

FARM NEWS

Thanks

The Agents and Club children wish to thank those who furnished the money to help send the children to the Fair.

Hatchery Up Next

Now that the intensive work with the children is off for a season, an effort will be made this week to put over the Community Hatchery.

As the situation now is the Farm Agent is not advised to push anything much but poultry and truck till real estate deals settle.

When the Hatchery question is out of the way, the question of markets will be up, and some form of organization will be pushed.

Rye for Seed

It is a proven fact that rye sowed late will have less cheat at threshing time than rye sown early.

Clover Seeded

If your clover seed failed due to the dry weather, sow the field in rye, and in the spring sow clover again.

FIRE THURSDAY MORNING

The fire department was called out about eight o'clock Thursday morning of last week in response to the alarm of fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt in North Brevard.

LOCAL PROPERTY OWNER'S HAT IS IN FLORIDA GOV. RACE

According to the Tallahassee Daily Democrat, of Tallahassee, Florida, of Saturday, October 17, William L. Popham, of Apalachicola, Fla., has officially put his hat in the Florida gubernatorial race by announcing his candidacy for the Governorship of the Sunshine State.

The story as carried by the Daily Democrat follows: "Hon. William Lee Popham, mayor of Apalachicola, announces his candidacy for the governorship of Florida, and with this announcement, comes the information that Mr. Popham intends to make more than a three-year solid run for the office, making public speeches in every hamlet, town, city and village in Florida.

"It is announced that Mr. Popham will begin his public speeches November first and the first campaign gun in his political race will probably be heard in middle or south Florida.

Two weeks ago Mr. Popham returned from an extended summer vacation in the Blue Ridge mountains in North Carolina, where he purchased several thousand acres of mountain lands, to be used as summer playgrounds for Florida vacationers, and it is since his return from North Carolina that Mr. Popham fully decided to make the race for the next governorship of Florida.

Mayor Popham was three times consecutively elected president of the Apalachicola chamber of commerce, three times elected president of the Apalachicola automobile club, is president of My Florida Country Club Incorporated, president of the Florida Wholesale Land Company, Inc., founder and trustee of the Popham Oyster Farm Estate, said to own more than 20,000 acres of lands in Franklin County, Florida, with about 4,000 investors, president of the Popham Land Company and president of the Oyster Growers Co-operative Association.

William Lee Popham has a large number of friends and admirers in Florida; is 50 years of age, and is well known over the entire State.

HENDERSON MAN FREED OF MURDER

The Henderson County jury granted freedom in the Hendersonville courtroom Tuesday night at ten o'clock to Bonnie Brooks, accepting Brooks' plea that he killed Sam Bryson, former mayor of Hendersonville, in self-defense, on August 6.

After a deliberation of three hours and 35 minutes, the foreman of the jury announced the verdict, giving the defendant his freedom with a verdict of not guilty. The jury had apparently returned a popular verdict, as there were many shouts of approval from the throng of friends and well-wishers present, who showered Brooks with congratulations. The defendant accepted the verdict calmly, stepping forward and shaking hands with the jurymen, thanking them briefly for what they had done, and taking his children into his arms.

The killing of Bryson by Brooks was the culmination of a series of conflicts between the two men, in which Brooks' wife was implicated. The fatal shot was fired by Brooks on August 6, at a filling station in Hendersonville, following the discovery by Brooks of Bryson in the Brooks home alone with Mrs. Brooks. At the trial which has been in progress in Hendersonville during the past week, the defense introduced the self-defense and insanity plea with frequent reference to the "Unwritten Law," all of which had due weight with the jury. The verdict was reached in two ballots.

"Oliver October," by George Barr McCutcheon, Begins This Week

Oliver October had a gloomy future. But his past was brilliant. He had achieved almost everything a young man would want. He was nearing thirty. And the worst part about it was the gypsy's prophecy that he would be hanged for a crime he did not commit, before he had lived three decades. What to do. What to do. Read all about it in George Barr McCutcheon's latest novel, "Oliver October," starting on another page of this week's News. It is full of thrills, action, and mystery. Start reading it today.

TRANSYLVANIA BOY RECEIVES HONOR AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Edwin Wike of Sapphire, a Junior at the University of North Carolina has received the honor of being among the Juniors and Seniors to make the Dean's List this fall.

The Dean's List includes those Juniors and Seniors of the School of Liberal Arts whose grades in the previous quarter have not fallen below 90, and as a result of having attained this grade they will have the privilege of non-compulsory class attendance. There are only thirty-nine out of the entire upper classes who are receiving this honor.

Transylvania County has been represented on this list twice within the last few years, Miss Mary Verner of Conestee having previously made the coveted grade.

FIRST LYCEUM NUMBER TO APPEAR HERE SATURDAY

The first number of the Lyceum course will appear at the high school auditorium, Saturday evening of this week. It will be in the nature of a play entitled, "Two Fellows and a Girl," one of George M. Cohan's best comedy productions. The fact that the play is organized and coached by the Redpath Bureau Producing Department, of New York City, assures for it a decided success. The Lyceum course is sponsored in Brevard by the Music Lovers' Club, and excellent numbers will be featured throughout the season, the play to be presented this week being considered one of the best. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Club, and reserved seats may be obtained at the Appalachian Gift Shop, Appalachian Inn.

