On account of the muddy roads, caused by the recent snow, Miss Ada Walker was unable to meet with her sewing class on last Friday. This was a disappointment to the class, as they are very much interested in their work and look forward to these club meetings. Under Miss Walker's able instructions, they have been doing excellent club work.

Agricultural Extension work is having a marked effect on the agriculture of North Carolina. Reports made by the county farm agents show co-operation with hundreds of farmers and statistics show that this co-operation is benefitting both the counties and the state as a whole.

"The codfish lays a million eggs,
While the helpful hen lays one.
But the codfish does not cackle
To tell what she has done,
And so we scorn the codfish coy.
But the helpful hen we prize—
Which indicates to thoughtful minds
It pays to advertise."

BLANTYRE BREEZES

Some of the children of this community are feeling lonesome, due to the fact that our school has closed. We feel that we were fortunate in having Rev. A. J. Manly as principal for the past two terms. He earnestly endeavors to instruct the boys and girls in spiritual and moral training as well as in books, and the days spent in his school should be among the most profitable of their lives.

Our Sunday School recently elected a new officers and teachers. We appreciate the efforts of our former superintendent, Mr. Vance Duncan. Mr. Duncan has been in poor health for some time.

Mr. J. T. Justus has recently purchased a new horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Oat Morgan visited Mr. and Mrs. John Reed Sunday evening.

Mrs. James Ore has been on the sick list, but is better now. Mrs. Ore is with her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Justus.

Motorists were out in such large numbers Sunday evening as to make one think of bees on a spring day.

Winter must have been just around the corner, for he suddenly came back last week and spent two or three days.

Mrs. J. F. Justus visited Mrs. Reed last Monday evening.

Five Gals. Paint Free

A large paint concern, in furtherance of an advertising and introductory campaign now in progress, offers to give, free of charge, five gallons of its best house paint, any color, on one property owner at each postoffice or on each rural route in this County. This concern wants its paint on a house in each locality this season which is the purpose of this remarkable offer. It also wants a local salesman in each County. Persons interested are requested to write the Kero Paint Company, Louisville, Kentucky.
