SOCIETY

METHODIST LADIES GIVE ENJOYABLE SUPPER. The ladies of the Local Department of the Methodist church gave a highly enjoyable oyster and chicken supper Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hays. The ladies' charges under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Harris, served delectable which were fully in keeping with the high reputation attained by the ladies in their culinary ability. It is evidenced in their annual church suppers. A neat sum was realized by this organization, thereby increasing its treasury fund. JANE WILSON HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY. Little Janie Wilson celebrated her fourth birthday anniversary Friday afternoon, by entertaining a number of her little friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wilson. The rooms were prettily decorated, carrying out an effective color scheme in pink and white. Potted ferns and autumn leaves also added to the general attractiveness. Each guest presented the little hostess with a birthday gift, and all joined in the pleasure of opening the various packages. After games and frolics which delight little tots, the children were invited into the dining room where ice cream, cake and candies were served. Twenty-five children helped Janie celebrate this happy occasion.
