SOCIETY NEWS

WEDNESDAY CLUB

The Wednesday Club met with Mrs. C. E. Lowe, March 25th. Thirteen members were present. After routine business, two committees were appointed, with Mrs. O. L. Erwin as chairman of one committee, and Mrs. J. S. Silversteen chairman of the other. The program committee for next year made their report and outlined a course of study prepared by the University Extension at Chapel Hill. The subject for this course of study will be decided later. Mrs. W. E. Bruce had charge of the current events, in the absence of Mrs. D. G. Ward. The program was in charge of Mrs. Lynch, most ably assisted by Mrs. J. S. Silversteen. The subject, Child, was presented in a most entertaining and instructive manner, dwelling on the chief characteristics of the people, the demerits and the many flaws which are considered the most beautiful in the world. After a pleasant social hour, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. W. Everett, April 8th.

CONNESSEE NOTES

Your correspondent saw a sight for sore eyes Saturday, when most folks had "gone to town." The newly-weds of the community were busy planting Irish potatoes in blissful disregard of the lure of the week-end in town. That's the stuff; camps may come, and camps may go; Transylvania may become the playground of the universe, "and a' that," but the man with the hoe who helps things grow, is the best asset of any country after all. Connessee's literary stick has had another notch cut in it. The Asheville Citizen publishes Rob Kimzey's name on the Honor Roll of Davidson College with an average of 97 plus. He has himself, published an article in the Davidson Annual, and he is a captain in the R. O. T. C. there. Miss Margaret Morris, the President of the Senior Class at Winthrop College, made a flying visit to her father's camp this week. Miss Mary Verner spent the week-end with her parents on her way back to Chapel Hill, from a visit to the school maintained in East Tennessee by the Pi Beta Phi fraternity, to which she had been sent by the local chapter at the University. The Rev. Mr. Morris has been planting strawberries and apple trees on his place at a rate which bids fair to furnish fruit some day to a veritable summer city below Connessee Falls. Mr. Frank Zachary came over from Brevard on a visit to his home place Sunday. His little boy, Malvin, has made a fine recovery from his recent accident. Messrs. John and Joe Patton motored over from Davidson River Sunday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Kinzey. Our new road was so fine that Mr. Patton got it mixed up with the State Highway, and did not know what he was traveling on.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL "RALLY DAY" NEXT SUNDAY

The new membership campaign, launched by the Methodist Sunday School some months ago, will come to a close next Sunday. The goal set for an attendance of 300 present by April will in all probability be exceeded as an attendance of 280 has already been recorded. Interest and enthusiasm is running rampant, with each class endeavoring to excel their previous high water mark. The Men's Bible Class, of which Welch Galloway is teacher, is growing steadily, new members being enrolled each Sunday. The class is progressive and cooperative as is evidenced by the fact that the class subscribed for one membership in the Chamber of Commerce. They believe in a greater Brevard and will assist the Chamber of Commerce both collectively and individually. The efficient superintendent, J. F. Zachary, is on the job, not only on Sundays, but every day of the week, and has stated that his aim is to so conduct the Sunday School that its members will come—not only for duty's sake, but more so for the benefit and real pleasure derived from being at attendance regularly.

TOXAWAY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ray, who have been visiting relatives in Salisbury, returned home on Monday. Mrs. Elizabeth Reece of Brevard spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Ruffy. Miss Alma Hall of Pisgah Forest, was a visitor in Toxaway, Sunday. The Senior of Rosman High School presented the play, "The Path Across the Hill" at the school house on Friday night. The hour's entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience, and the sum of forty-two dollars was realized from the sale of tickets. Mrs. Wesley made a trip to Brevard on Saturday. Roy McCall and Dewey Owen left Tuesday for Mills River, where they expect to work until summer. Mr. Jack Fisher of Asheville was a visitor in Toxaway during the week-end. Howard and Jimmy Reese of Rosman, visited their aunt, Mrs. J. E. Ruffy, on Sunday. Mr. Spaulding McIntosh and family have moved to their home here after living at Rosman for several years. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Whitmire of Quebec were visitors in Toxaway Monday.

Mr. Booth Price has purchased a new Ford touring car, with which he expects to carry the mail more quickly than on horseback. The sixth grade pupils enjoyed a half holiday last Friday, because of regular attendance. They spent the afternoon picnicing in the woods. After playing numerous games, a delicious lunch was served, and each child reported that it had been a pleasant afternoon.

EAST FORK NEWS

Winter seems to have returned for a short visit. We hope it is only for a short visit, anyway. Folks didn't seem a bit ashamed to sit around a rousing good fire Saturday and Sunday. We hear so many different ideas on Mr. Galloway's new game law. Some folks say it has taken all the pleasure out of life, while others seem to think it the very thing. One man was heard to say the small animals and fish ought to be very thankful to Mr. Galloway. I would suggest that the fellows owning Pump guns, sell them and donate the proceeds toward buying a "loving cup" to present to one Representative. Seriously speaking, if that law should be strictly enforced, in a few years we would have lots of game and fish. We all have to admit that at present, both game and fish are scarce. Mr. Homer Gillespie of Greenville, was a visitor on East Fork last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley Head attended the singing convention at Cathey's Creek, Sunday. Miss Gertrude Ewbanks spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Jule Reynolds. Mr. Elmer Gillespie has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a clothing company. He spent the week-end with his family. He has recently purchased a new Ford car. There was a regular "drunken Brawl on East Fork Saturday night and Sunday. It might be that the Revenue Officers and the K. K. K. could find plenty to do right here if they are seeking a job. We appreciate the neighborly interest Connessee is taking toward us. We presume by "bait," they mean "red worms." Now, we have an abundance at home, no other use for them. Then, besides, we are not out of butter milk, thanks just the same. We want you to join the Methodist Sunday School. T. H. SHIPMAN RETURNS The many friends of Mr. T. H. Shipman are glad to see him again on the streets after a sojourn of several weeks in Florida. Mr. Shipman returns to his duties as president of the Brevard Banking Co., greatly benefitted by his stay in the Land of Sunshine, and it is hoped that he
