SOCIETY

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philips church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. G. Ward.

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. D. G. Ward. It was decided to conduct a bazaar Saturday afternoon at the Appalachian Inn, and also to give a Christmas party for the Sunday School children on the Wednesday before Christmas, at the Rectory. A missionary box valued at $28.00 was sent off to the mission school at Porto Rico.

A pleasant social time and refreshments followed the business meeting.

ALMEDA WATERS AND RUEL HUNT ENTERTAIN

Almeda Waters and Ruel Hunt entertained jointly with a party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waters. Twenty of their young friends enjoyed with them a delightful evening in various games and music. Punch and cake was served during the evening.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met in regular monthly session Thursday afternoon in the ladies' parlor.

The business session included the usual routine together with reports from the officers of the various departments. The Society voted to give a shower for the Brevard Institute domestic science department, each member contributing a certain needed article. The election of officers for the ensuing year was next in order, and by unanimous vote, all executives then in office were re-elected.

A most interesting and helpful Harvest Day program was presented, those participating being the officers of the Society and superintendents of the different departments. Each one in turn, with a few appropriate remarks bearing on the idea of Harvest Day, presented to the Great Recorder her gift, symbolizing by this fruit of the harvest the rich returns yielded by the various departments as carried on in the mission work. The program also included an encouraging report from each officer relative to the work accomplished during the year in her respective office.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. J. M. Allison was hostess for the Wednesday Club, at her home on Probate Avenue, Wednesday afternoon, December 2.

It was voted to give a Christmas stocking to Oteen, to donate a certain sum toward the Near East Relief, and to have two days at the booth for the sale of Christmas Seals, on the tenth and eighteenth.

The meeting was turned over to the program leader for the day, Mrs. O. L. Erwin, assisted by Mrs. P. N. Simons. It was in the nature of a musical program, an opera from Wagner, "The Ring of the Nibelung," and was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by those present.

Following refreshments, the Club adjourned to meet Wednesday, December 16, with Mrs. R. W. Everett.

LIVINGSTON CIRCLE MEETS

The Livingston Circle of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Aslworth.

The business session included the annual election of officers which was as follows: President, of Missionary Society, Mrs. T. P. Ward; chairman of Livingston Circle, Mrs. H. E. Erwin; treasurer, Mrs. S. C. Yates; secretary, Mrs. W. S. Price, Jr.

ARIZONA STATE FLAG DISPLAYED IN EAST ON ARMISTICE DAY

(Phoenix (Ariz.) Republic)

One of the features of the Armistice Day celebration and the fair at Brevard, N. C., was an Arizona state flag, according to a letter received by James H. Kerby, secretary of state from Miss Annette E.

Patton, former resident of Arizona, now living at Brevard.

Miss Patton had written to Mr. Kerby asking that a state flag be sent for use in the Armistice Day celebration and the county fair, held during fair week. Mr. Kerby loaned her a state flag and in her letter she states as follows concerning it:

"I wish to thank you in behalf of our town and county and assure you that your flag (Arizona) received the heartiest applause of any state flag except North Carolina. Your flag was placed in a prominent window down town and a note telling from which state it came, so there are hundreds who will know the Arizona flag and have a kindly feeling towards the people of your state because of your generous loan."
