

BRIEF NEWS NOTES

WHAT HAS OCCURRED DURING WEEK THROUGHOUT COUNTRY AND ABROAD

EVENTS OF IMPORTANCE

Gathered From All Parts Of The Globe And Told In Short Paragraphs

Foreign

At Whitstable, England, Daniel Merrin observed with interest the introduction of white safety lines painted on streets to help regulate traffic.

Grilles and trellis work on Turkish windows, designed in the good old days of the sultan to protect the ladies of the harems from the gaze of outsiders, have been ordered removed by the Turkish minister of public health.

Confronted with stubborn resistance, German resistance to the two remaining unapproved clauses of the proposed Rhineland security pact, the Locarno conference has adjourned to permit the chief negotiators to seek a settlement through private discussion.

In the opinion of Premier Baldwin of Great Britain the advocates of disarmament can have little hope of success until the question of the security pact is settled.

For the first time in Germany's 26-year experience, a diver attempted to broadcast from under water to thousands of distant hearers. The experiment was a complete success.

Germany admittedly holds the whip hand in the conference to secure the peace of Europe, gets down to business. The two disputed points are: Germany's entrance into the league of nations; German arbitration treaties with Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Donald B. MacMillan has come out of the northland and announces that he will return to Labrador next summer to search for the route which the Norsemen were supposed to have taken in coming to New England.

In Morocco the M'koun river has overflowed its banks, making the transport of food supplies to the Franco-Spanish front very difficult. French and Spanish troops have joined forces for a drive against the Rifians in the eastern sector of Morocco.

Washington

The army and navy were charmed by Chairman Madden of the house appropriations committee with squandering millions of dollars in a purposeless, meaningless, endless spending orgy in aboriginal development.

Reserves of prohibition are stirring in legislative endorsement hearings. Approximately one-fourth of the 2,000 amendments dropped on October 17. One of these announced amendments a protest from Senator J. W. Hagell of Oklahoma, Republican, that he is not being consulted by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews in changes of prohibition on removal of appointments or removals in the enforcement unit of his state. Hagell insists that he be given this position.

Uncle Sam is the proud possessor of what is claimed to be the largest and most powerful gun in the world. The "Big Bertha," weighing 730,000 pounds, and now at the Aberdeen proving grounds, Maryland, is to be placed on 24 cast of a train that will take two months to carry it across country to Fort McArthur, San Pedro, Calif., its permanent resting place.

An attack on President Coolidge and Attorney General Sargent for the administration's attitude toward the four hundred million dollar bread merger is made in a joint statement issued by the minority members of the federal trade commission, John F. Nugent and Huston Thompson, Democrats.

Indications that opponents of the federal inheritance tax were preparing to launch a concerted fight to force its abolition were given with the announcement that a delegation led by Governor Walker of Georgia would be heard October 23 by the house ways and means committee.

Officials of several of the railroads tentatively linked in the Van Sweringen Nickel Plate project were put on the stand before the interstate commerce commission at the instance of the opponents of the proposal for rigorous examination as to its ramifications.

President Coolidge is incensed over the action of the shipping board in ousting Admiral Leigh C. Palmer, president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation and reorganizing the personnel without consulting him in any way whatever.

Reappointment of Maj. Gen. Mason M. Patrick as chief of the army air service by President Coolidge has formally been announced. The war department's intention to name him for a second four-year term of duty at this post was made public some time since.

Reorganization of co-operative associations which market Virginia-Carolina tobacco has been undertaken by the National Council of Agricultural Co-operatives at the instance of the leaders of the present tri-state tobacco pool.

The Muscle Shoals commission is preparing a statement of policy to be pursued by the government in leasing the vast Alabama water power project for development by private capital.

A complete denial of the charges of Arno S. Pierce, president of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' associations, at Manchester, England, against the procedure of the United States crop reporting board, in making its cotton crop forecast, has been issued by W. F. Callander, chairman of the board.

For the first time in its long history, the dignified, black-robed Supreme court heard the daughter of one of its members plead a case before it. She was Miss Susan Brandeis, 25-year-old daughter of Justice Brandeis. Her father stepped down from the bench when she took her place before the highest tribunal in the land.

The Supreme court has dismissed the case of John L. Anderson against the City of Macon, Ga. Anderson protested the right of the city to try him, after a labor union had found him guilty of larceny after trust and expelled him. The city then endeavored to try him. The court gives the city that right.

The Continental Baking corporation, one of the concerns taking part in the huge bakery merger announced at New York has been formally charged by the federal trade commission with violation of the Clayton act through its acquisition of control in a number of smaller concerns.

Arkansas was ordered by the Supreme court to show cause why its original bill of complaint against Mississippi, involving a boundary dispute, should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

September postal receipts at fifty selected postoffices amounted to $28,551,485, 10.25 per cent increase over September a year ago.

Domestic

Five prisoners, each reputed to be worth at least $1,000,000, left the federal penitentiary recently on parole to begin their lives anew. The list leaving Atlanta included two from the Savannah, Ga. rum ring, two from the Gary liquor ring, and an Evansville, Ind. banker.