REV. E. R. WELCH RETURNS TO PASTORATE FOR THIRD YEAR

The many friends of Rev. E. R. Welch, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church, will be glad to learn that he is appointed for his third year to the Brevard charge. H. C. Sprinkle, presiding elder of the Asheville District, is also returned to his same appointment.

BREVARD STORES LOOKING FORWARD TO GOOD SEASON

The several Brevard Clothing and Furnishing Stores are looking forward to a good season as is shown by the display ads in this issue of the News.

The past season has been exceptionally good for all concerned. In the real estate business, property in the County having nearly doubled in value; a good summer has been reported from those catering to the hosts of tourists who visited this section during the past season; the crops over the County have been very good despite the drouth, and a general feeling of prosperity is evident in the various community activities and enterprises.

BREVARD PAVING PROGRAM NEARING COMPLETION

The street improvement work, which has been in progress on the various streets of the town for the past several months, and which was made possible by the recent $300,000 bond issue, is beginning to assume proportions of completion in the not far distant future. The curbing has been laid on most of the streets to be included in the paving program, also the new concrete sidewalks laid and the majority of the streets now ready for the top coating of concrete.

TRANSYLVANIA CLUBS WIN TWO PLACES AT FAIR

Transylvania Home Demonstration Club Girls and Boys made a good showing at the State Fair, held in Raleigh last week, the Conestee Clothing Club winning second place and the Toxaway Poultry Club fourth place in the State.

The clothing team, consisting of Edna Mae Henderson and Bonnie Batson, of the Conestee Club, won second place, which was excellent for their first trial; for most all of the winning teams had been a contestants two or three times before either for the fair or State short course.

The poultry team, consisting of Charles Owen and O'Neal Owen, of the Lake Toxaway Club also gave good demonstrations and won fourth place.

Transylvania County can feel certain that no one went away from the State Fair without knowing that this County is on the map of North Carolina. We have the kind of girls and boys that can put it there; and see that it stays.

LOCAL WOODMEN TO ATTEND LOG ROLLING AT OLD FORT

The Western N. C. Log Rolling Association meets in semi-annual session at Old Fort, Thursday, Oct. 29. This district is composed of twenty-one Counties in charge of W. H. Grozan, Jr., District manager. The local Woodmen Camp will be represented by Rev. W. H. Hartsell, John Bishop, Winston, Ashworth, Jerry Jerome, and Y. J. McCray. The Woodmen Circle will elect delegates Monday afternoon to attend this convention.

HIGHWAY NO. 28, AS SEEN BY CHARLOTTE OBSERVER

State Highway No. 28, which starts at Chimney Rock and runs to Hendersonville, thence to Brevard, from which place it heads out through the lower borders of Jackson, Macon, and Clay Counties into Murphy, almost infringing on Georgia territory from Shooting Creek to Hayesville, is going to be known, before another Summer passes, as one of the really "Scenic" highways of America. It is being hard-surfaced out of Hendersonville for a distance of 8 miles, when it takes on the black top to Transylvania town of Rosman, on the trail of the French Broad, and from Rosman to Toxaway the grading has been completed. This highway appears to be a little more than standard width, but this is probably because of the tremendous "cuts" through which it passes up and around the mountains. It was a heavy job in excavation almost every mile of the way. The sides of the mountains are shaved down in places from distances the height of two poplar trees one below the other. Two concrete bridges are yet to span the tracks of the railroad that runs from Hendersonville to Toxaway, and these bridges will be remarkable more for height than span. From Toxaway through Cashiers Valley to Franklin and Hayesville is yet a large contract in grading and surfacing, and until that work is finished, travel over it will prove rather a jolt to those who want luxury. When the highway No. 28 is finally accepted by the State as a completed job, it will come into popularity with tourist travel, for it will open to the world a part of the State which is yet unknown to the people. Up that way is a section of wild grandeur for a fact. Charlotte Observer.

LOCAL TEACHERS ATTEND DISTRICT TEACHERS ASSO

All schools in Transylvania County were closed last Friday in order to give the teachers the opportunity of attending the regular fall meeting of the Western District of the State Teachers Association, which convened in Asheville Friday and Saturday of last week. It is estimated that some 2,000 teachers were in attendance. Practically every teacher in the Brevard High School and many teachers throughout the County attended this two day educational meeting, and those hearing the discussions are confident that much benefit was thereby derived.

H. T. Hunter, president of Cullowhee State Normal, was elected chairman of the Western District, succeeding A. J. Hutchins, superintendent of Canton schools. Among the group officers elected were a number of Brevard officers and teachers, as follows: T. C. Henderson, elected to the position of secretary for the County Superintendent's group; W. W. Hanaman, secretary for the City Superintendent's group; Mrs. W. W. Hanaman, chairman for Home Economics department; Mrs. Dorothy McKee, chairman for Grammar Grade department; Miss Annette Patton, vice-chairman for Grammar Grade department. Hendersonville was tentatively selected as the next meeting place for the division of the State Teachers Association.

