SOCIETY NEWS

"AT HOME" AT THE INSTITUTE

The lady teachers of Brevard Institute delightfully entertained their friends Friday afternoon from four to six o'clock in the Institute reception room.

During the afternoon, readings given by Misses Plank, Berkley and Hendricks, of the Institute faculty, were greatly enjoyed.

The three hostesses, Misses Miller, Koth and Plank, served delicious tea and wafers.

Quite a large number of the ladies of the town were present to enjoy this pleasant social gathering.

DELICIOUS SOCIAL GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hunt entertained with a small social gathering at their home on Thursday evening.

The entertainment for the evening consisted in the rendition of numerous selections by the Transylvania Trio, together with several piano solos by Mr. Alvin Moore. This trio is indeed a credit to Brevard, and those present considered it an unusual privilege to listen to such accomplished musicians.

During the evening, the hostesses served punch, cake and candies.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, met Thursday afternoon in the ladies' parlor.

Among other matters of business to be transacted was the election of delegates to the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Missionary Conference, which will be held in Charlotte, April 14-17. Mrs. F. A. Sarrotte was elected delegate, and Mrs. H. A. Plummer alternate.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. H. A. Plummer, assisted by Mrs. Stanford, as devotional leader, and Mrs. J. F. Zachary and Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer giving most interesting resumes of leaflets regarding missionary work in foreign fields.

The president appointed Mrs. D. L. English and Mrs. Eugene Allison as members of the program committee for the succeeding two meetings.

Following the business session, a short social time was enjoyed by the ladies.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENJOYS SOCIAL

The losing membership team of the Epworth League entertained the winners Friday evening with a most enjoyable social gathering at the Methodist church.

A cross word puzzle contest, the words of which were originated by Mrs. Lawrence Holt, and made into puzzle form by Mr. Jackson, of Florida, afforded much interest and amusement. The prize for the correct solution was awarded Miss Ruth Waters. Numerous other contests and games were greatly enjoyed. The main feature of the evening was a game, "Happyville and Glad Town," which was quite novel and created great fun and merriment.

During the evening, members of the entertainment committee served punch and cake, 56 young people were present to enjoy this delightful evening.

MT. MORIAH B. Y. P. U. TO ENTERTAIN

The members of the Mt. Moriah B. Y. P. U. of the Cherryfield Baptist church, will entertain with a social gathering at the home of Miss Annie Gillespie Friday evening, March 13, at 7:30 o'clock.

The social committee composed of Jessie Whitmire, Helen Snelson, Fudge McCall, and Briscoe Whitmire, extend a cordial invitation to all members and any who are interested in B. Y. P. U., work to be present and enjoy a pleasant social evening with the young people.