The frantic search for Charles Ames, air mail pilot, who disappeared ten days ago, on Nittany mountain (Pennsylvania) when the body of the airplane was found in his wrecked plane, which had crashed against the side of a hill.

The churches of Cedar Rapids have completed their task of copying the New Testament, producing what officials of the ministerial association say is the only book of its kind in the world.

Eleven members of a party of tourists are known to have drowned when the pleasure boat, Clara B, capsized while attempting to turn in a rough sea just outside Sebastian inlet, Florida.

The most important event in the cotton section during the past few days was the publication of the surprisingly large preliminary estimate of the crop by the government.

Terry Druggan, a Chicago bootlegger, who is in jail, is apparently as romantic as being a movie star. He is receiving mash notes by the hundreds every day.

Cardinal Hayes, speaking in New York church the other day, said that men were getting better and, surprising as it may seem, women worse.

The house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America has approved the finding of a church court convicting Bishop William Montgomery Brown of heresy. More than two hours were occupied in executive session and Bishop Brown addressed the house of bishops on his case. He finally appealed to the United States court to restrain the house of bishops from passing sentence, but the court refused to interfere.

A giant merger of cotton companies, involving 35 plants in six states, valued at more than twelve million dollars, has been consummated, it became known in Little Rock, Ark., the other day, when a copy of the charter of the Federal Warehouse and Compress company, a Delaware corporation, was filed with the secretary of state by C. A. Cunningham of Blytheville, attorney for six Arkansas companies interested in the merger.

The American Legion's seventh annual convention recently ended with the elevation of John R. (Go-Get-Em) McQuig of East Cleveland, O., white-haired, 59-year-old lawyer and banker, veteran of two wars, and who was wounded overseas, engineer officer, as national commander. His election was made unanimous.

In New York City, Samuel Grossman is charged with having two wives under the same roof. In an apartment he would spend one night with wife number one; the next night with wife number two; one night he would take wife number one to a show; following night wife number two to the same show.

At Poughkeepsie the other morning, the body of Miss Anna Frances Bailey, 21, senior at Vassar, was found suspended by a scarf from a hook in the clothes press of her room at the main building. The authorities opine that she committed suicide during a temporary mental aberration.

Thomas Brown, Jr., 23, was shot and almost instantly killed by Mrs. Winnie Lou Carson, 60, at the Carson home on Oakdale road, near Gilmore, Ga., where the victim was a boarder. It is stated that Brown was drunk and had precipitated a row.

Boston Gets a Visit From Band of Arapahoes

Bostonians have been greatly interested in the band of Arapahoe Indians from the Wind River reservation, Wyoming, that has been encamped in Fenway park. Here is a view of some of the teepees and a portrait of Chief Goes-in-the-Lodge, who is eighty-six years old.

Forward Movement of Spanish Artillery in Morocco

The rainy season in Morocco has slowed up the operations of the French and Spanish against the Rif, but their forces are still moving forward. The illustration shows Spanish artillery advancing in the mountains.

TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Mrs. Edith Williams, attorney of Dallas, Texas, and former member of the state legislature, who will oppose "Ma" Ferguson in the gubernatorial race in 1926.

INDIAN BEAUTY

Mrs. Melissa Perry, otherwise Wood Dove, of the Umatilla tribe of Indians, who was chosen as the prettiest American Indian girl at the annual roundup held at Pendleton, Ore.

Ace Eddie Invents New Motor

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, left, American ace, explaining the new type rotary motor that he has designed for commercial planes to Maj. J. H. Radolph, army technical expert, at Mitchel field.

Borghlum Will Carve This Mountain

View of Rushmore mountain near Rapid City in the Black Hills of South Dakota, which has been selected by Gutzon Borglum for a great group of memorial sculptures planned by him. It will include figures of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt.

WRIGLEYS

AFTER EVERY MEAL

Probably one reason for the popularity of WRIGLEY'S is that it lasts so long and returns such great dividends for so small an outlay. It keeps teeth clean, breath sweet, appetite keen, digestion good. Fresh and full-flavored always in its wax-wrapped package.

"Concrete Around the Home" tells in everyday language how to use concrete for building drives, walks, steps, porches, and other permanent improvements which every home needs. Complete instructions make it easy to estimate materials and to finish the job.

"Plans for Concrete Farm Buildings" contains suggestions for building barns, sheds, and other farm buildings. The information on Concrete Barn Floors and Feeding Floors will help you add many a dollar to your net profits.

PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION 111 West Madison Street CHICAGO

CHAMPION X 60c For more than 13 years standard equipment on Ford Cars, Trucks and Fordson Tractors—ample proof of its great dependability.

Blue Box for all other cars, 75 cents. The genuine have double-ribbed siliimanite cores. Champion Spark Plug Co. Toledo, Ohio Windsor, Ont., London, Paris

Green's August Flower for Constipation, Indigestion and Torpid Liver Successful for 50 years One and 1/2 bottles—ALL DRUGGISTS

CLEAR YOUR SKIN of disfiguring blotches and irritations. Use Resinol