SOCIETY NEWS

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF ST. PHILIPS CHURCH MEETS

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philips church met Thursday afternoon, July 9, at the home of Mrs. H. V. Smedberg. Arrangements were made for a Silver Tea to be held on the lawn of the rectory, the date for which will be announced later. Mrs. Frank Jenkins had charge of the program, which was most interesting. A social time followed, during which refreshments were served by the hostess. Rev. Gingard, rector of Episcopal church, Lexington, N. C., and Mrs. Gingard were distinguished guests present. Rev. and Mrs. Gingard are Brevard visitors for the summer.

MRS. CRARY HONORS HOUSE GUEST AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Oliver Crary entertained at four tables of bridge Saturday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Harris, complimenting her house guest, Miss Ella Houston, of Greenville, S. C. A quantity of bright summer flowers added attractiveness to the rooms in which were placed the tables for the games. A charming color scheme of rose was artistically carried out in the dainty hand-painted place cards and score pads, and was further emphasized in the same course which followed the games. High score, won by Miss Martha Breese, was a lavender satin covered shoe-tree. Consolation fell to Miss Amelia Galloway, who was given a handpainted vase. The honoree was presented a dainty little handpainted telephone doll as a reminder of the afternoon given in her honor.

C. Ranson, Mrs. F. Zachary, Mrs. B. W. Thantam and Mrs. J. E. Waters. About thirty guests were present.

FAST FORK NEWS

Fast Fork land must be demanded from the number of real estate men from Florida, South Carolina and our own County, two who have been looking over land in our section for the last few days. Mr. Kinsey from Connetsee, has closed the land trade with Jule Royolds. It is reported that he has so purchased the home place of the old Lance. Mr. Dodd of Greenville, S. C., has bought a tract of land from J. McKelvey and is having a summer shack built on the property with his family, expect to bring here during August. There have been several others looking over land, but no other sales. To our mind this is an ideal place for tourists. We don't think it could be beaten any where. Well, now, we just thought we had the greatest freak ever, when we saw an old hen mothering two young turkeys and eight bantam chickens, but we'll take off our hats and make our nicest bow to Connetsee, the hen and eighteen guineas beat that one on East Fork to a frazzle. We have to confess that we are beaten on blackberries, too, but we still believe we are ahead with "all kinds" of corn. In spite of the revenue officers and storms, we think we have the best, and we feel confident that we are the banner community in the yellow jacket line. There are enough yellow jackets on East Fork to cure every case of rheumatism at Connetsee if they could be properly applied. Some of our boys are having great sport catching ground togs. The boys and dogs make it unpleasant for the hogs. Mr. Clayton Lane has purchased a Ford touring car, and he with his friend, Jim Graydy, went to Caesar's Head, Sunday. Mr. Clyde Hubbard from Kentucky, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hubbard, in the Carson Creek settlement. He has been away several years. His friends in this section, as well as his home place, are glad to see him again. Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Miami, Fla., spent a few days last week at the Dug Cottage. Mr. Jim Graydy went to be so robbing" one night last week. He took out one hundred and seventy-seven pounds of nice honey. Look up last week's News and note all the nice things growing around Connetsee—we've got 'em too, and some roasting ears, besides.
