

IMPORTANT NEWS
THE WORLD OVER

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS OF THIS AND OTHER NATIONS FOR SEVEN DAYS GIVEN

THE NEWS OF THE SOUTH

What is Taking Place in The South land Will Be Found in Brief Paragraphs

Foreign—

Malcolm George Stirling Ryerson, 70, retired surgeon general and colonel in chief of the Canadian army medical corps, died at Toronto, Canada, tonight. He was founder and past president of the Canadian Red Cross.

When Harry Houdini's body was shown in the world, beginning to show his age, which is now 49 years. Adhular Kory, a war veteran and his mother, Val Kory, were killed when the plane crashed soon after the first landing of an airplane made in a military demonstration at Dayton, Ohio.

The flight of a winged man, a man who was accused of a murder in New York, was a failure. The flight was for the purpose of escaping from the hospital. The flight was a failure.

Charles Howard Frazier, 57, retired from the United States Army, was shot and killed by a French soldier in the city of Paris. The French soldier was shot and killed by the American soldier.

Major General of Montreal, Canada, died of a heart attack while on duty. The major general was in the city of Montreal.

Washington—

The officers of the American Navy, who are the officers of the Navy, are the officers of the Navy. The officers of the Navy are the officers of the Navy.

Charles E. Keating, founder of the Keating Corporation, died in New York. The Keating Corporation was a real estate company.

Rep. Ag. to report demands of Southern states that they be given further opportunity to bring their exhibits to New York. Richard H. Edwards, editor of the Manufacturers Record, said that plans already were being made to repeat the Southern exposition in the fall of 1926.

Deported to carry on for at least another year, the United Confederate Veterans in reunion at Dallas, Tex., tabled a plan to hold departmental conventions in the future, instead of the general reunion. The veterans expressed the sentiment that the holding of the reunion is just the time to want to disband and that the best way to commemorate the anniversary is to have "two are left."

The school of Arlington, smallest county in Virginia, will begin an indefinite term soon. The state board of education adopted a plan to run the public schools of Arlington on an all-year-round basis.

Let the church lead in the constructive and demonstrative sciences, in archeology, in history, in zoology, in criticism, in the field of social experiments, Bishop Hurace Dalaso, fraternal messenger from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, said in his prepared address before the general conference of the United Brethren, in session here.

The body of W. O. Walker, an engineer of Fulton, Ky., a passenger on the vessel Norman when the boat sank in the Mississippi river May 8, has been recovered near Pokka landing 36 miles below Memphis.

Nathan O. Freedman, assistant counsel for Gerald Chapman, will confer with Frederick H. Crockett of New York, Chapman's chief counsel, before formally asking for a reprieve for Chapman, who is under sentence of death on June 25 for the murder of a New Britain policeman.

After three hours of deliberation, a jury at Topeka, Kans., found former Governor Jonathan M. Davis not guilty of conspiring to solicit a bribe. Walter Grundy, a convict Hutchinson banker, in exchange for a pardon, four ballots were taken. The first it was understood, was 10 to 2 for acquittal, the second 10 to 2 for acquittal, the third 11 to 1 for acquittal, and the fourth ballot, not guilty.

The bodies of two more victims of the sinking of the steamer Norman in the Mississippi river which were recovered had been positively identified as those of Mrs. Lonnie Caldwell of Memphis and S. Waters Fox of Paducah, Ky. The bodies of eleven of the twenty-three persons drowned in the disaster have now been recovered.

A $50,000 diamond robbery on the eleventh floor of the Capitol building, the former Masonic temple, has been reported to the Chicago police by four victims.

Chief Justice Taft, who, as chief executive, suggested formation of the chamber of commerce of the United States, made his first public address in four years recently at the dedication of the organization's new headquarters building. Urging an informed and intelligent public opinion, he called upon the business men to take part in its development.

Sale of ethyl gasoline will be further discontinued until an extensive investigation of its effects is made by a committee of experts, as the result of a conference in Washington called to consider whether it is harmful.

Wesley Barry, freckle-faced kid star of the movies, is soon to retire from the films and enter Annapolis Naval academy.

An embargo imposed in 1896 preventing the granting of rights for the use of public lands along the Rio Grande river in New Mexico and Colorado for the storage and diversion of water has been lifted by Secretary Work.

Domestic—

Rum-runners, who have been unable to pass liquor through Atlanta's coast ports because of the government's control, have turned to the Gulf of Mexico and are attempting to land the contraband in this area. This was expressed at Mobile, Ala., when the arrival of the cutter Comanche.

Robert White's missing key witness for the state of Illinois in the trial of William D. Shepherd, Chicago said he had been given $25,000 and a burrow in Florida according to the story of a witness related when the grand jury convened to investigate White's disappearance.

Frank Beard, Prentiss county, Mississippi, who man who terrorized residents for several days by appearing in the nude at various places in the county and who submitted to capture only after officials convinced him they were unable, has been pronounced insane.