The more essential topics for discussion on the program were: Longer School Term and Equalization Fund; A. J. Hutchins; Need for More Normal Schools, Dr. H. T. Hunter; The Intermediate Legislative Program; Dr. J. H. Highsmith; "The Instruction of Pupils as Individuals Within the Class Group"; Dr. Charles Penikton, of Peabody College; "Promoting Mental and Educational Tests"; Supt. A. W. Honeycutt, of Hendersonville; "The Place of Geography in our High Schools"; Prof. T. W. Valentine, of Hendersonville; "Working Our Social Sentiments in English"; R. J. Thomas, former superintendent of schools, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

SHERIFFS DEPT. GETS 7 STILLS IN 7 DAYS

In the past seven days the Sheriff's Department has confiscated a total of seven illicit distilleries in various sections of the County. The total capacity of the seven stills, four of which were complete, on per outfits, was approximately 400 gallons.

Along with one of the plants was destroyed 28 gallons of the real fluid ready for marketing. A quantity of beer and mash was destroyed at each plant, totalling about 6000 gallons.

In less than eight months, Deputy Fisher of the department has participated in 73 successful raids, getting each time an outfit. Other officers of the County have also figured in several raids, bringing the grand total to nearly one hundred stills destroyed during the administration of Sheriff Sitton.

BARACA SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TO HOLD SOCIAL

The Baraca class of the Brevard Baptist Sunday School is planning to have an old time candy pulling on Thursday evening, October 29. The social committee has not yet announced the place, but shall make this report next Sunday morning. All members are urged to be present Sunday morning and also at the social.

This class extends a warm welcome to the young men of the town and community who do not attend Sunday School elsewhere. Come and let us study the Word of God together. J. A. GLAZENER, President.

BETTERMENT MEETS MONDAY

The Betterment will meet next Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the old high school building.

THE PRAYER CORNER

THE GLADNESS OF CHRIST'S KINGDOM ON EARTH

The words of the Prophet are a promise of The Gladness of Christ's Kingdom on Earth when he says that the "desert shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice ever with joy and singing." He can hardly be speaking of the heavenly life or he would not call it a "wilderness," the "solitary place" and the "desert."

If Christians find their lives a bare, dull round of monotonous duties, it must be because they have their eyes fixed on their work, rather than on the face of their Master, or are giving only half-hearted service. Those who pour out their lives eagerly for God, without thinking of any other reward than His approving smile, and wonderful "Well done!" find out by experience the truth of the words of the prophet, "God Himself is the hearts desire of those who delight in Him, and the blessedness of longing fixed on Him, is that it ever fulfills itself. They who wait for God, have Him. The sunshine flows into the opened eye, the breath of life into the expanded lungs, so surely, so immediately the fulness of God fills the waiting wishing soul. To delight in God is to possess our dearest Heart! Lift up thy gates, open and raise the narrow, low portals, and the King of Glory will stoop to enter.

Only Christ can fully satisfy our hunger for perfect communion and fellowship; for He is perfect who understands our human longings, and perfect God, so that He can satisfy our every need, no wonder that Isaiah's words fit every generation of man: "With my soul have I desired Thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek Thee early." No wonder the Psalmist could say, "In the shadows of Thy wings will I rejoice," when it was his habit to remember God's holy presence upon his bed, to meditate upon Him in the night watches, and to think of Him always in the moments of waking.

A PRAYER FOR THE GLADNESS OF CHRIST'S KINGDOM ON EARTH

O Christ Our King, grant to us gladness in Thy Kingdom on Earth, that the words of the prophet Isaiah may be fulfilled in us. If we find our lives a bare dull round of monotonous duties, it must be because we have our eyes fixed on our work, rather than on Thy face, our Master, and our King, or that we are giving Thee only half-hearted service. Help us to pour out our lives eagerly for Thee, our God and Saviour; with thinking of any other reward than Thy approving smile, and wonderful "Well done," so shall we find out by experience the truth of the words of the prophet, and our common everyday life shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice ever with joy and singing.

O God, Thou Thyself art the hearts desire of all those who delight in Thee, and the blessedness of longing fixed on Thee ever fulfills itself. If we wait Thee, we have Thee. As the sunshine flows into the opened eye, and the breath of life into the expanded lungs, so surely, so immediately, does Thy fulness fill the waiting, wishing soul. O Heart, lift up thy gates, open and raise the narrow, low portals, and Thou, the King of Glory will stoop to enter.

Only Thou, O Christ, can fully satisfy our hunger for perfect communion and fellowship; for Thou art perfect man, and perfect God, so that Thou canst satisfy our every need. Give us grace to make the words of Isaiah our own. "With my soul have I desired Thee in the night, yea with my spirit within me will I seek Thee early." Help us to say with the Psalmist, "In the shadow of Thy wings will I rejoice." So shall we remember Thy holy presence upon our beds, meditate upon Thee in the night watches, and think of Thee always in the moments of waking, and unto Thee, Father, Son and Spirit, shall be all praise, both now and ever. Amen. —C. D. C.
