. Mac Johnson, A. J. Loftis, Tom Whitmire, Mr. A. F. Mitchell, Mr. Lawrence Holt. The Epworth League is growing very popular with the young people, and is rapidly proving itself a valuable department of the church.

JEAN ENGLISH CELEBRATES TENTH BIRTHDAY

Little Jean English entertained on the afternoon of January 25th a number of school friends at the beautiful suburban home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. English. This was to celebrate Jean's tenth birthday anniversary. About twenty-five children were present, and they spent the afternoon playing games on the spacious lawn and enjoying themselves as only children can. During the afternoon, the children were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served.

METHODIST MEN'S BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINS

The Men's Bible Class met in the social room last Friday evening for a business and social hour. The business session was in charge of Dr. J. F. Zachary. The class was organized with the following officers elected: Mr. T. W. Whitmire, president; Mr. Mason, vice-president; Mr. Fred Shurford, sec-treas. It was decided to have a class social once each month. The members of the Brevard Band were present as invited guests. During the evening they entertained their hosts with several well-rendered selections. The men proved themselves quite adept in the art of serving and consuming their refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. About fifty men were present to enjoy this delightful social evening. On Sunday morning following this social event, fifty-two men were present, which is the high-water mark reached by this class so far, thus attesting to the growing popularity of the Men's Bible Class.

D. A. R. MEETING

Mrs. Laura Miller was hostess Monday afternoon to the Waightstill Avery Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. During the business session, several letters were read, one of which was relative to the State D. A. R. meeting to be held in Asheville, March 10-13. Several members announced their intention of attending this conference. The Chapter went on record as endorsing the proposed Woman's Building project and as pledging their proportionate amount for same. It was decided to give $5.00 toward the Student Loan Fund, which fund assists worthy girls in obtaining an education in Greensboro College. The Chapter voted to have a George Washington Tea on February 21st, for the purpose of replenishing the treasury. The hour and place of this tea will be announced later. The business session was followed by a pleasant social hour, during which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

MARY AIKEN CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Little Mary Aiken celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday afternoon with a lovely party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aiken on Caldwell street. The dining room was beautifully decorated in red flowers and potted ferns. The color scheme of red and green was also carried out in the dainty refreshments, consisting of colored Jello with whipped cream and cherries, cakes and candies. About twenty-five children were present to engage in the games and fun such as little tots only enjoy.

BREVARD WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Brevard Wednesday Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. S. M. Macfarlane, January 28th, six o'clock. Mrs. Macfarlane was present. After the routine business, the current events with which the different members responded at roll call, were heard with much interest. A suggestion made by Mrs. Everett, that the Club give a card party to raise funds for the treasury, met with approval and motion was made and carried that the president appoint committees at once, to plan and carry through to completion the proposed bridge party. Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Breeze were selected as executive committee for the proposed entertainment. Mrs. Silversteen, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Erwin for the refreshments, Mrs. Sledge, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. McMinn for the advertising. Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Carrier Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Perkins, for the decorating committee. The Woman's Club Building was next discussed at length, and the Club voted to pledge two hundred dollars or more if possible, as an initial payment towards this most worthy cause. The resignation of Mrs. Hay was accepted with regret. Mrs. Hay always took her part in the club cheerfully and efficiently, and was a general favorite with all. She will be missed very much, not only by her fellow club members, but by the whole town. The program in charge of Mrs. R. W. Everett was next in order, and proved most excellent in every detail, and of absorbing interest. Mrs. Everett was assisted by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Shipman. After a short social session, the Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Perkins on February eleventh.

REV. AND MRS. WALLACE HARTSELL ENTERTAIN

Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Hartsell delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the Pastorium in honor of the Missionary Society ladies and their husbands. The evening was most enjoyably spent in social conversation and in listening to excellently rendered musical selections by three of Brevard's talented musicians—Messrs. Carter, Frank, Martin, and Alvin Moore. Quite a large number of the church members were present to enjoy the kind hospitality of Rev. and Mrs. Hartsell.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Mrs. C. C. Hodges was the delightful hostess to the Fortnightly Club Tuesday afternoon at the Aethelwold. Several matters of importance were discussed and passed upon during the business session. The chief topic for discussion was the proposed Woman's Building, for which the Club unanimously voted to pledge its share. Following the business session, the program was in charge of the three leaders for the day—Mrs. E. R. Welch, Mrs. J. F. Zachary and Miss Alma Trowbridge. The birds under discussion were the bluebird, kingfisher, and hawk. The interest of each discussion was added to by passing around pictures of the different birds, and also by sounding on the piano the corresponding musical note of each of the three birds mentioned. During the social hour, several musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Roland Whitmire, followed by Victrola records. The hostess was assisted in serving the delicious salad course by Mesdames Lawrence Holt, Rush Whitmire and Roland Whitmire. The guests present were: Mrs. T. W. Whitmire, Mrs. Mamie Verdery, Mrs. Roland Whitmire, Mrs. Lawrence Holt, and Mrs. Rush Whitmire.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

The Women's Missionary Society of the Brevard Baptist Church met at the Pastorium Tuesday afternoon, at 3:30. A very interesting, as well as instructive program was given. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Lewis Hamlin, president; Mrs. D. F. Moore, vice-president; and Mrs. A. E. Hamton treasurer. Twenty-five members were present at the meeting.