When the arrival of two cars bringing 11 new prisoners, the high water mark was reached at the Atlanta Ga. federal penitentiary when the count showed 2,119 inmates. This is the largest number ever held within the walls of the Atlanta institution at one time according to officials and because conditions are becoming more and more congested daily.

Charles E. Keating, founder of the Keating Corporation, died in New York. Keating was a real estate magnate and a member of the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America at Columbia. Keating died in his residence in New York.

Rep. Ag. to report demands of Southern states that they be given further opportunity to bring their exhibits to New York. Richard H. Edwards, editor of the Manufacturers Record, said that plans already were being made to repeat the Southern exposition in the fall of 1926.

Deported to carry on for at least another year, the United Confederate Veterans in reunion at Dallas, Tex., tabled a plan to hold departmental conventions in the future, instead of the general reunion. The veterans expressed the sentiment that the holding of the reunion is just the time to want to disband and that the best way to commemorate the anniversary is to have "two are left."

The school of Arlington, smallest county in Virginia, will begin an indefinite term soon. The state board of education adopted a plan to run the public schools of Arlington on an all-year-round basis.

Let the church lead in the constructive and demonstrative sciences, in archeology, in history, in zoology, in criticism, in the field of social experiments, Bishop Hurace Dalaso, fraternal messenger from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, said in his prepared address before the general conference of the United Brethren, in session here.

The body of W. O. Walker, an engineer of Fulton, Ky., a passenger on the vessel Norman when the boat sank in the Mississippi river May 8, has been recovered near Pokka landing 36 miles below Memphis.

Nathan O. Freedman, assistant counsel for Gerald Chapman, will confer with Frederick H. Crockett of New York, Chapman's chief counsel, before formally asking for a reprieve for Chapman, who is under sentence of death on June 25 for the murder of a New Britain policeman.

After three hours of deliberation, a jury at Topeka, Kans., found former Governor Jonathan M. Davis not guilty of conspiring to solicit a bribe. Walter Grundy, a convict Hutchinson banker, in exchange for a pardon, four ballots were taken. The first it was understood, was 10 to 2 for acquittal, the second 10 to 2 for acquittal, the third 11 to 1 for acquittal, and the fourth ballot, not guilty.

The bodies of two more victims of the sinking of the steamer Norman in the Mississippi river which were recovered had been positively identified as those of Mrs. Lonnie Caldwell of Memphis and S. Waters Fox of Paducah, Ky. The bodies of eleven of the twenty-three persons drowned in the disaster have now been recovered.

A $50,000 diamond robbery on the eleventh floor of the Capitol building, the former Masonic temple, has been reported to the Chicago police by four victims.

...the first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

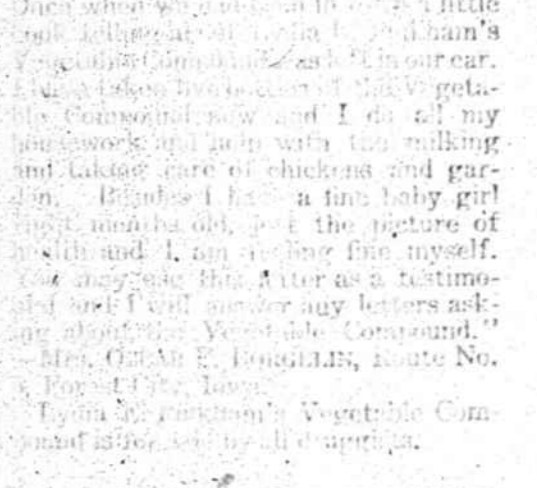

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

...My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

THIS WOMAN'S REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Entirely Due To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Forest City, Iowa. — "My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after when I born over and raised myself and when I could almost scratch with my hands in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my home and get into the hospital. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since. I have been in the hospital ever since.

Advertisement for Yaseline. The ad includes the brand name 'Yaseline' in a stylized font, along with descriptive text and an illustration of a Yaseline product box. The text emphasizes the product's benefits for skin and hair care.

Advertisement for 'Have Good Hair' and 'Work Wonders'. It features a small illustration of a woman's face and text promoting hair care products and a shaving stick. The ad uses bold, eye-catching typography.

Advertisement for 'Good Hair Across Trail'. The ad includes a small illustration of a woman's face and text promoting hair care products. It emphasizes the product's effectiveness for achieving smooth, styled hair.

Advertisement for 'Finds for Bobbed Hair'. The ad includes a small illustration of a woman's face and text promoting hair care products. It focuses on providing solutions for maintaining and styling bobbed hair.

Advertisement for 'FREEZONE' corn treatment. The ad features a large, bold title 'CORN'S' and an illustration of a foot with a corn being treated by a 'FREEZONE' device. Text below the illustration reads 'Lift Off—No Pain!' and 'Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little FREEZONE on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of FREEZONE for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.'