MR. AND MRS. F. E. GALLOWAY ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Galloway delightfully entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Galloway with a Valentine party Friday evening, Feb. 13. The rooms were beautifully decorated. Delicious punch was served during the early part of the evening. Mrs. W. T. Bosse presiding at the punch bowl.

MRS. OSBORNE HONORED

Mrs. Jas. K. Mills entertained on Saturday in honor of her mother, Mrs. W. K. Osborne, with a surprise birthday dinner. The occasion being her eightieth birthday anniversary. A large cake, which was an apple, honey, pound cake, beautifully iced in white and having in the center a large "28" formed in royal icing and effective color decorations. After a meal, music and refreshments of coffee, the "bliss" was enjoyed.

MRS. C. L. LONG HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Bob Long proved herself a charming little hostess Sunday afternoon, when she celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Long, on Main street. The children and a merry time in a contest, which consisted in blind-folding each child in turn, the winning contestant being the one who was able to identify a paper match on the proper place on a miniature toy tree. Several games, such as cards, were enjoyed, helped to pass the afternoon most pleasantly.

DINNER PARTY AT THE BRYANT

Miss Earlene Palm (next) was hostess for a dinner party given at The Bryant, Friday evening in honor of Miss Hall, a member of Fassifera faculty. Following an elaborate dinner, served by the Misses Shipman, the guests enjoyed a short social time in the Bryant parlors. The evening's enjoyment was concluded by a moving picture party at the Auditorium.

MRS. O. H. ORR ENTERTAINS INSTITUTE FACULTY

Mrs. O. H. Orr was hostess Tuesday evening at her home on Caldwell street to the ladies of Brevard Institute faculty. A very pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present. During the evening the hostess served a delightful repast of fruit with whipped cream, cake and coffee.

BREVARD WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. J. S. Silver-teen delightfully entertained the Wednesday Club at her home, on the afternoon of February 24th.

Mrs. Lynch was unanimously elected a member of the Club. Each member responded at roll call with an interesting current event.

Mrs. D. G. Ward had charge of the entire program. She presented the subject of Bolivia in a most interesting manner, telling of Sucre and Lapaza, the sunken city, and of many strange and amusing customs among the Indians.

Most delectable refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. T. H. Shipman, March 11th.

M. G. F. IS ENTERTAINED

Misses Lona Walker and Annette Patton entertained the M. G. F. Sunday School Class on Saturday evening at Norwood House. About twenty-five members were present and an interesting patriotic contest was enjoyed by all. A delicious ice course was served.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES ENTERTAIN MISSIONARY

Miss Mercer, a returned missionary from Africa, delivered a most interesting and helpful talk about customs, life, and missionary work among the African people, at the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon. Representatives from the various churches were present to hear this enthusiastic missionary speaker.

Following the lecture, those present enjoyed a very pleasant social time, during which the ladies of the Presbyterian church, in a most hospitable and gracious manner, served tea and wafers.

ARTHUR ORR HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Arthur Orr celebrated his twelfth birthday by entertaining quite a number of his school friends Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Orr, on Whitmore street.

The children enjoyed the afternoon with fun and merriment in various outdoor games.

During the afternoon the guests were invited into the dining room which was prettily decorated with suggestions suitable to the occasion of George Washington's birthday. The table was attractive with little red paper hangers, tied with red, white and blue ribbon, and with large birthday cake on which were twelve little white candles in dainty red candle holders. The children enjoyed heartily their refreshments consisting of hot chocolate with marshmallows and whipped cream, fancy little cakes, and candy hearts.

JOINT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Sarah Elizabeth and Master Marshall Teague jointly celebrated their birthday anniversary Monday afternoon at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kilpatrick, on Whitmore street. It was the occasion of Sarah Elizabeth's fifth birthday and Marshall's sixth.

The children enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent in outdoor games and fun. During the afternoon they were invited into the dining room, which was most attractively decorated, carrying out the pink and white color scheme. On the prettily decorated table were two large white birthday cakes, having five little pink lighted candles on one cake and six candles on the other. The children had great fun in trying to blow out the candles.

The cream, cake and candies were served. Thirty-five little tots were present to enjoy this happy occasion.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL GATHERING

Mrs. J. F. Zachary and Mrs. J. S. Nicholson were joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Zachary, on Caldwell street, to honor Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, of Asheville.

A most pleasant social time was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Hamlin delighted those present with several vocal selections, which were rendered in her usual pleasing and accomplished manner. Mrs. W. O. K. King, in her accustomed gifted way, accompanied Mrs. Hamlin.

Mrs. Hamlin, as honor guest, was presented by the hostesses, a beautiful hand embroidered handkerchief.

A dainty salad course was served by the hostesses. Present to enjoy this social event were: Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, Mrs. Ed Loftis, Mrs. R. Y. Neel, Mrs. Z. W. Nichols, Mrs. E. R. Welch, Mrs. H. A. Plummer, Mrs. M. M. King, Mrs. W. O. K. King, Mrs. J. E. Waters, Mrs. F. A. Starrette, and Miss Alma Trowbridge.

BLANTON MITCHELL MAKES GOOD RECORD

While in attendance at the Michigan State Automobile School, Blanton Mitchell is making a splendid record for himself. During recent examinations held in that school, Blanton passed all his tests with very creditable marks. He averaged 100 on all but one subject and made a mark of 80 on that one. Blanton expects to complete his course of study and return to Brevard in April.
