

CEDAR MOUNTAIN NEWS

Mr. B. F. Robinson has just completed a chicken house for 150 hens. Looks like he is going into the poultry business.

The East Fork suggestion on butternut is fine, but here is a good one too: Our great-grandmother used to make brown gravy out of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Fortner of Greenville, S. C., visited Mrs. Fortner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burns the past week-end.

Miss Jennie Bishop of Greenville, was a visitor here last Sunday.

Mrs. Elbert Bishop was called to Hendersonville Tuesday on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. Marckum.

Mr. Paul R. Jones has bought a new Dodge truck.

Mrs. George Bishop and daughter, Dean, spent the week-end visiting relatives in Greenville, S. C.

Miss Corrie Jones visited her sister, Mrs. Tom Garren of Dacusville, S. C., on last Sunday.

Mr. E. A. Heath made a business trip to Brevard last Monday.

Mr. Roudy Hooker, who had the misfortune of breaking his leg in January, is able to be out again.

Mr. Joe McCrary, who is operating a tractor sawmill here, has closed down and is using his tractor to plow with. He expects to make a fine crop this year.

Mr. Boyce Bishop motored to Greenville Saturday.

Mr. N. Miller of Greenville, is a visitor in this community.

Mr. Stone, of Greenville, has begun work here. He has made a fine road by Clear Creek and is building some cottages for summer visitors.

Mr. S. Burns made a trip to Greenville last Saturday.

Mr. P. T. Watson made a business trip to Brevard last Tuesday.

The electric light plant which is going up here, will soon be finished and we will have good lights.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Heath of Asheville visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heath last Sunday.

Mr. Perry Taylor is a visitor in this section.

Mr. Geo. Bishop and Gus Pearson motored to Brevard last Tuesday.

Mrs. Dorse Allison and Miss Rosa Heath motored to Brevard last Saturday.

Mr. U. G. George was a visitor in this community last Sunday-week.

Mr. E. A. Heath and son, Walter, are very busy building cottages for summer visitors.

Miss Allie Burns, who has been staying with her sister on East Fork, is spending a few days at home.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Norman is recovering from a serious attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Bevo Taylor were visitors here last week.

EAST FORK NEWS

The five-weeks old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clayton of Rosman, died at their home last Thursday. The burial took place the following day at the East Fork Baptist cemetery, funeral services conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Mr. Capps.

Mr. Kyle Whitmire of Duncan, S. C., spent the week-end at the home of his father, Mr. H. E. Whitmire. Carey Whitmire is improving in health at the present, after a prolonged illness.

Mr. Elmer Gillespie is at home from Asheville. He is just recovering from an attack of flu.

Mr. Clyde Jones lost a cow last week, which had been sick only a short time before she died.

Mr. Fred, road overseer, was on duty last week. He did some work-Rosman road.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nova are now living on Depot street, Brevard.

Mr. W. C. Gravely is experimenting this year on spraying his fruit trees and grape vines.

I hope no one gets it in their head that we folks on East Fork feed our chickens on butter milk alone; of course we feed corn, too.

Mr. Joe Wilde must have a hustling flock of hens—but the correspondent from his neighborhood didn't say for sure that Mr. Wilde gathered in his eggs every day. We'd be glad to know though, that he does.

The folks on East Fork had no reason whatever to doubt Mr. Kinzey's statement that he was looking for or hunting beef cattle. We think he knows more about fox hunting than to ride along the public road to hunt for foxes, and whoever heard of a man going coon or possum hunting on a bright sunny day—second, open daylight?