ARRIVALS AT AETELWOLD

W. E. Britt and wife, Asheville; L. A. Hawkins, Atlanta, Ga.; G. I. Berry, Atlanta, Ga.; W. P. Frazier, Brevard; G. M. Smith, Asheville; M. Clark, Asheville; J. E. Nuber, Asheville; J. E. Doherty, Asheville; H. C. Mills, Asheville; W. M. Hutcherson, Tyron, N. C.; C. N. James, Mars Hill, N. C.; V. C. Grant, Hendersonville; W. W. Bruin, Hendersonville; J. P. Tally, Granite Falls; Philip Wiggins, Greenville, S. C.; James A. Coe, Travelers Rest, S. C.

PERSONALS

Colonel and Mrs. C. C. Hodges and Mrs. Simmons spent Friday in Hendersonville. Mrs. Thompson, of Asheville, was the week-end guest of Mrs. H. C. Ranson. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitmire, Mr. Roland Whitmire, and Lawrence Holt, Jr., motored to Asheville Friday for the day. Mr. J. E. Waters and Mr. Kay King motored to Pickens, Greenville and Liberty, S. C., last week on a business trip. The Misses Collins, of the High School faculty, spent Saturday in Asheville. Excavation work has begun for the Joe Tinsley office building to be erected on the lot adjoining the new bank building. Rev. Wallace Hartsell motored to Asheville Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Britt, of Asheville, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitmire, at the Aethelwold. Mrs. J. S. Silversteen, Mrs. C. P. White, John White and James Waters were Asheville visitors Saturday. Mr. W. C. Austin has been on the sick list the past few days, but is able to be out again. Miss Polly Hart has been ill for several days at her home on Main street. Mr. Nathan Townsend has returned to Brevard after spending several weeks in Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mr. Henry Green, Miss Jewel Orr, of Asheville, spent Sunday in Brevard with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holt. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Morris spent Sunday in Hendersonville. Miss Maude Wood, of Spartanburg, has returned home after spending the week-end with Miss Pearl Enloe. Mrs. H. E. Stowers and small daughter, Sarah, have returned to their home in Brevard after spending several days in Asheville with Mrs. Paul Smathers. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Miss Hartshorn, of Asheville, spent Sunday in Brevard. Mrs. Ella Enloe and family have returned from Barborton, Ohio, and are now located on Caldwell street. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellington, of Pittsburg, Pa., are spending some time with Mrs. E. H. Webb at her home on North Caldwell street. Mrs. Paul Smathers, of Asheville, will spend several days this week with relatives in Brevard. Mrs. Louis Rigden, of Gastonia, N. C., was visiting friends in town Sunday. Mrs. Rigden will be remembered as Miss Mamie Galloway of Brevard. Mrs. Homer Hunter spent the week-end in Asheville. Miss Ruby Enloe is expected home soon. She is visiting Mrs. W. O. Robins, of Baltimore, Md. The ground hog evidently saw his shadow last Monday, consequently, according to tradition, six weeks of bad weather may be expected. Messrs. McManus and Holt, engineers, of Charleston, S. C., are spending some time in Brevard at the home of Mrs. E. H. Webb. Many Brevard people motored to Asheville Monday night and availed themselves of the unusual opportunity of hearing Frieda Hempel. Mr. Arthur Harrell returned Monday to his duties in Hendersonville, after being confined in Brevard the past week on account of illness. The U. D. C. will meet Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the library.

PISGAH BANK

We have just closed our third year of business and at this time desire to express our appreciation of the interest Brevard and Transylvania County has taken in our growth.

Our Motto is Service in all that the word service means. That friendly, courteous service that gives the feeling of co-operation and friendship that is helpful. Our aim is to see Brevard and Transylvania County grow as their natural resources make it possible for them to grow; with this growth we expect to see prosperity among all our citizens, but the prosperity will come to individual citizens in proportion to their ability to grasp the opportunity and in order that you may be able to grasp the opportunities that lay before you, we urge that you save your money in a systematic way.

Saving is simply a business proposition in which all may engage.

If you are able to make money, you owe it to yourself to save a portion of your earnings and accumulate sufficient funds that will enable you to invest in a way that will bring you wealth.

We are interested in seeing YOU, succeed in a financial way. It makes no difference who you are, or where you live, we are interested in seeing you prosper and we will help you in any way consistent with good banking.

Call and talk matters over with our officers, they will gladly serve you in any possible way, give you any advice as to business deals or other matters of personal interest to you.

Two kinds of Interest: 4 per cent and Personal

PISGAH BANK

BREVARD, N. C.