

That the dairy cow has a marked effect on the health of nations is shown by a recent study of 24 countries made at the Ohio State University. In New Zealand where there are 25 cows for each 100 persons the death rate is only 10 per 1,000 inhabitants as against 31 deaths in Chile where there are about 5 cows to every 100 persons.

GREAT FACTOR IN STATE'S GROWTH

Big State Company Has 14 Million Dollars Already Invested in N. Carolina.

Did you know that right here in North Carolina there has been built up the largest institution with over a quarter of a billion dollars of assets in the South?

Julian Price, president of the Big State Company, is shown in the above photograph. He is a prominent business leader in the South.

The Big State Company, a financial institution, has invested 14 million dollars in North Carolina. It is the largest institution of its kind in the South, with assets exceeding a quarter of a billion dollars. The company's growth is a testament to the economic development of the region.

There were more deaths from alcoholism before prohibition, but they were not so sudden. The per capita debt of this nation is about $219, but personally, we are willing to cancel off our part of what France owes America and call it quits.
